THRONE SPEECH HIGHLIGHTS

A supplementary budget before Christmas.

Criminal Code amendments on capital punishment and criminal sexual psychopaths.

Steps to encourage greater participation by Canadians in the ownership and control of Canadian industry and resources.

Legislation to require disclosure of information by business and labor organizations controlled from outside Canada.

Government guarantees for bank loans to small businesses to finance additions and improvements to premises and equipment.

Amendments to the National Housing Act to improve terms of mortgage lending.

Authority for Central Mortgage and Housing Corporation to buy, improve and rent existing housing in urban redevelopment areas, in participation with the provinces.

Legislation to authorize CMHC loans to universities for students' residences.

Long-term CMHC loans covering up to two-thirds the cost of projects to correct community water pollution problems, with the government writing off 25 per cent of any such loan spent on work done before April, 1963.

Establishment of a productivity council.

Ratification of the Columbia River power and flood-control agreement with the United States.

Means to encourage Canadian youth in amateur athletics.

Amendments to the Pensions Act to provide substantial increases in pensions payable to veterans or their dependents.

Legislation to enable the federal government to join provincial authorities and local groups in rural rehabilitation and development programs.

Federal grants to the provinces of 75 per cent of the amounts spent up to March 31, 1963, on approved technical or training institutions.

Amendments to the Unemployment Insurance Act to safeguard its basic purpose, strengthen the fund and correct abuses which have developed in practice.

Amendments to the Civil Service Act, the Immigration Act, the Canada Shipping Act, and the Penitentiaries Act.

Enlargement of the tariff board, along with a revision in the definition in the customs tariffs of goods of a class or kind made in Canada.

Proposals Heard By Parliament

OTTAWA (CP) — A wide-ranging attack on Canada's unemployment and other economic problems, including presentation of a pre-Christmas baby budget, was signalled by the government at today's opening of the new session of Parliament.

Measures to encourage greater Canadian ownership of the country's industry and resources, and a new program of government guaranteed loans to small business will be part of the government's new legislative program for the session set out in the speech from the throne.

Improvements in National Housing Act mortgage terms, a broadening of the housing program and added federal help for vocational training of displaced workers and others also were forecast in the government - written throne speech, read at the formal opening ceremony in the Senate by Governor-General Vanier.

On another front, the government disclosed plans to alter the law dealing with the death penalty for murder. Informed speculation was that this may abolish the death penalty for some types of murder while retaining the supreme penalty for other types, such as premeditated slayings.

Government encouragement of amateur athletics also was forecast — a move which has been urged by many persons critical of Canada's low standing in international competitions.

A new attack will be made on water pollution using federal loans and grants, and a "comprehensive" program of rural rehabilitation and development will be made available to provinces and local organizations wanting to co-operate.

New Railway Developments Planned

"Several" new railway development projects are in the works, including a CNR line to a new mining area near Mattagami Lake in northwest Quebec and a rail line to tap a large base metal deposit at Pine Point on Great Slave Lake in the Northwest Territories. It will start from the railhead of Grimshaw in Alberta's Peace River country.

The throne speech made no reference to unemployment — expected to be a major debating topic of the session.

It indicated there will be a transfusion of federal money into the dwindling unemployment insurance fund—$319,476,000 at Sept. 30 compared with its peak at more than $900,000,000 in 1956 plus legislation to "correct abuses which have developed" in the operation of the insurance plan.

In a brief review of the economic situation, the throne speech said foreign trade is at a record level, more Canadians have been employed this year than ever before and labor income is at "an all-time high."

But it said the government recognizes the need of continuing economic expansion fast enough to provide jobs for the record numbers now entering

SHY AWAY FROM LABOR

Civil Servants Heed 'Dabbling' Warning

Victoria civil servants Wednesday made it clear they will vote against affiliating with labor next month by dropping out of the Victoria Labor Council.

The local branch of the B.C. Government Employees' Association cut its local affiliation because the VLC "has decided to take direct action in the forthcoming federal by-election" (in Esquimalt-Saanich), said Jack Gowan, president of the 1,800-member civil service branch.

Motor Vehicles Superintendent George Lindsay said Wednesday civil servants would be placing themselves in jeopardy by political connections.

A letter to the labor council Wednesday night gave formal notice of the Victoria civil servants' decision. Mr. Gowan said the move was approved by members at a meeting Monday.

BCGEA general secretary E. P. O'Connor said in Vancouver today it is a local matter. "The branches themselves decided to affiliate with labor councils."

However, the Victoria decision certainly shows, say officials, how the branch will vote Dec. 15 when all 11,000 BCGEA members decide whether or not to affiliate with the B.C. Federation of Labor.

This affiliation was cut when the provincial government stopped payroll deductions of BCGEA dues Oct. 11.

The government's reason: the B.C. Federation of Labor supports the CCF politically.

Civil service members expect the government to reinstate the checkoff if the vote next month is for disaffiliation.

Mr. Lindsay's statement came at a luncheon Wednesday for 25-year civil servants.

Allegiance Can Lead to Discharge

"I have been fearful recently that we of the civil service are placing ourselves in jeopardy probably to the extent of losing the recognition and advantages we have received over the years," Lindsay said.

Mr. Lindsay replied to a chairman's speech by Provincial Secretary Wesley Black who praised "truly good and faithful servants."

Mr. Lindsay said civil servants in other provinces and the U.S. had political connections. He referred to this year's election in Quebec where the Union Nationale party was ousted by the Liberals and the over-

BUNGLED PURSE-SNATCHING

Dishwasher Confesses To Killing Three Women

OTTAWA, Ill. (AP)—A sobbing dishwasher told authorities today that he killed the wives of three Chicago business executives in a canyon at Starved Rock State Park after a bungled purse-snatching attempt.

Sheriff Ray Eutsey said the confession was given by Chester Otis Weger, 21-year-old father of two youngsters, who was employed in the park lodge kitchen.

The victims, slain March 14, were Mrs. Lillian Oetting, 50; Mrs. Mildred Lindquist, 50, and Mrs. Frances Murphy, 47, who lived in Riverside, a Chicago suburb.

Hundreds of men were questioned in a widespread eight-month investigation to solve the mystery surrounding the brutal clubbing of the white women.

Eutsey said Weger had been a special object of interest from the outset because he had been quizzed in two robberies at nearby Deer Park in 1959.

Today, handcuffed and held by a chain leash, the stocky Weger led authorities from place to place in the canyon, re-enacting the killings.

The sheriff said Weger told this story between outbursts of sobbing and periods of sulky silence:

He encountered the three women near the mouth of St. Louis Canyon and attempted to snatch what he thought was a purse one of them was carrying.

What he snatched was a camera Mrs. Murphy was carrying. The strap broke. Realizing that he had failed to get money, Weger hesitated.

PLEAS WITH VICTIMS

He said he pleaded with the three women to return up the canyon and give him an opportunity to flee. At length, they consented and walked back toward the canyon's dead end.

During the re-enactment, Weger said he followed the women, still intent upon getting money, herded them into the cave. Then:

"I tied them so they wouldn't follow me. The little one (Mrs. Murphy) raised her hand to hit me. When I started back, she came after me on the path. I thought she was tied.

"She hit me on the back of the head with binoculars. I reached for the club as she hit me, and I turned and struck her on the back of the head."

The club was a length of tree limb.

TRIED TO SCRATCH HIM

He said Mrs. Murphy fell. "Her eyes were closed. I carried her back to the cave. The two women in the cave managed to get up. One tried to scratch me; I don't know which one.

"I'd laid the club down, but I picked it up and hit them so they couldn't identify me. They lay back. I kept striking them. Then I looked up and Mrs. Murphy came to. I thought I had killed her. I thought she was dead."

He clubbed Mrs. Murphy again, he said.

Eutsey said that Weger had been under 24-hour surveillance for a month, since a second inconclusive lie detector test.

Ike Sends Forces To Latin America

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP)—President Eisenhower has ordered U.S. Navy warships and air units to help Guatemala and Nicaragua "seek out and prevent" any Communist-directed attack on these countries if it becomes necessary.

The White House reported the warships, including an aircraft carrier, are "now on the high seas" to carry out this mission.

Eisenhower acted, the White House said, in answer to written requests from the Guatemalan and Nicaraguan governments for such American help.

In the last few days Guatemala and Nicaragua have fought off what they claim are anti-government revolts directed by supporters of Cuba's Fidel Castro.

NO MARINES ABOARD

White House Press Secretary James Hagerty, who announced Eisenhower's decision, said that as far as he knew there were no U.S. marines aboard the ships sent into the Caribbean area.

Hagerty strongly hinted—but declined to say specifically—that the warships would, if necessary, go into action to repel any attack from Cuba.

LONE GUNMAN TAKES PAYROLL IN VANCOUVER

VANCOUVER (CP)—A lone armed bandit kidnapped two soft drink company employees today and robbed them of an $8,600 payroll they had just picked up from a bank.

Wayne Fisk, 22, and Dave Burn, clerk and cashier of the Coca Cola plant in the suburb of Kitsilano, said the armed man slipped in beside them just as they were prepared to pull away in a truck from the bank.

The men were made to drive to bushland in the university area when the gunman left them and drove away in the truck with the money.

7 Charged With Fraud, Bribery

NORANDA, Que. (CP)—Charges of fraud and bribery have been lodged against seven men, including the defeated Progressive Conservative candidate for Villeneuve in the last two federal general elections, following an RCMP investigation into government public works projects.

The charges involve alleged mishandling of government funds in connection with works department dredging and other activities on rivers in this Quebec area.

Debre in Big Gamble On Nuclear Proposal

PARIS (Reuters) — Prime Minister Michel Debre tonight staked the life of his government—for a second time—on National Assembly approval of the plan to build France's independent nuclear striking force.

The government move came after rejection of the 12,000,000,000 new francs (about $24,000,000,000) five-year program by the Senate and failure of a compromise bid by a joint committee of both Houses.

Under the constitution the Assembly has the last word on a disputed bill. The controversial strike force project was the subject of an opposition censure motion against the government which was defeated in the National Assembly Oct. 25.

It gained 207 votes—70 short of the absolute majority needed to overthrow the 21-month-old Debre government.

Korea Students Riot

SEOUL, Korea (AP)—South Korean national police today fired warning shots and tear gas to disperse 1,000 Yonsei University demonstrators demanding the release of 56 students arrested after a riotous attack on the homes of two American officials of the university.

PARIS (Reuters) — A military court today announced the release on provisional liberty of R. Jean-Claude Perez and Jean-Marie Demarquet, two leading figures in the "Algiers plot" trial.

CRACKDOWN ON RADIO 'CONTESTS'

OTTAWA (CP)—The Board of Broadcast Governors said today it proposes to amend its radio station regulations to limit promotional contests, alter the timing of advertisements, "induce greater program choice for listeners" and increase Canadian content.

The governors' intentions will be open to debate at a public hearing opening in Ottawa Nov. 29. Specific amendments will be proposed later and be made subject to a second hearing.

The statement did not indicate any concrete BBG plan to cope with Canadian content on radio stations. But it said many stations are "making little effort to build up programs of Canadian content and character."

JOINS CCF CAUCUSES ... BUT NOT STRATEGY

OTTAWA (CP) — Walter Pitman, 31, New Party member of Parliament for Peterborough, Ont., said today he probably will attend CCF party caucuses but does not intend to join the CCF members in their closed strategy sessions.

Mr. Pitman, the first New Party member of the Commons, was sworn in as an MP by commons clerk Leon J. Raymond. Hazen Argue, CCF national leader, and Stanley Knowles, vice-president of the Canadian Labor Congress, attended the ceremony.

OTTAWA—A nine-ton, 40-passenger army bus with nobody in it rolled away from its parking place near defence headquarters Wednesday, down a 15-foot embankment and through a concrete-and-iron fence and came to rest with its front wheels overhanging the Rideau Canal.

DEAL, England—A 24-year-old Royal Marine bugler who tired of tooting taps and went absent to become a rock 'n' roll star in Canada and the U.S. was sentenced to a year in jail Wednesday.

His defence counsel said the bugler was £130 in debt when he left for a tour of Canada last year with the Royal Marines band. The chance to lead a rock 'n' roll band presented itself and Gillman, father of four, took it in order to pay off his debts, the lawyer told the court martial.

He made a hit in Canada with rock 'n' roll and folk songs and went on to more success in the United States. He was arrested when he returned to Canada.

Gillman had pleaded not guilty to a charge of desertion in Montreal but admitted being absent without leave for the year ending Sept. 22, 1960.

He was also ordered to forfeit his good conduct badge.

SAN FRANCISCO — United States Commissioner Joseph B. Karesh dismissed charges Wednesday against a longshoreman accused of stealing one pineapple from a freighter, September 11.

"The commissioner said two guards who testified against the longeshoreman differed in their stories.

"This thing is bigger than one pineapple," said assistant United States Attorney James F. Hewitt.

"If every longshoreman took only one pineapple over a period of a week the total loss would run into hundreds, maybe thousands of dollars."

Wiley Nisby, 46, the longshoreman, was asked how he felt after Karesh dismissed the charge. He looked at the bedraggled, frozen pineapple—it had been stored since September 11—and shrugged:

"They spoilt my pineapple."

Burglar Tool Possession Convicts Two

Two Vancouver men were sent to the B.C. Penitentiary for two years when they appeared in Colwood RCMP court Wednesday for being in possession of burglar tools.

Both were tried and found guilty of the offence, noted by a policeman who checked them in their car near Colwood shopping centre early one morning.

When sentencing George William Turner, 20, and Joseph Raymond Palmer, 24, (whose real name was learned in court to be Alfred Roy Dorn), Magistrate A. I. Thomas considered the fact they were in possession of a loaded revolver at the same time.

Both men had criminal records.

HANSCOM FIELD, Mass. (AP)—The air force national space surveillance centre reported today the satellite Discoverer XIII burned up in the earth's atmosphere Monday afternoon somewhere over the South Pacific.

Decay of Discoverer XIII reduced the satellite population to 16.

Discoverer XIII was launched Aug. 10, 1960, at Vandenburg Air Force Base, Calif.

SIXTH WOMAN IN UPPER HOUSE

Two New Senators, Librarian Named

OTTAWA (UPI) — Prime Minister John Diefenbaker tonight appointed two senators for Quebec and made a long-awaited appointment of a new parliamentary librarian.

The two new senators whose appointment fills the 102-member Upper House were Mrs. Harry S. Quart of Sillery, Que., national president of the Progressive Conservative Women's Association, and Louis P. Beaubien, a Montreal investment dealer.

They were sworn in this morning and to take their place at today's opening of Parliament.

Erik John Spicer, 34, deputy librarian of the Ottawa Public Library was named parliamentary librarian, a post which has been vacant for more than a year.

HOUSE NOW COMPLETE

The appointment of the two Quebec senators fills the Senate for the first time in several years and brings Conservative membership to 26, still far short of the Liberals' 73.

The Senate appointments are for life and carry a salary of $10,000 a year. The parliamentary librarian receives $12,500 a year.

Mrs. Quart, 62, becomes the sixth female member of the upper house. The mother of five children was awarded the title of Member of the British Empire (MBE) for her work in women's auxiliaries in eastern Quebec during the Second World War.

In 1958, Mrs. Quart was a representative of the Canadian delegation to the United Nation General Assembly and is Canadian delegate to the UN Status of Women Commission.

Beaubien, 57, is the son of a former Senator, the late Charles Philippe Beaubien, and served overseas with the Canadian army during the Second World War in the United Kingdom, Sicily and Italy. He is married with two children and was educated at McGill University.

Work Program Fuller

NORTH COWICHAN — A more optimistic view toward the creation of winter work projects was taken by Reeve Donald Morton Wednesday, following relaxation of categories of government-subsidized winter work projects.

He said the changes in regulations would probably permit improvements to the municipal cemetery.

Projects so far approved under the municipal program would create 2,700 man hours of work at a total cost of about $92,000. The federal government has approved road work providing 2,000 man hours, to cost about $60,000.

WANT TIME TO PRESENT 'FULL PICTURE'

B.C. Electric Urges PUC To Delay Action on Rates

VANCOUVER (CP)—The B.C. Electric Company Wednesday asked the Public Utilities Commission for time to present a "full picture" of its earnings and rates.

The company also asked the PUC not to discourage eastern investors by giving the impression that its earnings may be further restricted.

The plea came at a public hearing into the intention of the commission to scrap its 1952 ruling that 6.5 per cent is a "reasonable and fair" profit for the company to make.

The point at issue is the requirement of the commission that any rate increase be approved. This has been challenged by the company and the Supreme Court of Canada recently ruled that the B.C. Electric could increase rates at will as long as it stayed within the percentage limit.

Michael Goldie, solicitor for the B.C. Electric, proposed that the commission not take any action until the company next proposed a revision in rates, at which time the company would submit a full picture of earnings.

He said he was concerned that eastern investors in the B.C. Electric would get the impression from Wednesday's hearings that the commission intended to exercise greater control over the company's operations.

Vancouver, Victoria, the Fraser Valley Association of Municipalities, White Rock and a representative of industry urged the commission to maintain control of the utility's rate structure.

Commission chairman H. F. Angus said this could possibly be done by removing the ceiling on earnings and simply requiring the company to submit proposed rate increases and prove they were fair and reasonable to the consumer and company alike.

Terrance O'Grady, Victoria city solicitor, said the Supreme Court ruling would upset the PUC's control over rates.

"After all, the B.C. Electric is not a benevolent association," he said. "It is in business to make a profit for its shareholders and is now charging all the traffic will bear."

Tax Incentives Urged To Promote Building

OTTAWA (CP)—Tax incentives to encourage private construction projects in the winter, thus reducing winter unemployment, were urged today by Raymond Brunet of Hull, Que., a former president of the Canadian Construction Association.

The present incentive program for municipal winter works has proved successful in providing increased winter jobs, he said in a speech to the Ottawa branch of the Engineering Institute of Canada.

"The potential benefits of the application of similar principles to the much larger fields of industrial, commercial and residential construction are correspondingly even greater."

Mr. Brunet is chairman of the national joint committee on winter-time construction—a group with government, industry, business and labor representatives.

He said the tax incentive most favored by construction association members would be an income tax allowance for accelerated depreciation on privately - financed construction projects, related to payrolls during winter months.

PHILIP CHIDED FOR COMMENT ON GERMANY

LONDON (AP) — Prince Philip came under personal attack by a member of parliament Wednesday night for advocating an end to bad feeling between Britain and Germany.

Sydney Silverman, a left-wing Labor MP, charged the prince had taken sides in a political issue—something no member of the Royal Family is supposed to do.

Prince Philip, in an address to the Anglo-German society in London Tuesday night, called on Britons and Germans to stop "stoking up the fires of hatred."

PERRAULT SPURS UNEMPLOYMENT DRIVE

Labor, Management, Public Urged to Unite

NORTH VANCOUVER (CP) —B.C. Liberal leader Ray Perrault told a party meeting here Wednesday night that the time has come when labor, management and the general public must unite.

He said the Liberals propose a meeting of all groups in the province on the subject of unemployment for Dec. 3.

Mr. Perrault said the meeting must be under neutral, non-political auspices and that representatives of business, labor, agriculture, all political parties and other groups should be present.

He said to ensure that the meeting would be under neutral championship, Mr. Perrault approached representatives of three religious denominations and they indicated that they would be willing to appoint representatives on a special conference panel.

"The problem of unemployment haunts thousands of homes in British Columbia tonight," Mr. Perrault said, "and yet some still talk as though we are participants in some game of opposing factions. For too long too many people in this province have approached our serious social problems saying 'I am against labor' or 'I am against business.' 'I hate labor racketeers,' or 'I hate greedy capitalists.'

"These sentiments have helped poison the moral climate of British Columbia. They have made new business wary of our province worst of all this kind of talk has undermined confidence in ourselves.

"These statements of prejudice assume that the saints are on one side and all of the devils are on the other side. But social justice in our province does not mean hating the union organizer or hating the business man. Surely it means seeking the common good. No one group is always right, whether it is business or labor because they are good."

the labor force and for those displaced from jobs by automation.

It said new government legislation will be "designed to increase immediate employment opportunities" and will constitute "a large further instalment in the long-range program of national development."

The announcement that Finance Minister Fleming will present "a supplementary budget" before Christmas gave no further details.

Baby Budget Details Withheld

The last time such a baby budget was presented was in September of 1957 after the Progressive Conservatives took office in June that year, when social security payments were boosted and taxes cut by a total $176,000,000 a year in a program aimed at offsetting an economic slump.

Conceivably, however, the announced incentives to Canadian investment in the country's industry and resources could take the form of tax changes.

As well, a forecast of legislation to enlarge the investment powers of insurance companies might take them into the field of investments in common stocks. This would be one way of putting Canadian savings into such investments.

Other indicated legislation will require disclosure of "information"—presumably financial reports—by foreign-controlled business and labor organizations.

The forecast program of government-guaranteed bank loans to small businesses is aimed at financing adidtions and improvements to plant and equipment.

The speech said these additional medium-term credit facilities will enable many business projects to start this winter "providing substantial additional employment."

Slum Improvement Loans Broadened

The vocational training legislation, besides providing increased federal aid to provincial programs, would provide federal capital grants of 75 per cent of construction costs on new vocational schools spent up to March 31, 1963.

However, it said that Central Mortgage and Housing Corporation, the government's housing agency, will be moving into two new fields.

One will involve direct CMHC loans for construction of university student residences. The other will permit the purchase, improvement and rental of existing homes as part of the present slum-improvement program. That program now is limited to purchasing and clearing of blighted slum areas and the building of new rental housing.

The five-member tariff board will be enlarged and empowered to sit in two panels in a move to speed up review and modernization of Canada's customs tariff structure.

Larger Tariff Board, New Powers

Also forecast is a revision of the tariff definition of goods "of a class or kind made in Canada." This definition is part of the policy of granting lower tariffs on imports not competitive with Canadian-made products.

The speech confirmed Prime Minister Diefenbaker's announced intention to set up a productivity council. Purpose of the council, an advisory body, would be to strengthen Canada's competitive position in export and domestic markets by improving industrial productivity. Council membership would include representatives of industry, labor, agriculture and other primary producers and government scientists.

Looking well ahead, the government said it will seek renewal of the present federal grants for hospital construction for a further five years after the expiry of the present program in March, 1963.

The speech gave no indication of any policy decision to obtain nuclear warheads for Canada's Bomarc anti-aircraft missiles and other weapons. It said merely that Parliament will be asked to maintain forces "adequate to meet Canada's defence obligations."

Meanwhile the government would continue "unremitting efforts" to achieve progress in controlled world disarmament.

Approval of Columbia Project Asked

The speech announced approval will be sought for "a number of major projects" including Columbia River power development in British Columbia, a floodway at Winnipeg to divert waters of the Red and Assiniboine Rivers, and conservation projects on the upper Thames River in southwest Ontario.

It referred to this year's two Dominion-provincial tax conferences on a new tax deal to succeed the present tax-rental arrangements that expire on March 31, 1962.

"Further exchanges of views will take place," it said, and Parliament would be asked "in due course" to approve a new tax arrangement.

The proposed new legislation dealing with capital punishment would also deal with treatment of criminal sexual psychopaths. The Criminal Code now provides indefinite detention for such offenders.

Revision of three major statutes were forecast: the Civil Service Act, the Immigration Act and the Penitentiaries Act. Changes in the Penitentiaries Act would incorporate the government's new penal reform policies. The Canada Shipping Act also will be amended.

. . . CIVIL SERVANTS

"It meant just this: of the so-called civil servants of these governments who had entered positions of the body politic in the defeat of their party over 50 per cent were discharged."

He called on all civil service seniors:

"Warn your juniors and others you come into contact with that our adantages are great compared to what others are receiving elsewhere.

"Let us not give consideration to anything but loyalty to our government which has been to us just at all times."

He quoted Provincial Secretary Black as saying in the legislature B.C. had "one of the better civil services within the Dominion of Canada."

Rebels Flee

GUATEMALA CITY (AP) —The last of the rebels against the government of President Miguel Ydigoras were reported to be in flight today in eastern Guatemala.

The army announced Wednesday night that the insurgents deserted their last stronghold, the port of Puerto Barrios, and took to their heels with parachute troopers in pursuit. The government offered $50 for the capture of every rebel.

DALY QUITS TOP TV POST

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

NEW YORK (AP) — John Daly's resignation as vice-president of the ABC's news and public affairs department spotlights the growing importance of "information"—as opposed to entertainment—in today's network programming.

Daly has served the network for seven years as its chief news and public affairs executive, top commentator and newscaster. Until the political conventions last summer, he drew nothing but bouquets for the way he ran his department.

It was Daly who rigidly enforced the policy that all programs in the areas of news and public affairs must be supervised and controlled by the news and public affairs department. NBC and CBS also follow such a policy.

FUMED AT SHIFTING

The What's My Line? host has been increasingly unhappy over ABC's attitude toward news coverage. He fumed when the network moved news broadcasts around to accommodate paid political broadcasts. He made no secret of his unhappiness when the network first refused to push its election night coverage forward to match the other two networks.

JOHN DALY
. . . won't compromise

FILM, NOT SEEN

The break came when he learned that ABC planned to show on its Closeup program Dec. 7 a film about Cuba called Yanqui, No, which was made by Robert Drew, a producer for the broadcast division of Time Incorporated, which owns four stations under an arrangement by Drew's employer. Daly said that as of late Wednesday, no one in the ABC news department had "seen a foot of the Cuban film."

News and public information shows are the programs on which much of a network's prestige and repuation are built—and they are the programs TV's spokesmen brag about when selling the whole medium.

Integration Halt Asked, Racial Violence Fades

NEW ORLEANS (UPI)—Racial violence faded in the New Orleans school integration dispute today, but white pupils almost completely boycotted two integrated schools and the school board asked U.S. Dist. Judge Skelly Wright to suspend his integration order.

The segregationist Louisiana legislature, meeting in special session at Baton Rouge, adopted a resolution to ask president-elect Kennedy for his opinion of "judicial tyranny" imposed upon Louisiana by Wright's court.

Racial violence lasted more than 250 hours in New Orleans and police arrested 250 persons, both white and Negro. Violence faded shortly before dawn.

The uproar was precipitated by four six-year-old Negro girls entering two white schools: McDonogh No. 19 and William Frantz Elementary.

This was their fourth day in formerly all-white schools and for a time it looked as if McDonogh, which three of the Negro girls are attending, would be completely boycotted by its 475 white pupils.

But one white pupil finally went into a side entrance at McDonogh. She was the only one. Four white pupils went to William Frantz with one Negro girl. William Frantz normally has 576 white pupils.

Eisenhower Keeping 'In Close Touch'

The school board asked Wright to vacate his integration order because of the boycotts. Wright set a hearing for 11 a.m. (EST), Friday.

Presidential press secretary James C. Hagerty said in Augusta, Ga., that he knows of no plan of the president to send U.S. troops into New Orleans. But Hagerty said President Eisenhower is keeping in close touch with the situation.

INTEGRATION

State police showed up at William Frantz for the first time since the state legislature tried to use them to stop integration Monday.

New Orleans police superintendent Joseph Giarrusso said the 250 arrests were made between 8 p.m. (EST) Wednesday, and 4 a.m. today. Loitering cases totaled 194, charges of carrying concealed weapons were lodged against 29 persons, and 27 were booked on charges of malicious mischief.

Carloads of Negroes roamed the city streets shooting wildly at white pedestrians, and an explosive airplane rocket was hurled on the lawn of a white family from a speeding car.

About 15 persons were injured in the violence Wednesday night.

Police deactivated the airplane rocket before it could explode. Crosses were burned in at least two sections of the city, one by whites and one by Negroes.

GUN SHOTS REVERBERATE IN MONTREAL

MONTREAL (CP)—A gunman early today pumped at least four shots into a car carrying three night club waiters in the east-end. One was slightly hurt.

Their vehicle was stopped for a traffic light when another vehicle pulled up alongside and the gunman opened up.

The motive for the shooting was not yet known.

Trade Unions Urge Probe of Strikers

QUEBEC (CP) — The Confederation of National Trade Unions suggested today that a royal commission set up to look into the administration of the Union Nationale party should investigate two violence-ridden strikes.

In a brief to the present Liberal government, which ousted the Union Nationale in an election last June, the confederation said it is "particularly interested in actions of the Quebec Provincial Police during the strikes.

The walkouts were by mine workers at Asbestos, Que., in 1949 and 1950 and by textile workers at Louiseville, Que., in 1949 and 1950. The workers' unions in both strikes were affiliated with the confederation, then known as the Canadian and Catholic Confederation of Labor.

No starting date for the commission has been announced.

TRAFFIC FINES

Harold Carpenter, 130 Beechwood, $20 for changing lanes when unsafe.

CALIFORNIA GOES TO NIXON

WASHINGTON (AP) — More than a week after the election, Vice-President Richard Nixon has captured California's 32 electoral votes. Absentee ballots did it, and helped to shave President-elect John Kennedy's nation-wide popular vote lead to less than 200,000.

But even without Nixon's home state, Kennedy still is assured of 300 electoral votes, 31 more than the minimum needed for election. Nixon now has a total of 223 electoral votes.

The count of absentee ballots — still 26,000 short of complete—threw California into Nixon's column Wednesday. In the regular vote count, Kennedy had led by 34,368 in California. The absentee votes turned that into a lead of 13,160 votes for Nixon.

The remaining uncounted California ballots are mostly in the Republican strongholds of San Diego and Orange counties.

And Now Arbitration

THE WAGE DISPUTE BE-tween school boards and teachers in this area has progressed—as seemed inevitable from the start—to the arbitration stage.

Preliminary negotiations between the teachers' representatives and the trustees failed. So did conciliation proceedings between representatives of the two groups. Now the settlement machinery is an arbitration board composed of one representative of the teachers, one of the board, and an independent chairman chosen by the mutual consent of the two or appointed by a Supreme Court judge.

When the conciliation board brings down its findings, on or before December 31, they will be binding on both parties.

So far the board, through its spokesmen, has remained firm on its "hold the line" policy this year. The teachers have pressed their case for increases.

The record of previous awards in similar teacher-trustee disputes is interesting. Every valid arbitration of recent years—running back perhaps as far as 1946 when pay scales in the profession were low—has resulted in a gain of some sort for the teachers. This is the normal course of compromise.

It remains to be seen if that same attitude will be followed in the present case.

Should the pattern of recent years be maintained, one result would be inevitable. The burden of school taxation on the municipal property owner would be heavier. There appears to be no escape from that eventuality under existing legislation.

The public today recognizes more clearly the value of good teaching and good teachers. The rising pay scales of the recent past and the efforts to provide better training for those who will be in charge of classrooms is proof of that point.

Whether teachers are now receiving remuneration adequate for the work demanded of them is the point argued in local negotiations and conciliation hearings. The argument will continue before the arbitration board.

It is a vital issue. Of no less significance is the effect an award will have on the third party to the dispute—the property owner.

His position has been established and widely publicized in the attitude adopted toward education costs by the governments closest to him—the city and municipal councils. They have gone emphatically on record with pleas for a rearrangement of school financing which will ease the burden on the home-owner. Those pleas have failed to alter to any substantial degree the legal basis on which educational costs are met.

That there has been need for relief has been recognized by the Provincial Government through Mr. Bennett's home-owner's grant—an effective bit of vote bait handed out to the individual resident home-owner, but long since reduced in effectiveness, if not entirely submerged, by mounting school taxation.

Such grants by the Provincial Government—the return to the citizen of some of his own money—do not provide the answer to the pressing problem of school taxes on real estate. Because he realizes this fact, the home-owner will be more than ordinarily interested in the outcome of the pending arbitration on teachers' pay.

And regardless of the award, he will be a thoughtless householder indeed who fails to understand that school taxation is bearing inequitably on the sturdy basis of our society—the man who owns his own home, pays his taxes and tries to be the good citizen.

He is entitled to a better deal than he is receiving.

Whither the Moderates?

THE LEFT WING OF BRITain's Labor Party has challenged Mr. Hugh Gaitskell's leadership and been beaten two to one. It now moves, according to most recent report, toward the formation of a splinter party.

This may not represent the death wish some outside observers profess to see within the party, but it certainly does not appear to be a move which will give Labor any hope of coming to power in the near future.

The chief point at issue between the extreme left and Mr. Gaitskell's moderates is, at the moment, the difference in their attitudes to disarmament. The left wants Britain to disarm unilaterally and would withdraw from NATO. Mr. Gaitskell is against such a withdrawal and opposed to weakening Britain's defensive position in the prevailing uncertainty of these times.

When it met recently for its annual convention, the British Liberal Party approved resolutions which seem to represent the position taken by Mr. Gaitskell far more accurately than the resolutions passed by Labor at its convention last month.

As the extremists seek to isolate themselves from Labor's moderates, the Liberals will be watching closely for indications of a shift by Labor's majority not only to the Liberal line of thought, but also toward Liberal affiliation.

With the split accentuated in the ranks of the Socialists it is natural enough to ask if there can be two Labor Parties, which the left seems to want, or must one polarize to another political identification? The Liberals hope the latter process will take place.

An Arbitrary Rule

ONE OF THE MOST VALUable assets a citizen can have is the possession of a workable knowledge of first aid. When a life itself is at stake, no price can be put on the services of a trained person who can render the assistance necessary in emergency. This fact is recognized in provincial law, which provides that industrial plants must have properly qualified first aid attendants on the job at all times.

In most cases such attendants are employees whose training is paid for by the employer, and who may receive a pay bonus for their increased ability. But it is not always easy to find employees who wish to undertake the training and study to become proficient. And here is where the law sets up an impediment.

According to the regulations the minimum acceptable age for workers qualified in first aid is 21 years, which is interpreted as anyone having passed his 20th birthday. Disqualified by this are many able and trained workers of 18 to 20 years of age who would willingly take the prescribed course and so provide the required services at their place of employment.

Why must the regulations require a first aider to be 21 years? A youth may vote or join the armed services at a lesser age, and many a younger person has won distinction by outstanding first aid service in time of need. Where a trained population is urged for civil defence needs, there seems little reason for official insistence on the age of 21. Such an arbitrary figure hampers, rather than encourages, first aid training for industrial purposes.

Quick Reply on Camp Fees

MR. BENNETT DESERVES full marks for the prompt statement of his belief that no fees should be charged persons using British Columbia's public camp sites.

The weakest argument of all for imposing a charge is that the camping areas furnish competition to resort owners. If that be the case, then the resort owners should make their accommodation more competitively attractive.

The premier also talks sense when he suggests that the period for which one camper, or one camping group, should monopolize a site ought to be limited. There are instances on record in which city dwellers have moved to adjacent campsites and occupied space continuously for so large a part of the holiday season that other would-be campers have been excluded.

Residents of nearby towns are obviously entitled to their use of the sites for a reasonable time. When they pre-empt a location for the summer they are being unfair to others and are inviting restrictions.

'Oh, Him? He Comes With the House'

LOOSE ENDS — By BRUCE HUTCHISON

Meanwhile, Back at the Palace

SINTRA, Portugal—This inconsequential dispatch is written in a palace worthy of a king (yet much cheaper in its tariffs than a second-class Canadian hotel) and from its window I can observe three other palaces, one of them still larger and grander, one of them the most monstrous in all Europe. The Portuguese have a weakness for palaces which remind them, with a nostalgic backward look, of a lost, world-wide empire. But the little town of Sintra, sunk in the folds of the coastal mountains, is something quite special.

Hutchison

IN this very palace Wellington directed the Peninsular War and signed his first victorious peace treaty with the French after the long stalemate of the Torres Vedras. Byron fell in love with Sintra (and some of its ladies) calling it "a Glorious Paradise." His house, remarkably modest and small for such a man, stands just down the road.

The incredible structure of Gothic towers, Moorish golden fretwork, Renaissance domes and Victorian obesity on the hill yonder was built by a Portuguese king for his German mistress—an architect's nightmare but somehow beautiful in its ugliness.

To make sure he would not be forgotten the architect left a statue of himself, some 50 feet high, on an adjoining hill where no eye can miss it. And to complete this Alice-in-Wonderland design, a genuine Moorish palace, now half ruined, frowns from a rocky summit.

HOW we arrived in this place is too long a story to tell here but, looking back on our wanderings about the Iberian Peninsula by plane, train, bus and taxi, I think them comparable only to the explorations of Marco Polo. In fact, his circumstances may have been less dangerous than ours in a jet plane with a faulty engine and visibility zero.

Anyway, when we get home there will be a story to tell about politics and economics of Europe, as explained to me by various statesmen, the most interesting story this aged reporter has ever covered. And it is nothing like the story commonly believed in America.

Meanwhile, awaiting a transatlantic plane when all the air lines are crowded, we are reeling from one palace to another, staggering through a hundred ancient cathedrals of Spain and Portugal, glancing for a moment at art masterpieces beyond price and hurrying on to another spectacle until our memories are a blur of Moorish, Gothic, Renaissance, Rocco, Baroque and indigestion.

If all this sounds depressing put it down to sightseers' exhaustion and Tourist's Tic, the occupational disease of southern Europe, which is quickly cured in a palace masquerading as a hotel of luxury at absurd bargain prices.

Actually, Spain and Portugal are the traveler's dream—the best food I have ever eaten, the finest wines, the friendliest people and scenery almost but not quite as good as Canada's.

THE wonder, of course, is how these small, poor countries make a living at all, now that their empires are gone. The five-acre mountain farms of Portugal—more rock than earth and mostly worked by hand with a mattock—would make a Canadian farmer weep. The arid plains of Spain seem unable to support a herd of Canadian beef cattle. A Canadian fisherman would hardly bother to land the tiny fish that come out of these stormy seas.

But the people, though pitiably poor by our standards, seem much happier than North Americans. They are full of song, laughter, and elaborate courtesy. Their great cities, Madrid, Barcelona and Lisbon, make the best of America look like shack towns.

THUS from the coal mines of the English Midlands, from the re-built cities of Germany, from Hitler's secret bunker on the Belgian border, where he directed the invasion of France, and from the faded glories of Toledo we have finally reached this palace in Sintra, Byron's lush Eden, with an entirely new impression of a Europe now in an explosion of energy and wealth which, as I shall try to explain later on, must vitally affect Canada's entire prospects. But, if you please, one palace at a time.

The Man Is the One Without Antlers

Winnipeg Free Press

THE laconic press release issued by the Manitoba minister of mines and natural resources the other day deserves to be made a mandatory issue with every big game hunting licence sold. Thus, Mr. Witney, to hunters:

"A white-tailed deer has four legs, stands about four feet high, often has horns on its head, has a white tail that sticks up when he runs and is light brown in color. A hunter has two legs, stands between 5½ to six feet, has no horn and is all white or all red in color." The release ends with a curt admonition to be careful when shooting at the first so as not to shoot the second.

Perhaps irony will succeed where good counsel in the past has failed. Last year—a good year by previous years' standards—five hunters were killed and 24 others injured. This year two hunters died and 13 were injured before the big game season even began. On the extent to which hunters this deer season remember Mr. Witney's terse descriptions will depend the number of others who will die before the year is over.

One further reminder may be added: If you must carry a loaded gun with the safety clip off, point the muzzle at the ground, at the sky or at a deer; not at your partner.

MUCH TO BE DONE — By MURIEL GENTLEMAN

The Rights of the Child

Miss Gentleman represented a Lethbridge pre-school at the Canadian Conference on Children at Ste. Adele, Quebec, in October. She was appointed Alberta representative on the Canadian national committee for the World Organization for Early Childhood. This is the first of four articles.

★ ★ ★

In the past year over half a billion dollars was spent by Canada on projects specifically concerned with Canada's children. Where did the money go?

Family allowances, the Queen Elizabeth grant for pediatric research and university grants consumed the greatest portion. The balance of these funds was spent in offering a wide range of services to the nation's children through local and provincial, public and private programs.

The amount was splintered into many fragments by education, health and welfare projects, recreation programs, foster home care demands, special counselling and the providing of facilities for children suffering from some specific handicap. Could more money and attention possibly be required?

Most emphatically yes, according to the Canadian Conference on Children which assembled for the first time in Ste. Adele, Quebec, for five days in early October.

Forty-one per cent of the total Canadian population today is under 20 years of age. It was not an idealistic generalization that Hon. Emelien La France made in his welcoming address on behalf of the Quebec government when he declared, "The fate of our nation lies in the fate of our children."

Until all Canadian children automatically enjoy "The Rights of the Child" as set forth by the 1959 Social Committee of the United Nations General Assembly, we cannot be satisfied.

Equality Needed

Finances for more research into situations concerning children must be made available. Gaps between services offered in any one Canadian community still belie democratic assertions of equal privilege. Overlapping amongst agencies wastes our limited resources. There is a frequent lack of communication between teachers, doctors, social workers, librarians, dentists, speech therapists, and all the other adults working with the same Canadian child.

When four hundred delegates from ten provinces were invited to Ste. Adele it was to begin to rectify this predicament by providing a means for crossing the yawning chasms between one specialization and another.

"We owe each other in Canada the opportunity to dodge a few pitfalls others have had to undergo," suggested one of the project directors, Grace Dalmage of the University of British Columbia Education faculty, as she led an examination into a comparison of regulations.

In 1960 we are finally mature enough to share our achievements also. Canadians should not have to leave their own country to find advice or common appreciation of a particular problem.

Seventeen separate topics were examined at the history-making conference. Background reports had been carefully prepared during three years of intensive research on existing programs and trends. Specialists chosen "because of outstanding ability to contribute positively to the topics under consideration" offered their experience and training.

What special educational and medical facilities are available in Canada? How are we coping with juvenile delinquency? Should working mothers be condemned or assisted? How effective is our youth counselling? Are public health services being used? What premarital education is offered? How can we extend our foster home care program? What are the cultural influences on Canada's children? These were typical Canadian problems considered.

Social workers, educators, pediatricians, psychologists, psychiatrists, dentists, speech therapists, community planners, radio and TV program organizers and writers, librarians, professors from the sciences of human genetics and neurology, sociology and anthropology, government officials from departments of health and welfare, education, citizenship and immigration, brought their time and talents to contribute to the success of the conference.

Community Services

Community services such as the juvenile and family courts, child guidance clinics, teachers' associations and hospital administrations were represented. Organizations for specific handicaps — cerebral palsy, retarded children, the Canadian National Institute for the Blind and the Canadian Hearing Society also participated.

Leaders were brought from many of the co-operating agencies who offer children's programs within a larger framework, such as the YMCA, the Canadian Council of Churches, Canadian Jewish Congress, Association for Adult Education, Salvation Army, Federated Women's Institutes, and Department of Agriculture Extension Services (featuring 4H Clubs). The Canadian Conference on Education, Canadian Medical Association and Canadian Nurses Association, were among group contributors. Officials of the Home and School Association national executive provided the viewpoint of parents.

A steering committee under Dr. Reva Gerstein, Toronto psychologist, and an advisory committee under Dr. J. F. McCreary, University of British Columbia Dean of Medicine, in four years of preliminary planning had taken great care that no group handling or influencing Canada's children be overlooked.

Separation of administration and physical distance have meant widely differing practices have developed in various corners of the country. Pooling the resources existing in the entire nation is a beginning to consciously "cultivating Canada's most precious natural resource."

The Canadan Conference on Children proved the need. It looks forward to a second meeting within the decade.

Canadian children are not overprivileged but we cannot afford that any single child be deprived.

As Our Readers See It

Taxes Going Up

As a comparatively little-known alderman-candidate, I am afraid that in this quiet year in city affairs there will be a poor turnout of the voters on Dec. 8. This would make me think that our 13,000 home-owning taxpayers don't know that our taxes are faced with a sharp climb in the next few years. Speaking as one of their number, it has been very helpful to me to discover why this is so.

Though we are in the majority, it is well known that home-owners in Victoria are the dog whose tail is wagged by others.

First, there are the tens of thousands of people who pour into the city every day from the suburbs, but who have no intention of meeting the cost of today's urban upkeep. And then there is the provincial government which pays no taxes at all to Victoria, but grows and grows each year like a cuckoo which will some day squeeze us out of our nest entirely.

Caught between these two unruly forces, is it any wonder that we are finding it very expensive to run this city of just over 50,000? What is worse, from our point of view, is the large list of public works which have simply been shelved for fear of pushing our taxes even higher.

CHARLES NELLES.

On With the Decimal

Reference the short article in the Times of third inst. It indicated that the writer is not aware that there are at least two societies in the U.S.A. working to establish 12 as a base instead of 10. Why? Because 12 is the easier to work with. It can be divided exactly by two, three, four and six whereas only two and five go into 10 exactly.

Just notice the many cartons and other packages of cans, bottles, boxes and the like in the stores. They contain 12 or 24 cans for instance because 12 uniform articles such as the above form better shaped packages than 10 or any other number would.

Twelve after all is an old and respected number. We have 12 signs of the zodiac dating back we have no idea how far, 12 months of the year, 12 hours of the day and 12 hours of the night, 12 inches to a foot to mention only a few examples that we should notice every day.

So on with the base 12 system say I.

W. M. SPARKE.

Chest and Criticism

Your editorial "What is the Alternative?" concerning the Community Chest should be taken seriously to heart by the citizens of Victoria. Putting aside entirely the matter of prestige, it is a humiliating reflection on the people of Victoria because a campaign that falls so far short of its objective, even allowing for the fact that the objective may have been too high a one, indicates a lack of responsibility towards the welfare of the community as a whole.

On the other hand, perhaps the Community Chest officials should take a good look at some of the reasons that may be behind this apathy on the part of the public. For instance: it certainly is the worst form of public relations to severely criticise volunteer canvassers and intimate that they are a lazy bunch who are not interested in the work they have undertaken. When you have so many canvassers, this may be true of a few, but the statement made was a general one. Similarly, criticism in previous years is undoubtedly having its effect this year and I would venture to say that this year's criticism may have a still more damaging effect on next year's campaign.

Again, the high pressure methods of the Community Chest which are by no means confined to the Victoria area, are most distasteful.

And finally, I sincerely believe that a great number of people strongly object to a few of the agencies included in the twenty two. For instance, the SPCA, the YM and YWCA's and the Boy Scouts.

During my residential canvass, out of 26 houses called on, five refused to give because they did not like the Community Chest.

In conclusion, I would like to give some advice to the Community Chest—that they should do a little soul searching and cultivate better public relations—pointing out the facts and needs without criticism. Criticism of this nature is destructive and the criticism voiced by the officials of the Community Chest over the past few years is having its effect today.

A CITIZEN

Twaddle?

Audrey St. D. Johnson is quite right when she states that intense national feeling affects men in different ways. As she says it can cause them to create poetry like Wordsworth et al or tinpot twaddle like Newbolt.

What has apparently escaped her is that the tinpot twaddle is what pierces to the heart and mind of ordinary man in times of stress and in his moments of relaxation. Witness "Tipperary."

Wordsworth, Yeats etc. appeal to the erudite, but it is the rousing ballads of Newbolt, Aytoun, etc. that trigger national feeling into action.

Judging by her Olympian standards our National anthem is tinpot twaddle, but Kipling who wrote a lot of tinpot twaddle says:

"Take 'old of the wings o' the morning
To the booming old rag overhead."

Just as true today as the day he wrote it. May it be ever thus.

ON THE TIMES

By ART STOTT

The Unforgiving 30 Minutes

IN a sort of Pavlov reaction, I castigate myself when I have been visiting for an evening and, leaving my host's home, realize that once again I have monopolized the conversation.

Stott

There was a time when the boss of our house used to remonstrate gently with me over this habit. In the earlier days of wedded bliss she'd ask softly: "When we go out, don't you think it would be considerate to let somebody else say something?"

When our partnership and affection were more firmly established she phrased the question more bluntly: "Why don't you shut up?"

Now she merely has to hold her glance on me a fraction of a second longer than usual, and I get the message.

Of course I'm desolated by my offence, make my resolutions that it will never happen again. Then, like an addict, I return to the narcotic of my own voice in company and once more realize that no one in hearing has had a chance to get a word in edgewise against the babbling stream of my remarks.

Okay, so I'm a bore. There is little defence in my explanation that many of my friends are as guilty as I of the fault. When we get together, each of us talks. Nobody listens.

But you might say that none of us are stuck for a word, even if the tread on our ideas is wearing down from too much use.

At least I thought I was never stuck for a word, but I've had an unusual experience.

My absent daughter's father-in-law suggested the folks at our house might like to tape a Christmas message to the child away from home. He loaned me the recorder and gave me a tape.

So we sat around the table the other evening to make cheerful conversation to the young lady who won't be with us on the holiday. There were four of us, including one who, like his father before him, is the stream-bed for a constant flow of words that may or may not say something.

We were all working with a communications medium strange to us. Inconceivable as it seems, we ran out of talk.

There actually are limits to the paraphrases you can make of "We'll miss you, but have a good time. Have a really merry Christmas and happy New Year."

For years the intellectuals have been telling us that good conversation is a dying, if not dead, art. Until the experience with the tape recorder I hadn't realized that small talk was going the same way.

Earlier this year Pat and I visited the young lady away from home. It seemed that we were talking almost all the time we were together. But there was a return of conversation from one or the other of us when we talked.

Speaking into a tape-recorder, you're in a position somewhat similar to a person trying to play one-man tennis, with no backboard to feed you rebounds. Of course you can deliver an address, just as, trying to play one-man tennis, you can get yourself a bucket of balls and keep serving.

Only at Christmas, unless you happen to be a Charles Dickens fancier, you don't get into the spirit of a monologue.

The tape we used ran about 15 minutes each way—30 minutes altogether. Halfway through the first run we began to look at each other with the unspoken query: "What will we say next?"

Somebody hit on the happy idea of having the dog bark into the microphone, which was fair enough. The dog is part of the family and in our daffier moments we carry on conversations with her.

The older folks, even less familiar with tape recorders than we were, marvelled at the machine, said their pieces and then left a little dissatisfied, thinking they should have rehearsed their bits.

The bright and highly vocal young man suggested, in a move of desperation, that maybe we ought to close off by reading a Christmas poem. We imposed a polite but firm veto.

We have played the production back again and have mailed it off. We hope it gives the receiver as many laughs as it gave us. Now we're feeling a little chastened. Obviously there are times when we are stuck for a word. And we hope the offspring, listening far away, won't be distressed by the impression that she springs from stock with a low IQ.

DROP THRONE DEBATE

Pearson Urges New Procedure

OTTAWA (CP)—Liberal Leader Pearson said Wednesday night he plans to move early in the new parliamentary session that the government present its unemployment emergency legislation immediately and postpone the throne speech debate which usually starts a new session.

Speaking on television in the CBC's free-time political series The Nation's Business, Mr. Pearson scored the government's lack of leadership and said proposals on Dominion-provincial tax relations amount to a raw deal for the provinces.

"It's a bad record," he said. "If things continue to go wrong, if instead of good leadership and wise considered action you get fumbling inefficiency, you will soon have a chance in this free democracy to show your own attitude towards this kind of government and to correct the situation."

Mr. Pearson said that when the Liberal party points out in the Commons the lack of long-range planning and wise policies, it is criticized by the Conservatives for selling Canada short.

When In Doubt Form a Committee

He said the government's two conferences last month on unemployment—first with labor and industry leaders, and later with provincial premiers—resulted in proposals to set up a productivity council and a committee of Dominion-provincial experts.

"It seems to me that the motto of this government is, when in doubt or when in difficulty refer it to a committee."

Mr. Pearson said he will propose ending the throne speech debate after Prime Minister Diefenbaker, himself, and CCF Leader Argue have spoken Monday, and let the government introduce its legislation to deal with unemployment.

"Surely, any delay in dealing with this problem as we are approaching winter is inexcusable."

The government's proposal to leave the field open for the provinces to levy and collect their own income, corporation and inheritance taxes means a return to double taxation, he added.

"It means a repudation—a repudation which the prime minister has denied more than once he would ever make—of the principle of equalization . . .

"The prime minister may repudiate this principle but we Liberals don't. We condemn him and the government and reject their repudation. We insist that to make possible equality of basic provincial services between all the provinces, all should receive an approximately equal revenue per capita from these three shared tax deals."

Africa Won't Let Swedish Author In LONDON (CP)—A Swedish author and journalist has been banned from returning to the Federation of Rhodesia and Nyasaland.

Per Westberg, of the Stockholm Dagens Nyhester, says he had planned to return to Africa next year to do another series of articles for his newspaper and to gather material for another book.

Westberg, author of five best-selling books, was in London to make arrangements to return to Africa when he learned that he is a "prohibited immigrant".

A letter from the federation government said simply that the government is not prepared to allow him to enter its territory. No reason was given.

"I am writing only in Swedish," Westberg said. "Surely the Rhodesian authorities cannot say that I am agitating Africans."

YOUR HEALTH

By DR. WALTER C. ALVAREZ

New Move in Psychiatry

Emeritus Consultant in Medicine, Mayor Clinic and Emeritus Professor of Medicine, Mayo Foundation

I read that at the Massachusetts Mental Health Centre, in Day Hospital, Dr. Raquel Cohen is studying the advantages of taking care of mentally disturbed people, each day only from 9 in the morning to 4 in the afternoon. Then they can go home for the night. Often the patient has to keep coming to the centre for nine months or a year. At present the Day Hospital is treating about 55 men and women; more than half of whom are schizophrenics. The rest are being treated for depressions or severe neuroses. Because the patients are free to come and go, it is not possible to accept those who have little control over their impulses.

Their average age is 35 years. Many of them have young children who have to be taken care of. Persons who are inclined to withdraw from life and to say nothing to anybody are helped by being made to attend the "coffee break," and there to join in conversation or in some simple activity, such as knitting. As many as possible of the people are given work. At first, they work for only an hour at a time, but gradually this period of time is lengthened. At noon the patients eat in the hospital cafeteria or coffee shop. It is most hopeful to see these attempts being made to modify and improve the care of the mentally disturbed.

I read that there are some 40,000 persons in the United States who, because of cancer, have had to have their larynx (voice box) removed. Many of them have been trained to talk by using air which is swallowed and brought up through the gullet and modified into speech in the back of the throat. For years experts on electronics have been trying to make an amplifier which will help a whispering person to speak loudly enough so that he can be heard. Now, the Bell Telephone Laboratories report the development of a new self-contained electronic artificial larynx which, in several ways, is better than the one they made before. It is a device which uses a vibrating metal reed to generate sound. The user presses the device against his throat and operates a switch which gives him control over the pitch of the sounds. The device can be actuated by small batteries or, when a man is in his office, it can be connected to the 110-volt electric outlet.

One of the greatest advances in medicine was made recently when a kidney was transplanted from one young man to another (not alike-twins) and made to function normally. It was 17 months ago that this work was done by Drs. John P. Herrill, Joseph Murray, J. Hartwell Harrison, Eli A. Friedman, James P. Dealy, Jr., and Gustave J. Damman. Before this, there have been a number of cases in which a kidney was transplanted from one alike-twin to his brother, but this is a very special case.

Alike-twins grew from one ovum and hence are chemically identical. In the past, when surgeons have transplanted an organ like a kidney from one animal to another, the organ has quickly disintegradted and has soon failed to function. The reason is that animal bodies will not tolerate the presence of any tissues that are chemically different. Now it has been found that this tendency of the body to throw out a transplanted kidney can be overcome by treating the body with X-rays. Two similar cases have been reported from Paris in which a transplanted kidney was still functioning for some five months. In those cases, also, the body had been irradiated.

U.S. Protest 'Insolent'

HAVANA (AP) — Cuba today rejected as "unrespectful and insolent" the United States protest on the firing squad executions of three Americans seized with a band of anti-Castro rebels a onth ago.

Acting Foreign Minister Carlos Olivares warned that execution "is the risk all Americans face if they are convicted of similar crimes here."

ATOMIC DUMPING PROBE ASKED BY NOVA SCOTIA

HALIFAX (CP)—The Nova Scotia government has asked for an investigation into reported dumping of waste atomic materials off the Nova Scotia coast, Health Minister Richard A. Donahoe said Wednesday night.

Mr. Donahoe said he had asked the federal health department to investigate the report "and advise us what to do." He said the request was prompted by a letter from Dr. Gordin Kaplan, chairman of the Halifax committee for the control of radiation hazard.

In his letter, Dr. Kaplan said he had read a magazine article which said the United States Atomic Eenrgy Commission was dumping the material 200 miles south of Yarmouth, N.S. He asked for an immediate investigation.

Interest Booms In Oil Drilling

By GORDON BELL
Times Business Editor

Judging from the drilling programs coming in for government approval, the picture looks good in the B.C. oil industry for this winter, according to Mines Minister W. K. Kiernan.

Bell

Chief exploration drilling interest now seems to be centred on Fort Nelson, particularly the Slave Point Middle Devonian formation at the Clark Lake, Kotcho Lake and Petitot River fields which form a 120-mile long semicircle. Gas, structure and salt water findings at the three fields are similar and indicate about 300 feet of possible pay zone. Pacific Pete and Western Natural Gas are the major companies operating in the area along with several smaller companies.

Mr. Kiernan was also optimistic about the upcoming Crown reserve sale next Thursday. He expected there will be considerable interest in the 29 parcels comprising more than 621,000 acres being offered.

Most of the leases are in the Peace River block. There is one off-shore Queen Charlotte lease and there are two in the Cariboo area.

Rumor persists that Chrysler of Canada is dropping its line of imported Simca small cars even though Chrysler has a heavy investment in the Simca company in France.

Lending credence to the rumor is the fact that Victoria dealers are now offering Simcas at a price cut of $400.

It is understood that Chrysler offered its entire stock of Simcas to dealers at a price of around $1,200 compared to previous dealer price of about $1,600. The car was selling in Victoria and Vancouver, prior to the recent price cut, at $2,100.

Reason for the move, apparently, is that sales of the Valiant, Chrysler's own "compact" car have been so good the company wishes to concentrate on just one alternative to its standard big cars.

Gas is going ahead in a big way in Winnipeg. Greater Winnipeg Gas reports net income of $292,000 for first nine months this year against a deficit of $221,000 in the same period of 1959. Number of customers has risen from 19,000 at Sept. 30 last year to 31,000 at the end of September. Estimated annual gas sale in Greater Winnipeg for the year is 8.3 million cu. ft.—up 3.2 million from last year.

NEW FORD CHIEF

'Quit Running To Ottawa For Help'

WINNIPEG (CP)—The new president of the Ford Motor Co. of Canada Ltd., says Canadian business—particularly the auto industry—has a tendency to run crying to the government whenever conditions deteriorate.

Karl E. Scott of Toronto, named Wednesday as president of the firm, told a dealers' meeting that businessmen should resort to their own initiative to solve problems.

"At the recent royal commission transportation hearings, one of our competitors made an impassioned plea for the government to bail out the auto industry.

"This competitor said our business is suffering from terrible, distressed conditions. But we at Ford don't subscribe to this theory at all."

His company feels that the auto industry can work out its own salvation without government aid, said Mr. Scott. The only thing hampering a full recovery of market potential is a lack of vision on the part of some companies.

The biggest problem is foreign competition but Ford is not seeking added government protection except for the removal of discriminatory excise taxes.

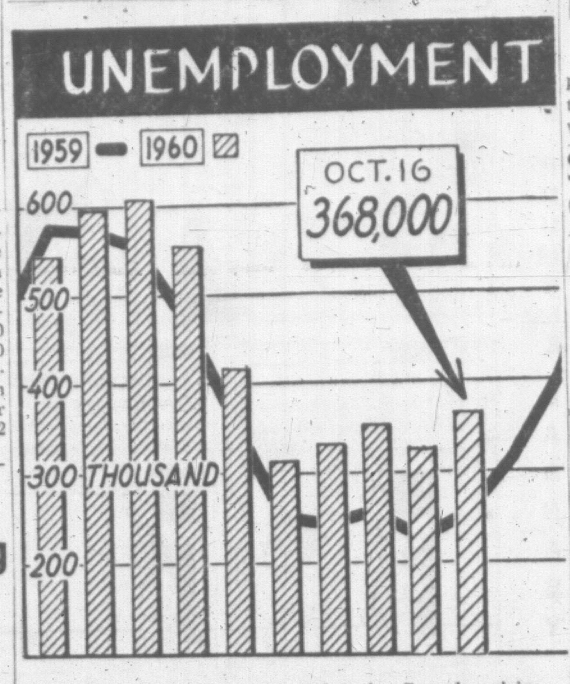
SURPRISE PROMOTION

Mr. Scott told reporters that his promotion to the presidency "came pretty much out of the blue. Come to think of it, they didn't even ask me if I wanted the job."

Referring to his predecessor, Rhys M. Sale, he said: "Mr. Sale and I have been working closely together and we agree on almost everything. Our sole objective is to sell as many cars and trucks as Canadians want to buy."

Mr. Scott said there always will be a substantial market for Canadian cars despite recent gains by foreign compact models. It is the firm's experience that seven out of 10 Canadians prefer the bigger type of car.

"Price is an important factor. We feel our prices are competitive now, but we hope to reduce them even further so we will ensure ourselves of leadership in the field."



SHARP RISE—Unemployment in Canada, rising faster than usual, increased by 41,000 to 368,000 at Oct. 16, a post-war record for the month. The total was 39,000 higher than the previous post-war high in October, 1958, and 117,000 more than the jobless figure last October. Graph, showing trend in unemployment through 1959 and to date this year, is based on the new measure of unemployment adopted by the bureau of statistics, including those on temporary layoff as well as persons without jobs and seeking work. Retailers Favor Direct Sales Tax

TORONTO (CP) — Direct provincial sales taxes, rather than indirect, were supported Wednesday by retail representatives speaking at the conference of the Canadian Tax Foundation.

They favored, if a sales tax is necessary, the system now provided by law and followed in the seven provinces which levy sales taxes—all but Ontario, Manitoba and Alberta.

They disapproved of an indirect tax, such as would be made possible by a constitutional amendment suggested by Premier Frost of Ontario.

Views given by the retailers, and also by some other speakers, include: An indirect tax is intended as a hidden tax which is presumably included in the selling price to the customer, but without the customer being ordinarily aware of the amount of the tax in each transaction.

Such a tax would complicate pricing systems. If, for example, the price of a tie is customarily $2.00, the retailer if he is to recover, say, a three per cent tax—would have to charge $2.06. He is apprehensive that for competitive and other reasons he may have to absorb some of the tax.

A KNOWN QUANTITY

If, however, the tax is direct, the retailer quotes his usual price and, when the customer pays, adds the tax. The customer knows exactly what tax he is paying and that the retailer is simply acting as a tax collector.

Under present direct tax systems the retailer gets a compensation, varying from two to four per cent of the amount collected, for the work and cost which the collection imposes on him. He fears that under an indirect system he may not be compensated.

In an examination of existing sales taxes in the various provinces, speakers favored simplification and fewer exemptions from the tax.

Small Gas Pipeline Certificates Given To 2 Companies

Two companies have been granted leave to construct natural gas gathering systems in the north Peace River country of B.C.

The provincial transport department has issued certificates to Pacific Petroleum Ltd and for work in the East Laprise Field, and to Texaco Exploration Co. for work in Buick Creek and Nig Creek areas north of Fort St. John.

The companies will build lines of four and 12 miles respectively to eventually connect with a new 100-mile pipeline from Fort Nelson to Fort St. John to be built by Gas Trunk Line of B.C.

Both firms are already drilling gas wells in the area.

IT HAPPENED LAST NIGHT

By EARL WILSON

TRIPLE-DECK STORAGE of outboard craft of up to 22 feet in length is possible with fork-lift truck and steel racks. Truck puts boat on elevator, which in turn lowers it to water. Whole process, of launching or landing, takes two minutes.

PLEASURE AFLOAT

Rack'm . . . Stack'm Boating a Cinch!

A combination of fork-lift truck and ingenuity has solved a number of problems for boat owners at Sarasota, Fla.

It has made possible layer-cake storage, which eliminates the need for extensive finger slips and subsequent sprawl along already-vanishing shoreline. With a waterfront lot and a bit of access, the would-be operator can be in business.

Though large cruisers need dock or mooring space and are too heavy to be hauled every weekend, the small outboard can operate easily from one of these land-based marinas with only a small shore front necessary for launching.

Round-the-Clock Service

In Sarasota, the boat owner drives into the Outboarder Marina without worrying about parking his trailer as well. Then a fork-lift operator picks his boat off the storage rack and moves it to a hydraulic elevator which lowers it into the water. Within minutes after driving in by car, a skipper can be in his boat.

When completed, this particular Florida facility will have seven roofed-over storage sheds with three level shelves for 300 outboards from 12 to 22 feet long. Rental is $10 per month, plus $1 additional for each foot more than 14 and includes 24-hour-a-day launching service.

The system has proved so simple that often a family will go down in the evening for an hour or so on the water.

The retired boatman also finds the service has advantages. There is no need to strain an aging heart while launching a boat or hauling it back up aboard a trailer.

For the boatman looking for variety after trying the local waterways, this marina also rents trailers so that the family can drive off to explore waters in other parts.

We may never have skyscraper boatyards, but stack storage for small craft appears to be one more good way to make the most of waterfronts.

NEW YORK — Look out, Washington, here comes Hollywood!

Janet Leigh, Milton Berle's wife Ruth and other glamorites who are close friends of the Peter Lawfords claim they are already ordering their gowns for the Jack Kennedy Inaugural Ball — which should be a swingin' affair.

When a Kennedy becomes President, that's as important as a Kelly becoming a queen, so the Washington do should be bigger than any that Grace ever flung in Monaco.

HE GIVES AWAY GRAND PRIZES

Is there something you want to know? Do you want to win a set of valuable books or other instructive prizes? Then ask Andy.

Andy will answer questions submitted by child readers and those who submit the questions he selects to answer will receive worthwhile prizes.

The youngster who asks the first question answered each day receives a 20-volume set of the World Book Encyclopedia, and of the second question a Hammond Atlas or Globe.

Address your questions to "Ask Andy," Victoria Daily Times.

Andy sends a complete, 20-volume set of the World Book Encyclopedia to Lester Leslie, aged 12, of Des Moines, Iowa, for his question:

What Is in the Atomic Nucleus?

The nucleus is the hard and heavy core at the centre of the atom. Without the nucleus, the atom would be a mere jumble of particles. Yet this central powerhouse takes up only a small part of the atom. If the atom were as big as a football stadium, the nucleus would be no bigger than a golf ball. In the space around it there would be up to 100 orbiting electron particles—on this scale no bigger than flies.

Though most of the atom is empty space, the central nucleus is very dense indeed. If we could strip away the space and make a penny from the closely-packed nuclei, our coin would weigh many millions of tons. Fortunately the nucleus of an atom is very small. It takes about 100 million carbon atoms to measure one inch. The diameter of each one of those atoms is 10,000 times greater than the diameter of its nucleus.

Small as it is, the atomic nucleus is made from even smaller particles. Every nucleus has a very definite number of protons. These atomic particles each have a single charge of positive electricity. Almost all nuclei also have a number of neutrons. These particles are the same weight and size as the protons but they are electrically neutral.

The character of an atom depends entirely upon the number of protons in its nucleus. Every atom of hydrogen, the smallest of atoms, has one and only one proton. Every atom of oxygen has eight protons. Gold has 79 protons. Should an atom lose or gain a proton in its nucleus, it becomes an atom of something else. Each element gets its atomic number from the number of protons in the nucleus. The atomic number of hydrogen is one. Oxygen has atomic number eight and gold has atomic number 79.

Neutrons 'Police' Particles

Also present among the highly charged protons are a number of neutron particles. It has been suggested that these neutral particles act as policemen among the particles of positive electricity. The hydrogen atom, with but one proton, has no neutron. Helium, with two protons, has two neutrons. Lithium, with three protons, may have three or four neutrons. The mass number of an atom is the number of protons and neutrons in the nucleus. The mass number of hydrogen is one, of helium four. The mass number of a rare type of lithium is six, the more common type is mass number seven.

The weight of an atom includes the nucleus, plus the orbiting electrons. In a healthy atom, the number of negatively charged electrons equals positive protons. However, one proton or one neutron weighs as much as 1,800 electrons. About 99.9 per cent of the atom's weight is in the nucleus.

Andy sends a Hammond's Library World Atlas to Douglas Greene, age 14, of Biltmore, N.C., for his question:

Where does a hurricane begin?

The experts are not yet sure what starts a hurricane, but they have a good idea where it happens. The raging storm may hatch in any one of eight regions, all of them over warm, sultry oceans. There are two such hatching grounds in the Indian Ocean. Another area is off the northwest coast of Australia and another in the Pacific Ocean south of the equator.

Diefenbaker to Receive McPhillips' Salty Letter

A. DeB. McPHILLIPS
. . . his letter will travel

Victoria Labor Council Wednesday sent copies of a letter from Victoria MP A. DeB. McPhillips to Prime Minister John Diefenbaker in a protest against his unparliamentary language.

Mr. McPhillips' letter referred to the provincial government as "that scabby crowd across the bay," bitterly decried the press and criticized union leaders.

VLC delegates' general anger at the tone of the letter turned into derisive laughter when Mr. McPhillips was quoted as saying:

"The fellows who are out of work are always close to my heart and I shall continue to do all I can to alleviate the present position in regard to unemployment."

Other excerpts from the McPhillips' letter:

"What I cannot understand is that you fellows are willing to let that scabby bunch across the bay allow the Jubilee Hospital building to stand uncommenced — particularly when the public contributed a large sum and the government of Canada cheque stands ready."

Local Press 'Conjured Up Garbage'

"When you refer to my 'statements in the press' please be advised my statements bore no resemblance to the garbage conjured up by unprincipled journalism with which we are plagued in this area."

Mr. McPhillips also attacked VLC secretary-treasurer A. W. Toone who he said "Came out of his funk hole . . . when he believed I had left for Ottawa . . . and levelled a blast at me through the columns of the local press. To his chagrin he found I was merely absent in Vancouver."

Mr. Toone, replying by letter, said:

"Your expressions are most unbecoming to a member of parliament, particularly in reference to the provincial government, let alone to myself."

VLC members voted to send copies of Mr. McPhillips' letter to Mr. Diefenbaker, Premier W. A. C. Bennett, CCF leader Robert Strachan and Liberal leader Ray Perrault.

Sir John William Dawson, who died in 1899, was a native of Pictou who became principal of McGill University and first president of the Royal Society of Canada.

New Season Opens

CAMPBELL RIVER—Opening of the antlerless deer season this weekend is expected to attract near-record numbers of hunters to this area.

The season, recommended by game biologists because the present deer population is too large, runs until Dec. 6 and overlaps the season on antlered deer.

Extensive game checks will be made in the district during the doe and yearling season to gauge its effect on the deer population.

TOUGH OLD WINNIE SPENDS GOOD NIGHT

LONDON (AP)—Sir Winston Churchill's doctor said today he was encouraged by the way the tough old statesman is bearing the discomfort of a broken bone in his back.

"He had a very good night and is resting in bed," said a medical bulletin issued by orthopaedic surgeon Professor Herbert J. Seddon.

To reporters standing in the rain outside Churchill's London home, the physician added:

"It's an encouraging bulletin."

The surgeon spent 90 minutes this morning with Sir Winston, who will be 86 Nov. 30.

Churchill has always been a "difficult patient." In plain words he's impatient at being bed-ridden, grumpy and rough on his doctors.

"Like always," said a member of his family, "he's being pretty difficult, which happily means he's being his old self."

The relative held up his hand.

"And you better not quote me by name," he said in an interview, "or he'll give me the blazes. He's a regular old tartar when anything interferes with his regular way of life."

The relative said he understood that Sir Winston had cracked a vertebra when he tripped over a rug in his bedroom Tuesday.

Laos Army Commander Turns Coat

VIENTIANE, Laos (AP)—Gen. Ouane Rathikone, commander of the Royal Laotian army and a key man in the country's many-sided civil war, was reported today to have defected to the right-wing rebel regime of Gen. Phoumi Nosavan.

The defection was first reported by palace sources. Later, the radio at Savannahket, headquarters of Gen. Phoumi, said Ouane arrived there Wednesday to "collaborate with the revolutionary committee."

Neutralist Premier Prince Souvanna Phouma and his government would not confirm the report.

If he has deserted, it would represent the worst blow Souvanna Phouma has suffered since Gen. Phoumi broke from his government more than two months ago.

Coming on the heels of Friday's defection of the military garrison at the royal capital of Luangprabang, it could provide the final push to Souvanna's hard-pressed government.

The defection of the Luangprabang garrison upset the precarious balance of forces in Laos' three-cornered civil war between the neutralist government, Gen. Phoumi's rightists and the Communist-led Pahet Lao. Western officials have felt that Ouane was the kingpin who could swing the tide one way or the other.

CENSORS INCENSED

Nazi Hero's Book 'Bad for Youth'

BONN (AP) — The West German government's censorship board has classified as "dangerous to youth" a book by the Nazis' most highly decorated soldier.

The book calls the Second World War a holy war. It glorifies the Nazi regime, and dismisses atrocities as mistakes occurring in the heat of battle.

The author, Hans Ulrich Rudel, former colonel and pilot of a fighter-bomber, was credited with destroying a battleship and 519 tanks in 2,800 combat missions.

The censorship board calls his book, Of War and Peace, a "hate and propaganda book against the present democratic order."

The board, headed by a former prosecutor, Robert Schilling, was established six years ago. It includes representatives of the arts, book publishers and distributors, youth organizations, the churches and the state governments.

"We cannot ban a publication but we can prohibit its sale to persons under 18 years of age and its public display," says Schilling.

ACT ON COMPLAINT

"Also, we cannot act on our own initiative but only upon a complaint from a state government or a prosecutor."

Schilling said the board's first task was banning the sale of sadistic "comic books" imported from the United States, Sweden and Italy.

"We were very successful in getting rid of this trash," he said, "and the distributors co-operated fully and without protest."

Hundreds of war adventure booklets have been flooding the market lately.

"These are being put out as true stories, but in most cases you can see after reading only a few pages that the author had absolutely no idea about military matters," Schilling said.

A number of these booklets already have been put on the board's blacklist. Some call Hitler's SS the "avant garde of the concept of a united Europe."

The booklets usually portray the Germans as "super heroes" who frequently gulp a glass of schnapps before squeezing the machine-gun trigger to mow down a few hundred Russian, American or British soldiers.

Constable Stabbed

BANTYRE, Nyasaland (AP) —An African police constable was stabbed in the neck and two white police officers suffered minor injuries from stones when they broke up an illegal procession of Africans at Bwumbe, 15 miles from here, Tuesday. More than 350 men, women and children took part in the procession, many wearing the red robes of Dr. Hastings Banda's Malawi Congress party.

EMBRACE ALL GROUPS NEW PARTY ADVISED

QUEBEC (CP)—Roger Provost, president of the Quebec Federation of Labor (CLC), said today Canada's New Party must not be allowed to become merely a political arm of the trade-union movement.

In his address to the annual convention of the federation, opening here today, Mr. Provost said there should be a place in the party for "farmers, the co-operative movements, workers, indeed for all free-minded citizens."

Short Hospital Stay For Boy Hit by Car

Six-year-old Paul Erickson, 667 Head, was kept under observation at St. Joseph's Hospital for a day then discharged after he was in collision with a car at Esquimalt and Head Streets Tuesday afternoon.

Police took him to hospital with head abrasions and suspected concussion after the accident, which happened when the boy stepped from a curb into the side of a car driven by Terrence Tobacco, 956 Southgate.

Motorist Mrs. Marian Wells, 35, of 2744 Spencer, is is satisfactory condition at Jubilee Hospital with a broken leg and suspected broken pelvis following a crash at Trans-Canada and Thetis Lake roads shortly before 3 p.m. Tuesday.

Her car was in collision with one driven by Albert Henry Cooper, 1117 McClure, apparently after Cooper's car went out of control.

Judge Slams Jury Verdict

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Superior Judge William E. Fox Wednesday told the seven women on a jury that had just voted life imprisonment for a sex-killer:

"I can't understand how you can allow this man to be set free after 12 years, as your verdict will permit. I can only hope that he will not meet any of you ladies some night in a dark place."

Several of the women left the jury box weeping.

Leaders Nip Portland 3-2; Filion Sparks Totems' Win

Portland hockey fans, who waited over a month to see their new Western Hockey League team, the Buckaroos, are slightly bewildered today.

Buckaroos and Spokane Comets played the opening game in Portland's new arena Tuesday with the cellar-dwelling Comets dropping a 3-2 decision.

Wednesday night, the league-leading Edmonton Flyers came to play in the luxurious surroundings and were hard pressed to gain a 3-2 victory.

The fans are wondering how the Flyers can have a five-point lead while Comets are so well entrenched in the basement.

The answer is Edmonton's ability to win the tight games. The fact is that Flyers, although tops in the WHL, have scored fewer goals than they have had scored against them.

WARRIORS THE SAME

Second-place Winnipeg Warriors, who dropped a 4-2 decision to Seattle Wednesday night, also hold the same distinction. The Warriors also have lost more than half their games.

Third-place Calgary Stampeders get a chance to move in front of them tonight when the Warriors visit Calgary.

Flyers resume their tour of the West Coast Friday night, meeting the Cougars in Victoria's Memorial Arena. In another game Friday, Seattle will be at Vancouver.

Attendance dropped sharply from the 5,584 fans who watched Portland in the city's first professional hockey game in 10 years Tuesday night.

Only 4,337 were on hand Wednesday as the Buckaroos took a 1-0 first period lead, then faded away as the Flyers evened it at 1-1 after two periods and pressed their victory with two goals early in the third.

ROOKIE SCORES

Lou Marcon, rookie Bobby MacGregor and Gord Labossiere scored for the Flyers while Gordie Fashoway and Gord Haworth counted for Portland.

At Winnipeg, forward Rudy Filion scored two goals and co-captain Guyle Fielder turned in a workhorse performance to lead Seattle.

Victory moved the Totems into a three-way tie for third place with Calgary and Vancouver. Each has 14 points, one fewer than the second-place Warriors.

Other Seattle goal-scorers were Ed Ehrenverth and Tom McVie, who counted the winner. Nick Mickoski and Gord Redahl scored for Winnipeg.

DANGEROUS

Fielder, although credited with only one assist, was dangerous every time on the ice and centred on the Seattle power play, which counted three of the Totem's goals. He was constantly digging in the corners and setting up passing plays inside the Winnipeg blueline.

Totem's Frank Arnett picked up his second spearing penalty of the season in the first period and will pay an automatic $35 fine. A league rule calls for a $25 fine for the first offence and an additional $10 for each additional spearing major.

Winnipeg goalkeeper Harry Lumley, called upon to stop only 17 shots in the game, wasn't tested until the nine-minute mark of the first period. Seattle's Bev Bentley handled 33 shots in all, stopping five shots in the last few minutes as the Warriors pressed for the equalizers.

Airlines' Business Booming

VANCOUVER — The great air-lift between Vancouver and other points where hockey goalies dwell continues . . .

The next flight is expected to bring in Claude Evans, a 27-year-old, much-travelled puck-stopper, to do business with Vancouver Canucks of the Western Hockey League.

Evans now is with Kitchener-Waterloo Beavers of the Eastern Professional League. He became expendable this week when the parent New York Rangers sent Jack McCartan to Kitchener, subject to immediate recall.

McCartan, star of the U.S. Olympic championship team last year, had been sharing the New York goaltending duties with veteran Lorne Worsley.

MUST PLAY

New York has made it clear that McCartan must play regularly at Kitchener and Vancouver hopes to get Evans.

"I've been after Evans for some time," said Vancouver general-manager Coley Hall who spent last weekend negotiating with the Rangers.

Evans was the EPHL's leading goaltender last year while with Three Rivers. He has been a professional since 1953 and has had brief trials with Boston Bruins and Montreal Canadiens of the National Hockey League.

If and when Evans arrives, he will be the fourth goaltender to visit Vancouver this season. Ray Mikulan and Cesare Managio have already been and gone, and the job is presently held by rookie George Wood.

Marc's New Pal (Roy's His Name) Real 'Color' Guy

Victoria's French-Canadian population is due to be increased, and you don't hear Marcel Pelletier complaining.

Marcel likes to cut loose with some of that Quebec talk, and things haven't been quite the same in this corner of the Western Hockey League since bilingual Gordie Haworth transferred allegiance to Portland.

Now Marcel is looking forward to the arrival of Georges Roy, and for more reasons than just having a partner of conversation.

IT REALLY MEANS . . .

"Colorful" is the polite way of informing everyone that the man doesn't back down from anybody or anything. If there's a fight, it usually involves the "colorful" one.

Roy, 33, is Cougars' newest "colorful" acquisition.

"He's a pretty good defenceman," says Marcel, who played behind him for two seasons at Chicoutimi. "He can carry the puck real good, is a good skater and he can shoot real good."

ROTUND TYPE

Roy's record backs up his former teammate. The chunky —five feet, eight inches and 180 pounds — defenceman played eight seasons with Chicoutimi in the old Quebec Hockey League, turned pro last season with Quebec Aces of the American Hockey League. He started this season with Sault Ste. Marie of the Eastern Hockey League and comes to the Cougars courtesy of the Black Hawks, who own his contract.

He played 499 league games in the QHL and was always among the higest-scoring defencemen. He averaged 35 points a season and in three seasons made more than 50 points. His record shows 90 goals and 271 assists in the QHL, six goals and 13 assists for the Aces in 63 games last season.

PLAYS IT ROUGH

Another statistic indicates that the Victoria defence is to get some new bounce. In his nine seasons he has spent 1,105 minutes in the penalty box, averaging 123 minutes a season.

Roy is currently en route, by car, with his family from Sault Ste. Marie and is not expected to arrive in time for Friday night's game at Memorial Arena against Edmonton Flyers. Coach George Agar, however, hopes that he will show in time to play in Portland on Sunday.

Agar said Roy is coming on a "look-see" basis, but added that he had no doubts the veteran would make his place.

"We need a fifth defenceman and we need a hitter," Agar said. "I have hopes that Roy is going to fill the bill."

Jones Paces Archery Club

He was the only member to break 500.

Other men's scores included: Bob Blades, 480; Vic Powley, 474; Ian Thain, 470; Bill Mair, 448; Stewart Peingle, 442; Bill Carnes, 432; Bob Copeman, 410; Fred Usher, 408; Bill Hogg, 333.

Commercial Boys Pack It Up Early

SEATTLE (AP) — Puget Sound will be closed to all commercial salmon fishing Thursday, 13 days ahead of schedule, state fisheries director Milo Moore announced Wednesday.

Moore said the early closure was ordered because of the poor chum salmon run.

SPRINGBOKS WIN

GLASGOW (AP)—The South African Rugby Union team came from behind three times Wednesday to defeat Glasgow and Edinburgh 16-11.

That Little Shakeup All Rangers Needed

DEAN PRENTICE . . . scores winner

New York Rangers came up with a cliff-hanging performance Wednesday night in a National Hockey League game which promised drastic changes for the last-place club unless it managed to win.

Dean Prentice scored the winning goal for Rangers in the last second of the game when they came from behind with three third-period goals to edge fifth-place Boston Bruins 4-3 in New York.

Ken Schinkel and Camille Henry counted other goals in the last period after Rangers trailed the Bruins 3-1. Andy Bathgate scored for New York in the second period.

CHANGES PROMISED

Ranger coach Alf Pike promised before the game he would make some drastic changes if the team didn't win. He did switch the lineup slightly, putting Bathgate, New York's leading scorer, at right wing with Red Sullivan at centre and Johnny Wilson on the left flank.

"We won't change our defensive combinations," Pike said earlier. "I don't think they've been at fault."

New York now has 11 points, one less than Boston which has a game in hand over the Rangers.

CLOSE RACE SEEN

At the other end of the standings, Toronto Maple Leafs and Detroit Red Wings provided proof that the race for the NHL championship could be one of the closest in recent seasons.

The teams tied 3-3 in Toronto to edge closer to the league-leading Montreal Canadiens.

Bert Olmstead scored twice and former Red Wing Red Kelly once for Toronto. Norm Ullman, Murray Oliver and Warren Godfrey tallied for Detroit.

Only one game is scheduled for tonight when Boston visits Chicago.

It Was Tight Fit, But Tony Made It

Past performance doesn't mean a thing when the chips are down—as Tony Gutoski and Steve Hayhurst discovered Wednesday night in the Victoria Curling Club's Consols playdowns.

Gutoski, 1958 B.C. champion, and co-favorite with Hayhurst, nearly blew his match against Larry Marshall after leading 6-2 at one time.

Marshall made it 7-6 after his rival failed to make his last rock on four successive ends but Gutoski recovered in time, scoring four on the 11th end and one more on the last end to win 11-7.

Hayhurst, former northern Saskatchewan champion, had an easier time of it by taking Gordie Moore, 12-7, despite playing only three men. Lead Les Brice was forced to come from a sick bed to throw his first two rocks before retiring to sick bay.

The game in doubt until the 10th, when Moore missed last rock and Hayhurst counted three to go five up.

In other games Bill McLean beat Sam Rycroft 9-8 and Erick Bullock got by Elmer Hoffman 9-7.

Winning rink at close of the round-robin Dec. 22 will meet winners from the four other Island clubs to compete for the Vancouver Island title. The Island survivor will play Fraser Valley and Lower Mainland champions for the Pacific Coast Curling Association crown.

Race Still Tight In Snooker Loop

Tillicums edged Elks, 7-5, this week to maintain a narrow lead in the Inter-Club Snooker League.

In other games Britannia beat ANAF Vets 8-4 and Pro Pats downed Eagles by the same score.

Tillicums now have 40 points, Pro Pats 36, Elks 34, Eagles and Britannia 29, and ANAF Vets 12.

FIGHT RESULTS

FRESNO, Calif.—Ben Medina, 139½, Fresno, knocked out Art Ramponi, 138, Oakland, 4.

COLLEGE TRIPPED

Speeding Optimists Haven't Wasted Time

It might be considered bad form for a newly-created team to start trampling over some of the older clubs but that's exactly what Oak Bay Optimists are doing.

Playing their first season in the Victoria Basketball Commission's junior men's league, Optimists are undefeated in two games played to date.

Wednesday night, the Optimists pressed hard for a 36-26 win over Victoria College behind the 16-point display of Malcolm Mitchell to grab second place in the five-team league, two points behind Victoria Optimists.

In the second half of a doubleheader at Mount View, Naval Vets shaded Hudson's Bay 31-29 in a senior "B" women's contest.

Saturday at Mount View, Naval Vets will host Vancouver's C-FUN squad at 7.30 p.m. and Horgan's Aces will meet King's Hotel in a senior "B" men's contest at 9 p.m.

Scorers:

CAST COMES OFF

Ploen Starts Passing

WINNIPEG (CP) — Star quarterback Ken Ploen shucked the plaster cast from his injured right hand and started throwing footballs Wednesday night as Winnipeg Blue Bombers sought to regain their scoring punch in time to win a berth into their fourth consecutive Grey Cup final.

Ploen, who suffered the injury as Winnipeg defeated Edmonton Eskimos 22-16 in the first game of the Western Interprovincial Football Union final Saturday, was forced to wear the cast and play defensive safety as Bombers lost the second contest, 10-5.

He was replaced at quarterback by first-year understudy Vernon Cole. The young North Texas State graduate turned in a creditable performance, but Bombers were unable to put together a touchdown drive against the determined Esks.

The third game of the best-of-three series is here Saturday afternoon. (Game time is 12.05 PST and it will be televised in the Victoria area over Channels 2 and 6.)

Ploen's injury is suspected to be a crack in one of the many small bones around the base of the thumb. However, X-ray examinations have not been able to confirm the diagnosis.

Coach Bud Grant said that until definite improvement is shown in Ploen's hand, he will plan on using Cole again Saturday.

Ploen said after Wednesday's 90-minute workout that the wrist felt stiff.

Line coach John Michels said Ploen reported no pain in throwing, but added that it hurt when he received the ball from centre in the T-formation snap. Michels also said the Iowa graduate's passes lacked snap and hung in the air, and would be prone to interception.

Grant said the experiments will continue until just before the Saturday game. If Ploen is unable to go at quarterback, he will have the cast replaced and play safety again.

Clair Won't Say What's up Sleeve

OTTAWA (CP)—Those may be old rabbits that Ottawa coach Frank Clair pulls out of his hat but he makes no apology for them as long as they still have the element of surprise.

Clair more than likely is rewarming an old chestnut or two for Toronto Argonauts Sunday in the final encounter, starting at 10.30 p.m. (EST), of the two-game, total-points series for the Big Four football championship.

Rough Riders now lead 33-21.

The game will be carried on national television network.

Last Saturday, Clair flim-flammed Argos with the extraction of an ancient rabbit out of his hat — the forward pass off an end run. Halfback Joe Kelly worked the play twice in two attempts for touchdowns.

Riders also worked one of their favorites — the double reverse—several times. It can hardly be expected to fool Argos much longer.

"It would be ridiculous to try to sit on that 12-point lead against Toronto. They have a great offensive ball club and can score a couple of touchdowns and wipe out that lead in a few plays," said Clair.

"We are considering this a nothing-nothing ball game. We are out to win it and to win we figure we'll have to score early and keep scoring."

B.C. LION STARS KICK OFF AT LITTLE GREY CUP GAME

...And Entertainment, Too!

The men behind the "little Grey Cup" football game are stepping in all directions to make certain the juvenile battle lives up to its name.

The latest steps are bringing out a rather full half-time entertainment program.

Lorne Heath, president of the sponsoring Victoria Minor Canadian Football Association, announced Wednesday that a New Westminster cycle group, a 50-piece band and a bevy of baton-twirlers will entertain fans at half time.

Heath also said kickoff honors will go to two members of the B.C. Lions—fullback By Bailey and halfback Willie Fleming. Manager Herb Capozzi and Denny Veitch, minor football co-ordinator, will also represent the professional football team at the game.

The big game, matching Vancouver Island All-Stars against Winnipeg Rams, will be played under the lights at Royal Athletic Park next Wednesday.

WILLIE FLEMING
. . . to visit Victoria

But let's get back to half-time . . .

If all that entertainment doesn't use up all the intermission minutes, it's a cinch the prize-giving will. A total of 21 gifts will be handed out to ticket-holders.

The band in attendance will be the Greater Victoria Boys' Band. The Lynda Pollock twirlers have also agreed to perform, but the unique offering will be "Cap's Paraders" from New Westminster.

They do their stuff on unicycles and at least eight of their members will be on hand through the courtesy of a New Westminster bicycle store. The same group of teen-aged cyclists has also been invited to take part in the Grey Cup parade at Vancouver Nov. 26.

$8,711 DAILY DOUBLE AT GOLDEN GATE TRACK

ALBANY, Calif. (AP)—The daily double at Golden Gate Fields Wednesday paid $8,711.40, the largest in California racing history and the third largest in racing history.

VIKING VIEWS

By LES MILLIN

Walking around in a glow these days are the hockey-happy girls of the Victoria College's "A" grass hockey team.

Last week's Evergreen Conference games in Vancouver saw them trim three teams from much larger universities in a series which resembled a four-way fight between a David and three Goliaths. Victoria College played the University of Idaho, Western Washington and the host University of British Columbia, and walloped them all.

The Victoria team blanked Idaho 9-0 on Friday. Western Washington got two goals past them Saturday morning—the only goals scored on Victoria in the series—but the college's five goals put them in front in that game also.

With one team polished off for breakfast, the girls felled highly-regarded UBC 3-0.

This latest sweep leaves the college grass hockey team undefeated this season, and with no reason to expect one in the future. Their chances for the weekend games were rated uncertain, because they had never met other universities.

But with a solid record such as they have now, they are quite entitled to consider themselves the star athletes on campus. Saturday sees them in action in the Bridgman Cup tournament, and while the results cannot be foretold, it looks like a very good chance for the girls to add another notch to their hockey sticks—if they can find room.

* * *

The Viking rugby XV began a long climb back up the ladder with their win in the Homecoming game last Saturday after a losing streak due in part to injuries.

The injuries are still there, but the second team has supplied enough reinforcements to enable the "A" squad to chalk up a 16-3 win over a team made up of former student. Saturday they go against Oak Bay Wanderers Whites.

* * *

Three weeks of curling shows Ted Espley's rink out in front with three straight wins in the college league play. Curling is one of the few minor sports which stood up well under the great influx of new students into the college. Many of them went down in membership, but the curling club added a rink to last year's total.

It's hard to understand why more students would mean less support for the minor sports, but perhaps the answer lies with the addition of some new minor sports to the campus scene. Hockey, fencing and rowing have each taken their toll of students who, for the most part, cannot afford to take part in more than one activity.

* * *

Serious basketball begins Friday for the Victoria College Vikings with a game against Victoria Optimists at Gordon Head gymnasium. The Vikings will put on a repeat performance Saturday night when they take on Halfway House, also at Gordon Head.

The college "B" team will also put in an appearance Saturday, meeting Victoria High Totems in a preliminary game. Hungry males might be interested in knowing that the college cheerleaders will make their bow Saturday.

* * *

There are some sore backs on campus today—the rowing club had its first workout, and the coach is determined that the boys will be in top-notch condition before a shell is put in the water.

Ten prospective oarsmen were put through the hoops by coach Peter Gray, and more are welcomed if they don't mind a little exercise. No rowing will take place until after Christmas, but a certain amount of rowing practice on land may be possible if the club can obtain some rowing machines.

Weekly workouts will be held until the team is in shape, and the next one will be on Wednesday night for any students interested.

Vics Sideline Oak Bay Crew From Title Hunt

By RON SUDLOW

The glory road ran into a dead end Wednesday for the defending champions of the Inter-High Senior Soccer League.

And the sudden stop can be blamed on Victoria High.

The win gave Vic High a berth in the best-of-three city final series against Mount View.

Oak Bay dominated play in the scoreless first half, forcing Vic's netminder, John Paul, to make key saves on John Rostrum, from close in, and on John Fraser, by just tipping the latter's drive over the crossbar.

ANOTHER SHUTOUT

Mount View clinched first place by blanking Mount Douglas 4-0. This was a record seventh consecutive shutout for the Mount View squad. Vern Pratt booted in two goals, while singletons went out to Jim Clarke and Al Boden.

The View shutout skein was almost obliterated when Mount Doug was awarded a direct penalty kick 3 minutes from time. The threat ended when Barry Cosier whistled the ball just wide of the left post. Goalkeeper Larry Johnston had another close call 30 seconds from time when a shot brushed the right post.

Esquimalt failed to gain on Belmont in the standings as the clubs battled to a 0-0 draw. The contest was marked by close checking and rugged defensive work on the part of both teams.

In the afternoon's other clash, Milnes Landing doubled its season's output of goals but that wasn't enough as they fell victim to Royal Oak 4-2.

Ron Cunningham was the big gun for Royal Oak with three goals and Russell Ball added the other. Allen Brooks and Bruce Butler replied for Milnes Landing.

The Mount View-Vic High championship series will probably start on Friday, Nov. 25. It has been proposed to play the series under the lights at Royal Athletic Park since many league games have been shortened due to the lack of daylight.

If enough interest is generated, the event will prove a boon to high school soccer.

Job-Hunters Helping Bragan to Keep Busy

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — Robert Randall Bragan, the man chiefly responsible for stocking Houston's baseball cupboard, returned after a business trip Tuesday, and he hasn't been idle.

This was established in the wake of a seemingly innocent question: "Have you heard from any ball players, Bobby?"

"I can show you better than I can tell you," he said, leading the way down a hall in the Houston Sports Association offices.

He stepped into a room that looked like the post office during Christmas week. Mail was everywhere.

It was sorted into three stacks. One contained letters from job-hunting players, one was from scouts and one contained letters Bragan hadn't opened.

Houston will be in the National League in 1962 and the former big league player and manager (he played at Philadelphia and Brooklyn and managed at Pittsburgh and Cleveland) has started lining up material for the city's first club.

About 150 letters a day cross the desk of Bragan and general manager Gabe Paul. As the director of Houston's farm system, Bragan is responsible for signing players.

"We've heard from several ball players getting near the end of the line, but mostly we're going to build with youth," he said. "That's our program."

Poodle, Terrier Tops In Obedience Trials

Big Bowling Tourney To Seattle?

SPOKANE (CP) — Spokane was turned down Wednesday night as the site of the 1964 tourney of the American Bowling Congress.

Carl Copp of Dayton, Ohio, chairman of the ABC site committee, said "the Spokane Coliseum could not accommodate the 32-lane minimum necessary for tourney competition."

The 70-day tourney, expected to bring 35,000 bowlers to the tournament city along with $2,500,000 in added revenue, could go to Seattle, Oakland or Long Beach, Calif.

Spokane city manager Henry Nabers confirmed Spokane was out of the running then added quickly:

"We'll be stumping for Seattle now, in an effort to keep the tourney in Washington State."

HAT TRICK HELPS

SPOKANE (AP)—A three-goal surge by Mike Russell gave Notre Dame College of Nelson a 5-3 victory over Gonzaga University of Spokane in a collegiate hockey game here Wednesday.

BANKS' REIGN ENDS

Bucs' Captain Most Valuable

BOSTON (UPI) — Dick Groat, the "thinking man's" shortstop and captain of the world champion Pittsburgh Pirates, today was named most valuable player in the National League.

Groat, the National League's batting champion with an average of .325, received 16 first-place votes from the 22 baseball writers voting.

Third baseman Don Hoak, Groat's teammate, had five first-place votes and came in second, 114 points behind Groat's total of 276. Pittsburgh outfielder Roberto Clemente received the other first-place vote.

Groat was the first Pittsburgh player to win the award since it was originated in 1931. He almost had a tragic season. On September 6 he was hit by a pitch of the Braves' Lew Burdette but recovered in time to play in the final week of the season and to play a leading role in the world series.

The selection of Groat ends a two-year reign of another shortstop, Ernie Banks, of the Chicago Cubs, who got one second-place vote this year and was mentioned on 20 of the writers' ballots to give him fourth place. Willie Mays, of the San Francisco Giants, was mentioned on 21 ballots to get third place.

In all, a total of 23 players were named. The top ten were Groat, Hoak, Mays, Banks, Lindy McDaniel, of the St. Louis Cardinals; Ken Boyer, also of the Cardinals; Vernon Law, of the Pirates; Clemente; Ernie Broglio, of the Cardinals, and Eddie Matthews, of the Braves.

Roger Maris, whose home run bat helped the New York Yankees win the pennant, has already been named the most valuable player in the American League.

Quick Return

TORONTO (CP) — Janet Yates, a three-year-old western-bred filly which changed hands in her last start, won Wednesday's feature race at New Woodbine for new owner F. J. E. Schultz of Kitchener, Ont.

Milburn Joins Non-League Squad

LONDON (CP)—Jackie Milburn, the former England centre forward who was outlawed from English League soccer, has signed for non-league Yiewsley Town.

He turned down several high salaried offers from Scottish and non-league clubs before joining Yiewsley, which is reported to be paying him £40 a week.

Last summer he drew £900 from a football league provident fund to send his wife on a convalescent trip to Canada. The withdrawal automatically barred him from returning to English soccer.

Last month his contract with Linfield expired and he had hoped to join first division Birmingham City. League officials warned him he was ineligible.

Corruption Charges Hinted In Probe of Ottawa Suburb

TORONTO (CP) — Mismanagement of municipal affairs of the Ottawa suburb of Eastview, including disappearance of unknown amounts of town funds, was charged today in the report of a provincial government inquiry commission.

The investigators found town lands had been sold to private buyers at far below normal prices, firms had been given low and illegal tax assessments, council had paid itself and the mayor a bonus under the guise of guest entertainment, bank borrowings had been made illegally, auditing had been slipshod and the town treasurer had been incompetent.

Mayor Gordon Lavergne, Progressive Conservative mem of the Ontario Legislature for Russell, had been a director of a firm engaged in Eastview land specualtion and, without reference to council, had authorized municipal services for a development by the company.

The inquiry was made under the Municipal Affairs Act by C. W. Yates and F. G. Blake, municipal experts in the municipal affairs department here. They held hearings for three weeks at Ottawa last summer after 98 Eastview ratepayers petitioned for an investigation because of increased taxes.

TROUBLE FORECAST

The report warned that, unless present practices were remedied, the town of about 23,000 would be in financial trouble.

Recommendations included:

1. A qualified treasurer should be appointed so that "order and efficiency may replace disorder."

2. A complete revision of the town's building and zoning bylaws, which were not producing results required.

3. Sale of town assets should be undertaken only after independent appraisals.

4. Tenders should be called on major contracts.

5. There should be "further and complete investigation" of the way in which cash was handled in the office of the town treasurer, Mrs. Adrienne Laroche.

KENNEDY INHERITS RETRENCHMENT PLAN

U.S. to Spend $1 Billion Less

By HAROLD MORRISON
Canadian Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON (CP) — The John Kennedy administration will inherit a new government program designed to reduce American spending abroad by $1,000,000,000 a year.

Signs indicate Kennedy will retain and possibly expand this program aimed at stimulating business at home and curbing the drain of American gold reserves now down to $18,000,000,000. This is a drop of $6,000,000,000 during the last eight years.

With only 64 days left in his eight-year administration, President Eisenhower Wednesday announced the multi-point program of foreign spending retrenchment which could divert new defence and civilian orders to American factories from plants in other countries.

Service wives uttered protests when told that 284,000 of the 484,000 dependents living with American service men abroad will have to come home in batches beginning next January.

"Our people are at war, a new kind of war," said Defence Secretary Gates in explaining the come-home policy. "I think our people are accustomed to sacrifice."

JAPAN DISMAYED

Japan and several other countries were dismayed when Eisenhower announced most goods required under U.S. foreign military and economic aid programs will have to be produced in the U.S.

Underdeveloped countries getting American loans to finance their development will be required to use most and in some cases all of the money to buy American goods.

This new retrenchment program may have some impact in U.S. spending programs in Canada, possibly in future placement of defence orders.

"A definite improvement in our balance of payments situation is mandatory not only to ensure our economic well-being and military security here at home," said Eisenhower at his Augusta, Ga., holiday headquarters, "but also to ensure that the United States can continue as a strong partner in the future economic growth and military strength of the free world."

While cutting spending programs, the U.S. government also will press ahead with an American exports drive, to get more countries to reduce curbs against imports and to allow their natives more funds when they travel in the U.S.

Chinese Get Subs

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—With more than 20 modern submarines transferred from Russia, Communist China now has the third largest undersea fighting force in the world behind Russia and the United States, says the commander of U.S. anti-sub force in the Pacific.

Quebec Powerhouse Ends 61-Year Career

COTEAU du LAC, Que. (CP) One of Canada's oldest powerhouses has been closed after 61 years of continuous operation, rendered obsolete by the St. Lawrence Seaway.

The red brick building on the south side of the Soulanges Canal generated enough power to operate four locks and seven bridges and light the entire canal.

The powerhouse looks like a medieval French castle, with turrets and gargoyles at each corner and fancy gingerbread work all over. Inside, brass rails and grills protected the marble control panel.

The canal was built by the department of transport in 1899 and the powerhouse came soon after. But the canal was closed and replaced by the seaway in April, 1958. With the locks closed and bridges being replaced by causeways, there was no need for the powerhouse.

To Armand Samson, plant superintendent who had directed its operations for 38 years, fell the job of pulling the old-fashioned knife switches to shut off the two generators.

Clark Gable Dead

FANS MOURN 'GREATEST STAR'

By JAMES BACON

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—"The king" is dead! Clark Gable, greatest star of them all, dropped his head back on a pillow late Wednesday night and died of a heart attack.

The end came so fast that his doctor said there was no pain—just a few gasps. A few seconds before he had been asleep. A nurse in his room heard the gasps and shouted across the hall to Mrs. Gable who had moved into Hollywood Presbyterian Hospital when Gable, 59, was taken there after his first heart attack Nov. 6.

Ironically, death came after his best day since that first attack. He ate heartily at dinner, took a little snooze afterwards and then chatted happily with his wife. He had even been shaved.

Thus ended the 30-year reign of the king of Hollywood. He never will see his first child due in March.

"He was more concerned about the effect of his illness on me and the baby than he was about himself," Kay, his fifth wife, related.

"I feel terrible doing this to you and the baby," he told her soon after he entered the hospital. It was a statement he repeated many times.

"He hadn't even had a cold in the five years we've been married," Kay said.

Baby 'Dividend'

The blonde wife, under heavy sedation, was bearing up as well as could be expected under the shock. A nurse and her brother took her home in the middle of the night.

Talking of the baby while shooting with Marilyn Monroe for The Misfits, he told me:

"This is a dividend that has come to me late in life. When I wind up this picture, I'm taking off until the baby is born in March. I want to be there when it happens—and I want to be there many months afterward.

"This is my 90th picture—and it's been a tough one. I'm not doing any more for a long while. I want to enjoy my son."

5,000 Proposals

Gable, who once said he had received 5,000 marriage proposals from women fans, was born Feb. 1, 1901, in Cadiz, Ohio, the son of an oil worker. He knocked about as a farm boy, oil-field worker and rubber plant employee.

Then he took a job as a backstage call boy in a touring stock company. From then on, he was an actor, touring the country with stock companies. Lionel Barrymore spotted him once in a Los Angeles play and got him a series of bit parts in the movies.

Later he played Killer Mears in the Los Angeles company of The Last Mile. A director took him to Darryl Zanuck, then head of production at Warner Brothers.

"I took one look at him and said: "Buddy, your ears are too big. You'll never make it," Zanuck recalled.

Barrymore suggested to Louis B. Mayer that Gable would be ideal for the gangster role in A Free Soul, starring Barrymore and Norma Shearer, a native of Montreal.

Women Loved It

"Instead of the letters of protest we expected, women by the thousands wrote in that they would like to be slapped around by Gable," said one MGM executive.

Thus started the king's reign in Hollywood. Joan Crawford said recently that "no one, not even Brando, has ever approached Gable. He's the king and he always will be."

When Margaret Mitchell wrote Gone With the Wind, she had Clark Gable in mind when she created the character of Rhett Butler.

"I never could see myself in that part," he once said. His portrayal in the movie of the famed best seller was a screen classic but it was not his favorite.

Liked Comedy Role

His all-time favorite was the one that won him an Oscar in 1934—the wise-cracking newspaper man of "It Happened One Night".

A few years ago, I asked him if he intended to take up directing as had some of his fellow stars.

When the United States entered the Second World War, in 1941, Gable was 41 and earning $300,000 a year. Although three years past the draft age, he enlisted as a private and came out a major. He flew five combat missions with the air force as a bombardier and was decorated.

Wed Five Times

Gable was married five times and seemingly found happiness in two of them—his third, to madcap Carole Lombard, and his last, to the former Kay Williams Spreckels, in 1955, then a 37-year-old divorced wife of sugar heir Adolph Spreckels.

His other wives were Josephine Dillon, a drama coach 16 years his senior; Mrs. Maria Langham, No. 2, a member of a socially-prominent Houston, Tex., family, also older than he, and Lady Sylvia Ashley, No. 4, who once was married to Douglas Fairbanks, Sr.

On his last picture, he was the movies' highest paid star. Aware of Miss Monroe's history of delays, he got an overtime clause in his contract which paid his $48,600 a week the last three weeks of the movie.

"I won't be able to keep a cent of it because of taxes," he said, "but it sure helps Marilyn learn her lines faster."

U.S. Dares Russia 'Spell Out Blocs'

UNITED NATIONS (UPI) — The United States put the Soviet Union on the spot Wednesday by demanding it produce a formal list of the countries it would designate as " "socialist," "neutralist" and "western" under its proposed three-bloc reorganization of the United Nations.

Sen. George Aiken, chief U.S. representative in the general assembly's budget committee, said the world would be awaiting the Russian reply "with considerable interest."

"By what right does the Soviet Union arbitrarily divide the countries of the world into three groups?" Aiken asked. "We have always felt that it was for all nations to decide for themselves what views, positions and alliances were and should be."

The first underground electric railway at London, England, was opened in 1890.

PAINTINGS AND SKETCHES of Nanaimo's historic Chinatown, made by group of UBC art and architecture students, were sold at auction this week to raise $570 for Chinese fire relief and building fund. Auction was held in Canadian Bank of Commerce building where buyers and former Chinatown residents, such as above, inspected them. Students spent day in Chinatown just two weeks prior to Sept. 30 fire. (Flett Studio Photo.)

East Indians Slashed In Mill Town Stabbing

LAKE COWICHAN — A 35-year-old East Indian millhand who apparently went berserk after a period of brooding, slashed three fellow-workers in a wild stabbing at Mesachie Lake Wednesday night.

The brief but bloody struggle sent the three to hospital at Duncan. Treated for knife wounds were Malkit Singh Sangha, 33; Kaball Singh Sall, 45, and Jagir Singh Hayer, 40.

RCMP at Duncan took Reshan Singh into custody, but said no charge would be laid. He was to undergo psychiatric examination today.

Two of the attacked men are still in hospital, with arm wounds. The third, camp foreman Kaball Sall, was released after treatment to cuts in hands, sustained when he wrestled the knife away from Reshan Singh.

ILL FOR WEEKS

Malkit Singh Sangha said Reshan Singh had been "sick and miserable" for the past couple of weeks.

Describing the stabbing, Sangha said he was eating in the cookhouse when Reshan came in with a knife in his hand.

"He just went wild," Sangha said.

Reshan was caught and disarmed outside the cookhouse by Jagir Hayer and the foreman.

COMMISSION NAMED FOR NANAIMO HARBOR

M. C. Blunt and John Thompson of Nanaimo were named today to the three-man Nanaimo harbor commission set up at the last session of Parliament, the transport department announced in Ottawa.

Each will serve three years. George Muir of Nanaimo is the city nominee for the third position.

$1,000 Offered For Sheep Killer

GANGES—A reward of $1,000 has been offered here for capture and conviction of the person responsible for the slaughter of four sheep on Salt Spring Island.

Remains of three ewes were found Sunday near Fulford and a fresh hide was found Monday in Fulford Harbor.

Remains of the ewes, all mature animals, revealed that they had been butchered and the meat taken.

"It must have been an outside job," an RCMP officer said. "A Salt Spring Islander would have had a better eye for tender meat."

The animals found on shore were from the flocks of either Robert Akerman or Gavin Reynolds. Reward money was offered by the British Columbia Sheep Breeders' Association.

Lifeboat Leaves

The Tofino lifeboat left Victoria harbor at 7.30 a.m. today, to return to her station on the West Coast of Vancouver Island after undergoing annual refit.

When she is back on station, the Banfield lifeboat will come down coast, arriving Monday, to go into McKay Cormack Ltd. for refit.

Clayoquot lifeboat, which has also been in refit, went back into service today.

Arbitration Forced

DUNCAN — Salary dispute between Cowichan District 65 school board and teachers went to arbitration automatically this week when conciliators Dr. Ray Duncan for teachers and John Homer for the school board failed to reach agreement.

Both groups must name representatives to an arbitration board by Nov. 25.

Driver Fined $150

DUNCAN—Albert Erickson, Summit, was fined $150 with the alternative of 30 days in prison when he appeared in Duncan court Wednesday and admitted driving a car while his driving licence was suspended.

Smith Rites Friday

FULFORD—Funeral services will be held at St. Mary's Church here Friday at 1.30 p.m. for Mrs. Ada Smith, 77, of Isabella Point, who died this week at Lady Minto Gulf Islands Hospital in Ganges.

Surviving are her husband, Edmund Hugh Smith, at home; a daughter, Mrs. G. W. Archer, Vancouver; two grandsons, Frank and Douglas Archer; a twin sister, Mrs. Edith Russell, in Ireland, and nieces and nephews.

The service will be followed by cremation at Royal Oak.

Thieves Strike Twice

COBBLE HILL — Thieves who broke into Pacific Builders' Supplies Tuesday or Wednesday smashed a window, ransacked the office, opened an empty cash drawer, then took nothing but stamps worth about $5.

They had had better luck the night before when they broke into Crossroad Motors Ltd., next door, and took four new tires, a battery, tools, and money for a total haul of about $225.

Eaton's Win Contest

Runner-up was the window of Charlie Onn and Co., and Jaynes Hardware was third. Honorable mention was given to windows of Powel's men's wear and Gourlay's five Cents to $1 store.

The contest was sponsored by the Duncan - Cowichan Chamber of Commerce retail division and judged by officials of the Unemployment Insurance Commission office.

Copper Firm Seeks New Island Claims

The president of Cowichan Copper said in Vancouver Wednesday the company's mine on Vancouver Island is almost worked out and property with a substantial tonnage of proven ore is being sought.

Ozzie Macdonald said his company does not want to undertake a major exploration program at the mine. He said other properties on Vancouver Island, such as Nadira, Avallin, Caycuse and Cellardor Mines, are promising prospects.

A three-year contract will expire on Jan. 15, 1961. Mr. Macdonald said Cowichan will have shipped about 14,000,000 pounds of copper and 70,000 ounces of silver by Jan. 31.

A worthwhile exploration program on the present property would cost between $700,000 and $800,000. It would take three years.

$1 Taken From Till

LADYSMITH — Dalby's service Station, Bayview Road, was broken into Tuesday night and $1 in change, all that had been left on the premises, was taken from an open cash register.

Owners checked stock but found nothing missing.

CPR TO RUN VICTORIA-SEATTLE SERVICE ONLY

100-Year Steamer Service Comes to End

The long-rumored cessation of direct transportation from Victoria to Vancouver became fact Wednesday with an official announcement that the CPR will drop this service, even in summer months.

The key word in passenger travel to Vancouver is now "via"—via Patricia Bay airport, or ferry terminals at Swartz Bay, Departure Bay, or Nanaimo.

End of direct steamer connection between Victoria and the lower B.C. mainland, which began 100 years ago, came as no surprise to those who have watched passenger revenues dwindle in the race of increasing competition and changing modes of travel.

The CPR will continue to operate a summer run to Seattle, as its sole service out of Victoria harbor.

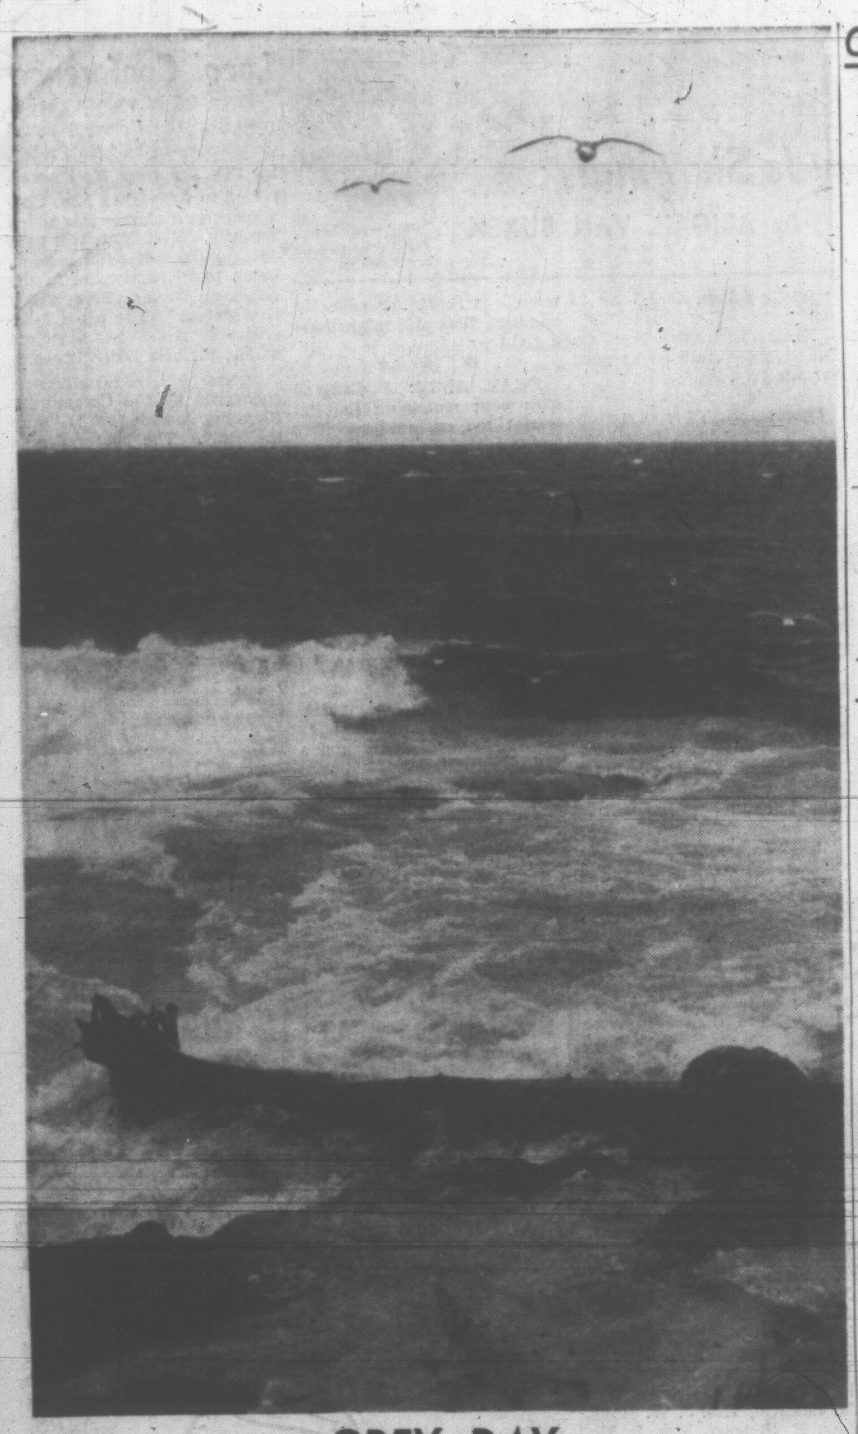
In announcing termination of the Vancouver-Victoria portion of the once-famous triangle run, J. [illegible] Fraine, vice-president and general manager of the Pacific region, CPR, said: "The Vancouver-Victoria service was insufficiently patronized last summer, and in order to ensure that the operation of the Seattle run will continue to be economically worth while in bringing United States tourists to Victoria, it was necessary to discontinue the losing portion of the triangle route."

Mr. Fraine scotched rumors that Princess Patricia and/or Princess Marquerite, the triangle run steamers, would be adapted for Alaska cruise service. "One surplus triangle vessel, either the Princess Marquerite or Princess Patricia, will be used on the Nanaimo route, replacing the Princess Elaine. The Princess Elaine will be retained as a stand-by unit, pending study of her future."

Princess Elaine, 32-year veteran of the B.C. Coast Service is tied up alongside the Belleville Street dock, with Princess Elizabeth and Princess Joan, which were sold recently.

Victoria Daily Times

VICTORIA, B.C., THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 17, 1960—PAGE 21



GREY DAY

Lonely cry of gulls keeping vigil over Straits set Victoria's mood today as Pacific storm struck with rain and winds up to 55 miles per hour in gusts. Near gales will continue to drive white horses across bleak and barren seas tonight, and will break clouds apart for some sunshine Friday. Temperatures will range between 40 and 48 degrees. Said weatherman William Mackie: "This month is getting more like November all the time." (Times photo by Bill Halkett.)

'THEY JUST GIVE US RUN AROUND'

Elwood Modeste said in an interview in Nanaimo: "For the white man, doctors prescribe the hospital. For the Indian it's always aspirin and keep warm. That is supposed to cure everything."

He said if an Indian is the first one in line at a clinic he has to [illegible] until all whites are [illegible] with.

"It doesn't matter if he's dying, he waits."

He said doctors paid by the department will not make house calls. He said a child may be dying but the doctor will refuse to visit the home.

'Desecration' On Coast Road To Be Checked

Complaints that scenic qualities of parts of the West Coast road along the Kennedy River are being despoiled by loggers were answered today by a spokesman of McMillan, Bloedel and Powell River Co., who said areas involved would be checked into.

"We are not in the habit of desecrating the countryside," he said. He pointed out the company gave 300-acre Cathedral Grove, on the Alberni Highway, to the province instead of logging it.

A B.C. government parks official said the company has been asked to save a beauty strip of trees along the road from Tofino, but recent travellers over the road protest that much of the timber along the road and river banks has been felled.

The government request was made some time ago, the parks official said.

EXPECTED ACTION

"I understand the company was going to consider it."

Lands and Forests Minister Ray Williston said part of the area is owned privately—by MacMillan, Bloedel, Powell River—and part of it is Crown land.

He added that some roadside clearing was being done along a 100 foot road allowance to prevent windfalls across the route.

It is a matter of policy now to preserve trees on roads in all Crown land, and along the edge of timber licences, said Mr. Williston.

Neither the company nor the government spokesman could say how much timber has already been cut from the Tofino roadside, or on whose property it lies.

Work Finally Starts On New Jubilee Wing

'BIBLE AS OBSCENE AS NOVEL'

"Lady Chatterley's Lover" is no more obscene than the Bible, says Toronto publisher Jack McClelland.

"It is a work of art—a really great piece of writing. If you call it obscene you might as well call the Bible obscene—and by those standards the Bible could be proved obscene."

Visiting Victoria, Mr. McClelland noted with satisfaction that the uncensored version of D. H. Lawrence's novel has been cleared by a British jury of nine men and three women.

ANGRY OVER BAN

But he was angry that a Montreal court should have banned the book.

"This is an absolute crime," said the 38-year-old president of publishers McClelland and Stewart. "I would say it is a healthy book and I would even recommend it as a substitute for the marriage counsellor.

"Only the mean and craggy-minded could describe it as vulgar or obscene. I would not object to my own children reading it."

Mr. McClelland, who has four children, said the banning of "Lady Chatterley" in Montreal has caused considerable concern among Canadian publishers.

"As I understand it, anyone in Canada can now walk into a magistrate's court and have the book banned locally. This is a serious threat to Canadian literature and the freedom of our writers."

Mr. McClelland is on a western tour to help launch half a dozen new Canadian books, including a first novel by B.C. author Margaret Laurence, set in Ghana and titled "This Side Jordan."

CURB CRUNCH . . . when "big boy's" air brakes failed.

Main Contract Award Likely Early In '61

Long-delayed program of constructing a five-storey wing at Royal Jubilee Hospital will get rolling next week.

Hospital administrator George Masters said today that bids for demolition of the existing administration building will be called in the next few days.

It is the first move in an accelerated program for calling bids that hospital officials hope will result in award of the $2,750,000 project's main contract by late winter.

"This is very good news," responded Victoria Labor Council secretary-treasurer A. W. Toone. "It appears the hospital board is pushing its schedule ahead because originally the demolition was planned for January."

JOBS NEEDED

"We certainly need the jobs this project will create and I think the board should be commended for making every effort to speed it up."

The red brick administration building was erected in 1890 and is the oldest standing part of the hospital. It has to be pulled down to make room for the new wing.

"The building is half vacant now and will be completely empty by Nov. 25," said Mr. Masters. "Demolition is expected to take about one month."

During the demolition work, the hospital board plans to call for tenders on the new wing itself.

Mr. Masters said normally demolition and site clearing work would be included as part of the main contract.

WILL SAVE TIME

But, by breaking the work up into two parts and calling for tenders on the wing while demolition is in progress "we will save considerable weeks of waiting," he said.

Contractors will need about two months to study plans for the new wing before they can make their bids. While they are making estimates on the main project, the site will be cleared so that a fast start can be made when the award is announced.

Actual award of the main contract probably will be made in February or March. The project is expected to provide employment for up to 200 men and will take two years to complete.

Some 30 staff members will be shifted to various quarters of the hospital when the administration building is pulled down.

CORRIDOR UNDER WAY

Currently, work crews are constructing a covered wooden corridor to connect the hospital with its maternity wing to house oxygen and steam lines and provide all-weather access for staff members between the two sections, replacing the existing link through the administration building and tunnel during the construction period.

The corridor will be ready about mid-December.

Special measures will be taken during the construction period to keep the hospital functioning smoothly.

When finished the new wing will provide: 201 new beds for a net gain of 129; a completely new surgery department with 10 operating theatres which will eliminate the present bottleneck in surgery schedules due to lack of space; a special cancer clinic unit with the Island's first cobalt bomb apparatus.

Massive Trailer 'Bullies' Two Cars

Two women were treated for slight injuries suffered at 10 a.m. today when a large low-bed trailer slipped its brakes at Herald and Douglas, then picked on the smallest car on the block.

A second car also was trapped in the melee.

Motorist Eleanor Roberts, 2876 Wyndeatt, and her passenger, Margaret Horner, 2844 Adelaide, were taken to St. Joseph's Hospital with leg and arm bruises, and discharged.

Police said the woman had just parked her small car behind an unoccupied 1959 model sedan, properly parked on Herald just east of Douglas.

Mrs. Horner had the passenger side door open and was getting out when the low-boy, owned by Heaney's and being unloaded at a basement opening of Hudson's Bay Co. store, broke away when its air brake supply failed.

The heavy trailer, loaded with two electrical transformers, rolled backwards, then jackknifed and the rear tandem wheels of its tractor crunched into the front of the sedan, owned by Joseph G. Mann, of Vancouver.

The sedan was pushed onto the sidewalk, snapping off a parking meter, then backwards into the small car, causing extensive total damage, and throwing Mrs. Horner to the sidewalk.

TRAFFIC FINES

Ronald William Long, Youbou, $40, and Ethel Poyntz, 2700 Burdick, $35, for careless driving.

Durward G. Thomas, 2945 Dysart, $10 for failing to register an out-of-province car for touring purposes within 14-day limit.

FOLDED ALMOST IN HALF around a tree trunk when it skidded off rain-slick Esquimalt Road on a curve at Fraser, this 1958 model car was wrecked and its owner-driver received head and neck injuries at 12.30 a.m. today. AB Gerard M. Arsenault, 27, HMCS St. Therese, is in satisfactory condition at HMCS Naden Hospital. Esquimalt police said the car jumped a curb and struck the tree almost broadside some 12 feet from the street. Driver's door was forced open to release unconscious Arsenault, who also suffered multiple abrasions.

TOPICS OF THE DAY

City finance committee today decided to offer a 35-year-old fire department pump truck for sale on a scrap basis to any interested volunteer fire brigade.

The 835-gallon pumper, out of service for three years, needs about $5,000 worth of repairs to put it back in running order.

It wasn't worth rehabilitating for fire fighting duties in a large city but might be useful for training and fire fighting in a small community where high water pressures are not needed, Mayor Percy Scurrah said.

A burglar who stole a heavy steel bar from a construction shed used it to pry open a heavy-duty filing cabinet at a next-door storage firm, and netted $17 cash for the effort overnight Wednesday.

City police said there was no sign of entry to the building of Victoria Van and Storage, 517 Esquimalt, which reported the burglary at 7.40 a.m. The steel bar was taken from a Wheaton Construction Co. shed.

Motorist Roland Goodchild, 1930 Dean Park, was fined $250 when he pleaded guilty in city police court today to impaired driving on Yates.

He was remanded for a probation report on the matter of licence suspension.

Police said Goodchild tried to back into a parking space on the south side of the street, caused about $10 damage when he bumped into a car, then reversed for 25 feet—on the sidewalk.

3-Year Term For Duncan Burglaries

Three years in B.C. Penitentiary was the sentence passed on Brian John Connerly, 19, in Duncan police court today when he pleaded guilty to 18 indictable offences of breaking, entering, theft, and public mischief.

Magistrate A. C. Sutton said Connerly's offences were "a cold, planned series of crimes." Connerly of Duncan, heard the magistrate say: "I don't like sending a boy to penitentiary but there's nothing else for it."

Connerly had previously admitted 14 of the charges and today tendered pleas of guilty to four more. He also received concurrent sentences of 30 days imprisonment on two summary convictions.

Terry Brian Stokes, 19, Duncan, who admitted four charges of breaking and entering, received a sentence of two years less one day definite and 12 months indeterminate in the Young Offenders Unit. He admitted to four appearances in juvenile court.

Children's Bodies Drift Ashore

Bodies of two male children, believed to be sons of Major William L. Fisher, Lasqueti Island, were found washed ashore in the Campbell River vicinity today.

Major Fisher and his three children left Lasqueti Island Nov. 11 in a 24-foot outboard, and had not been seen since.

It is presumed the two bodies are those of Mark Fisher, seven, and Francis Fisher, five.

One of the bodies was found at Willow Point, south of Campbell River, the other on the beach opposite the Willows Hotel in Campbell River proper.

The bodies were fully clothed and wearing lifejackets.

Major Fisher, owner of a general store on Lasqueti Island, was heading for French Creek, near Qualicum Beach, on a 30-minute crossing. An air-sea search turned up a brief case washed ashore on Hornby Island. It was later identified as Major Fisher's.

ASK The TIMES

Q. Could you please tell me the original meaning of the Scotch name Craigdarroch? E.E.L.

A. It is Gaelic to describe a hilly spot on the landscape. There are many "Craig-an-darrochs" in Scotland. The name of the famed Victoria castle has been shortened from the original Gaelic by useage.

Q. Has there ever been or is there a rank known as king's or queen's corporal in the English or Canadian armies? R.T.E.

A. No. This is a persistent army myth. It may have been that somebody tried to establish such a rank-standing years ago, but it was never officially recognized. Director of the army historical section in Ottawa, Col. C. P. Stacey, is on record as stating "there is no evidence that this rank ever existed either in the British or Canadian armies". Belief, still in existence, is that a soldier is confirmed in the rank of corporal for heroism or actions beyond duty's call and though he may gain promotions, he cannot be broken below this rank.

SHOPPING GUIDE

By PENNY SAVER

Stylists have certainly kept the teen-ager in mind when designing clothes that use popular leopard skin look. Browsing in one downtown store this week I discovered smart tunics and matching slim jims of cotton corduroy that are patterned in leopard spots.

Sleeveless tunics have scoop necklines and narrow matching belts. Smart side seam slits give a well-tailored look to the long torso line. Tunics sell at $3.98 and come in sizes 12, 14 and 16.

Matching slim jims repeat slit in bottom cuff and have side zipper openings. These are priced at $5.98. Teen-agers and their mothers will appreciate fact that these versatile items can be dunked with the utmost safety.

Used with one of the fine Banlon sweaters that come with turtle necklines and three-quarter-length sleeves, tunic and slim jims will create a play or lounging outfit that any young miss will long to be seen in! Smartest combination would be either a black or brown sweater. Sweaters I saw come in sizes 12 to 18 and sell at $5.98.

When your daughter wants to dress up a bit, it's pretty safe to bet that new shipment of dresses with the shaggy look are bound to win her favor. These dresses are pure wool and are really cosy with their shag treatment. Simply but smartly cut, they have scoop necklines, three-quarter-length sleeves and a generous back pleat in the slim skirt.

A self bow highlights the inserted belt that breathes of figure flattery! Dresses are available in sizes 14 to 18 and come in a soft willow green, winter white, purple or teal blue. Price, too, is well within a teen-age budget for dresses cost only $14.99.

Nordic touch is seen in the wide contrasting bands that are used on cuffs, waist and new cowl collar of bulky knit sweaters just received by another downtown store. One model in gleaming gold has contrast bands of black and white while other, in regal purple, has trim in gold and white. Sweaters come in sizes 16 to 20 and are priced at $9.95.

Pricing gifts for the Christmas bazaar of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Guild groups and Men's Club are Mrs. J. Robertson (left), Lake Hill Group; Mrs. M. P. Matthews and Mrs. M. Campbell, Fernwood Group. Mrs. W. A. C. Bennett will open bazaar at 2 p.m. Saturday, in the Kirk Hall, Courtney Street. Mrs. William White is general convener. Guild groups will convene gifts, home cooking and other stalls while Couples' Club will be in charge of tea arrangements.

THE BETTER HALF By Bob Barnes

"Am I beat! At 5:00 o'clock my secretary refused to get off my lap and I had to carry her all the way to the bus stop."

Ceremonials In Yucatan

Mrs. C. D. Stockdill gave a talk on the ceremonial cities of Yucatan at recent meeting of the Women's Committee to the Greater Victoria Art Gallery. She described the architecture of the buildings and the ceremonies held in these cities about 500 AD. Mrs. R. T. McKean expressed thanks of the gathering.

Plans were completed for a luncheon in the new wing of the Gallery next Monday at 12.30 noon. Guest speaker will be the curator, Colin Graham, and his subject "Collectors Public and Private." Tickets may be obtained at the gallery, EV 4-3123 or from Mrs. F. W. Baylis, GR 7-3870.

Announcement was made by Mrs. C. M. Nelles that $154 was realized at a recent dessert party. Plans were discussed for a treasures and superfluities sale in the gallery in early February with Mrs. S. T. Fitzpatrick the convener and for the Christmas dance being convened by Mrs. R. L. Horne.

Donations for the February sale will be picked up if donors will telephone EV 2-3226.

Carps Surprise

EDMONTON (CP) — The golden carp in the pool at Edmonton's city hall fountain have surprised officials. Last year they failed to breed and some died, although lilies and numerous other water plants were installed. Then 33 of the fish were put in a pool with nothing but water, and they have increased to about 60.

'Stop, Look And Listen' Table Topic

At recent meeting of Victoria Toastmistress Club No. 90, the theme was "Stop, Look and Listen." Mrs. J. R. Pipes presided, in Glenshiel Hotel, and Mrs. T. Grant was toastmistress. Table topic, "TV Commercials" was conducted by Mrs. K. Bains. Speaking were Mrs. J. Craig, Mrs. H. Mickleson, Mrs. K. Aldred, Mrs. R. Bowering, Mrs. Pipes, and Mrs. F. Blaus. Mrs. A. Heller, Mrs. Scott and Miss A. Newman were critics. Mrs. G. Wilson did the timing. Evaluator was Mrs. C. C. Warren. "Spur" was awarded to Mrs. Bains.

CLUB WOMEN'S NEWS

Raise $866 — Co-conveners, Mrs. H. Thirlwell and Mrs. G. Worthington Lake, reported sum of $866 was realized at recent rummage sale at meeting of the Victoria Symphony Society's Women's Committee, held in the Lansdowne Road home of Mrs. J. Barraclough. Plans for the symphony ball to be held in mid-February were discussed.

Fees Allocated — To fulfill the dual role of responsibility to the association and to the public in general, fees paid by members to the Registered Nurses' Association of British Columbia are allocated to give support and aid where most needed. This was pointed out to the Greater Victoria district branch of the association by Miss Eleanor Graham, executive secretary of the RNA of B.C., at a meeting held in the Net Loft. One hundred and ten members were present.

Report—Miss D. Guelpa gave the convocation report at meeting of Chapter No. 25, Women of the Moose held recently in Moose Home. Mrs. M. Ilott presided and Mrs. S. Schultz was welcomed as a new member. Plans were made for a country fair at Moose Home on Dec. 2 and a Christmas tree for children, 12 and under on Dec. 18. To mark library chapter night, supper tables were decorated with books. A birthday cake was cut. In charge of refreshments were Mrs. R. Jones, Mrs. M. Hollings and Mrs. M. Lingard.

In Kitchen — It was announced at meeting of the Women's Guild of St. David's Church-by-the-Sea, that an electric range and automatic hot-water boiler, bought by the guild for the church hall kitchen have been installed. Mrs. J. W. Forth and Mrs. E. Smart were visitors at the meeting held in the home of Miss Vivian Talbot. Plans were completed for the Christmas bazaar and tea to be held on Dec. 7 with proceeds to assist with decorating the hall. Tea was served by Miss Talbot and Mrs. T. Anderson.

Report—District Council report was read by Mrs. H. E. Jarvis at meeting of the Ladies' Auxiliary, Britannia Branch No. 7, Canadian Legion. Mrs. M. Williams presided. Plans were discussed for a Christmas party on Dec. 15 in the auditorium.

Demonstration — Mrs. A. Etheridge gave a demonstration of flower and Christmas arrangements for the home at a recent meeting of the Oak Bay Kiwanniannes, held in the Cadboro Bay Road home of Mrs. H. C. Gill. Co-hostesses were Mrs. Ernie Peden, Mrs. C. E. Moore, Mrs. Charles Pomeroy and Mrs. Peter Thomson. Plans were made for the annual donation of Christmas hampers.

DEAR ABBY

His Idiocy Is Showing!

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: The company psychologist told my husband that he has an IQ bordering on "genius." Consequently, no one can live with him any more. Everyone else, in his opinion, is now "stupid." "infantile" or "lame-brained." (I am included.) He belittles me in front of the children. Ninety per cent of the time he is a wonderful husband and loving father. He has a brilliant future with a well-known company and we have all the material things I could hope for, but his mental "superiority" is causing me heartaches.

CAN'T SIGN MY NAME

DEAR CAN'T: A person's "IQ" (intelligence quotient) alone will not carry him safely through the rough waters of day to day living. If he's as smart as he thinks he is, he'll forget his "IQ" and concentrate on his "CS" (common sense).

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: I made a bet with a guy but we didn't shake on it. If I lose, do I have to pay?

BRUNO

DEAR BRUNO: You do. Your word should be as good as your grip.

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: I have a problem. I am known to all my friends as "DEAR ABBY" because I am able to solve all their problems. But when it comes to my own, I draw a blank.

Abby, I like a boy who is in my school. I am a junior and he is a senior. He smiles at me, but that is all. How can I get him to notice me?

DEAR ABBY NUMBER TWO

DEAR "DEAR ABBY NUMBER TWO": You've been helping your friends with their problems, now turn to one of them for help with yours. That "smiling senior" must have a buddy. Have one of your friends "buddy up" to HIS buddy, and gently hint that you have noticed the smiling senior. Then he will REALLY notice you. All some boys need is a little encouragement. (P.S. Better case the situation first. He might have a girl.)

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: I disagree with your statement that "it is not the custom anywhere for an overnight guest to bring his own bed linen."

In Sweden it is considered quite proper. Considerate guests frequently carry their own linen on trips. They don't want to give the hostess extra trouble with laundry, which is a bigger problem in Sweden than in your country.

Sincerely,
SWEDISH IMMIGRANT

Garden City Church Bazaar

Autumn foliage and flowers decorated Garden City Church hall for a recent bazaar sponsored by the Women's Association. More than $680 was realized.

Mrs. Thomas Crossland, association president, was assisted by Mrs. E. J. Staley in welcoming guests. Mrs. S. Brasher was general convener. Event was opened by Mrs. F. E. H. James who was presented with bouquet of chrysanthemums. Committee members included Mrs. H. Peach, Mrs. T. Drayton, Mrs. J. Murray, Mrs. M. Newton, Mrs. J. Jones, Mrs. M. Pate, Mrs. M. Alexander, Mrs. J. A. McCulloch, Mrs. W. Pym, Mrs. E. Kelnor, Mrs. W. H. Fenton, Mrs. E. Rushton, Mrs. E. Ricalton, Mrs. R. Grieves, Mrs. M. Baldwin, Mrs. J. W. Hogg, Mrs. E. Stewart, Mrs. S. McWilliams, Mrs. R. Young, Mrs. L. Sparks, Mrs. D. Roberts, Mrs. L. Russell, Mrs. A. De Gruchy and Mrs. J. Scott.

Patient Referrals Increase

Slight increase in referral of patients discharged from the two local hospitals was noted in the past month, Miss Elizabeth Riddall, district director, told members of the board of management of Victorian Order of Nurses, at a recent meeting.

There were 17 patients referred for general nursing and 138 for post-natal care. These were to both the VON and Saanich Public Health Unit.

Miss Riddell also reported that staff nurses had been active in teaching and at public health conferences.

Mrs. W. W. Findlay presided. Reports were given by Victor Price, cars; Mrs. A. M. Oswald, community welfare council; H. B. Nash, finance.

Mrs. F. Norris, co-chairman of the VON Community Chest canvass, reported a decrease of $500 in collections as compared to last year.

Local Conference

The total of women participating in the Urban Renewal Conference to be held Friday, in the Empress Hotel, was raised to four when Mrs. Constance Shaw's name was added recently. Mrs. Shaw will take part in the afternoon session, being panel participant in the panel on "Who Cares About Downtown?" The panel moderator is Art Stott, associate editor, Victoria Daily Times.

Theme of the conference, sponsored by the Community Planning Association, is "Stop the Rot". The conference is open to the public.

A special thank you to Mrs. Arthur Nation, 6 Sylvan Lane, our very first customer, 23 years ago.

As a souvenir of our gratitude and remembrance of those early days when Mr. Adams opened his business, we are sending a folding tray table designed by Fritz Hansen of Copenhagen.

CONFIDENTIALLY YOURS

by Byrne Hope Sanders

MONTREAL, Nov. 17th—Getting things is twice the fun when you know you can pay for them without hardship. That's why buying on the BANK OF MONTREAL Family Finance Plan makes such good sense. The things you buy on this low-cost plan are things you are sure you can afford. That's because the low monthly payments are geared to your individual income —and for your protection the loan is life-insured too! Next time you're considering a major purchase—see the B of M first. The friendly people at your neighbourhood branch of "My Bank" will be glad to explain this modern plan to you.

PLANNING A PARTY? Be sure to check up on your supply of BLUE BONNET MARGARINE. This margarine has a fresh, natural taste that makes snacks and sandwiches extra delicious. Everyone will enjoy the sunny-sweet flavor of Blue Bonnet . . . and I'm sure you'll agree that everything tastes better with Blue Bonnet on it. That's because Blue Bonnet is made from the finest ingredients . . . pure vegetable oils and pasteurized skim milk, with Vitamins A and D added. Blue Bonnet is delicious on hot vegetables and excellent for all your baking, too. Get Blue Bonnet today and enjoy its good taste in dozens of ways!

HERE'S A CHEERFUL IDEA for a gloomy November day . . . try something extra-special for dessert, like this luscious Strawberry Pineapple Fluff, made with NESTLE'S PURE THICK CREAM.

Drain 1 (20 ounce) tin crushed pineapple; measure 1 cup of the syrup. Dissolve 1 (3 ounce) package strawberry jelly powder in 1 cup hot water; stir in pineapple syrup. Chill until jelly just begins to set. Beat until foamy. Beat in 1 (6 ounce) tin Nestlé's Pure Thick Cream. Chill 10 minutes. Fold in pineapple. Turn into individual molds or dessert glasses. Chill until set. Yield: 6 servings.

Keep several tins of Nestlé's Pure Thick Cream on hand, right on your kitchen shelf. You'll find this rich country cream is the easy way to have real cream handy for all your creamy-good recipes.

HERE'S A BREAKFAST BONUS for all the family . . . flavorful RED RIVER CEREAL, of course! These chilly November mornings call loudly for a piping hot bowlful of Canada's favorite hot cereal. You see, Red River is a wholesome blend of cracked wheat, rye and flax. Youngsters and active workers find plus energy values in Red River. It guards regularity for older folk and sedentary workers. And, mother, it's so easy to prepare—cooks in just a few minutes. You'll agree Red River Cereal is good for every one of us, right now!

NEVER 'ON THE SHELF' FOR LONG . . . you'll find, as I have, that your big, 32-ounce jar of MIRACLE WHIP is in constant use. That's because the light and lively flavour of this popular salad dressing is unique . . . it enhances other flavours without overwhelming them. No wonder so many women find that Miracle Whip is the good taste in so many of their salads and sandwich fillings! And Miracle Whip is always fresh when you buy it. That's because it's so popular, it's never on your grocer's shelf for long!

HERE'S A TREAT FOR EVERY AGE GROUP . . . yes, youngsters and grown-ups alike love delicious AYLMER Olives. They can be the stars of so many meals and festive snacks with family or friends. I always like to have at least a couple of jars on hand. There are dozens of ways you can use Aylmer Olives — Plain or Stuffed Queen or Manzanilla—to brighten your menus. Have you tried them sliced into buttered cracker crumbs to top baked, scalloped tomatoes? Delicious! There's nothing like Aylmer Olives for flavour!

I HAVE EVER SO MANY GRATEFUL LETTERS from men and women in every province who have found longed-for relief from neuritic, arthritic or rheumatic pain—through taking TEMPLETON'S T-R-C's. I find that the substance of all these letters is, "We've been helped by T-R-C's. They will help you, too!" With each purchase of T-R-C's you will be given a Free Sample of Templeton's new FLAME-cream Liniment . . . so now Templeton's offer you Double Action . . . T-R-C's to be taken internally and FLAME-cream to be applied externally for fast, comforting relief from muscular, rheumatic, arthritic and neuritic pain.

Return Home

Mr. and Mrs. William Hayward have returned to their home on Carnsew Street after a four-and-a-half-month holiday overseas. Following a week's stay in London, England, the Haywards toured southern Germany and spent three months in Heidelberg. The holiday also included visits to Austria, Switzerland and France.

Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Thompson, 2919 Wascana Street, announce the recent marriage of their younger daughter, Rosemary Ann, to Mr. Wayne C. Budynski, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Budynski, 56 Cadillac Avenue. St. Barnabas' Church in New Westminster was the scene of the wedding, with Rev. J. Pitt officiating. Miss Marlene Cummins attended the bride and Mr. Warren Gordon was best man. Mr. and Mrs. Budynski will make their home at No. 4-2315 Cook Street.

Lace and Satin Gown Worn by Barbara Power

Chantilly lace in rosepoint design, over satin, formed the ballerina-length gown worn by Miss Barbara Ann Power for her recent marriage to Leonard Fong in St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church. Bodice had a scalloped neckline and lily point sleeves. A taffeta band emphasized the Empire waistline. Full skirt swirled from the hipline. A tiered chapel-length veil of silk illusion misted from a dainty coronet of iridescent sequins and seed pearls. Deep red roses were in the cascade bouquet.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Walter M. Power, 216 St. Charles Street, and Mrs. Sterling Northrup, Garrick, Sask.

Mauve and white chrysanthemums decorated the church for the ceremony at which Rev. J. L. W. McLean officiated. Organist was C. C. Warren. Mr. Powers gave his daughter in marriage.

Oscar S. Barrett proposed the toast to the bride at a reception held in the social suite of the Kirk Hall.

For a honeymoon trip to the United States the new Mrs. Fong chose a navy blue suit with white accessories. Corsage was a white orchid.

Carl Pendray, left, with his great-grandson, Mark Hine; his granddaughter, Mrs. Jeremy Hine, the former Madge Pendray, and his son, W. Allan Pendray. Today a family gathering is being held at the Pendray home on Beach Drive to mark the birthday. Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Verley and Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Cummins have come from Vancouver for the occasion. The Verleys are staying with Mr. and Mrs. Carl Pendray.

Remove Trade Barriers, Bring Prosperity And Peace to Every Country in the World

The road to peace will be easier if artificial barriers of trade are relaxed or even removed, Judge G. W. McPhee told members of the University Women's Club of Victoria, Wednesday evening.

Economics of the late twenties and the early thirties were not very Christianlike, the speaker believed, "but at present the world is not nearly as selfish. The Marshall Plan and the Colombo Plan are examples of a more Christian way of thinking".

Larger and more prosperous countries must help smaller and less prosperous countries, he said.

Britain's example is outstanding, he pointed out.

"Through foreign investments and foreign trade, Britain has become one of the great nations and has therefor had the strength to defend the cause of democracy at all times."

The speaker based his address on the prophecies of Mother Shipton, written over 400 years ago; the poet, Thomas Gray, penned more than 200 years ago, and of Alfred, Lord Tennyson, written in the 19th century.

"Fantasy when the words were written, but now they are fact."

He was introduced by Miss Dora Moore and thanked by Mrs. H. Donaldson.

Mrs. H. R. Turner presided. New members welcomed were Mrs. N. H. Atkinson, Mrs. R. H. Brown, Mrs. W. L. McCullagh and Mrs. J. C. Williams. Refreshments were served by Mrs. T. G. Hatcher, assisted by Mrs. Olga Bowes, Mrs. D. R. Mcleod, Mrs. D. L. South and Mrs. G. E. Whalen.

Silver Threads Tea Sale Draws Interested Friends

St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church Kirk Hall was filled to capacity Wednesday afternoon for first tea and sale of arts and crafts arranged by the Silver Threads Service.

Proceeds will be used to assist with arrangements to start a handicrafts centre for elderly citizens.

Owen Carne, president of the Silver Threads Service, introduced Mrs. George R. Pearkes, who officially opened the affair. She was presented with a motto worked by a Silver Threads member. Mrs. Alerancho, also a member of the group made the presentation.

Mrs. O. H. Lamont spoke briefly. She pointed out that while the Silver Threads Service was a Community Chest group, the money needed for extra service such as handicraft work, must be obtained through teas and sales or by donations of materials, money or even a centre where handicrafts could be taught, from interested friends.

Presiding at the head tea table were Mrs. W. A. C. Bennett, Mrs. Percy B. Scurrah, Alderman Mrs. Lily Wilson, Mrs. W. F. Pinfold, Mrs. B. P. Harding, Mrs. J. L. W. McLean and Miss Sara Spencer.

Miss M. Kensington was in charge of tea arrangements, assisted by members of the volunteer corps of the service. Mrs. P. Gadban arranged the decorative theme that featured silver, blue and white. At the door were Mrs. E. C. Wilson, Mrs. J. West, Mrs. J. W. Duncan, Mrs. Hick and Mrs. P. M. Parsons.

Like Parties? You May, But Your Rug Doesn't!

Most of us like parties, and with the Fall season we will be making merry again in our living rooms. But how about your rug? Is it ready for company? Why not let the CARPETORIUM give your rug new beauty with professional "deep cleaning"? They will make your rug "live" again with all its original lustre. If you should be unlucky enough to have an accident to your rug, don't cry—call the CARPETORIUM, EV 3-2861. The cost of complete "deep cleaning" is very low and the work will be done promptly by experts who have cared for Victoria's most valuable rugs and carpets for over 35 years. For FREE estimate call the CARPETORIUM, 1210 Wharf Street, at EV 3-2861 . . . the CARPETORIUM, Victoria's professional carpet cleaners.

Lache-Ettensberger Vows in Cathedral

St. Andrew's Cathedral was scene of recent wedding that united Miss Ruth Ettensberger and Erhardt Lache. Parents of the couple are the late Mr. and Mrs. Hans Ettensberger of Mannheim, Germany, and Mr. and Mrs. Paul R. Lache, 115 Government Street. Father D. Johnston officiated.

Organ music greeted the bride as she entered the cathedral on the arm of her cousin, Heinz P. Mueller. She wore a floor-length gown in white satin brocade for the double-ring ceremony. Mother of pearl trim highlighted the scoop neckline. A rhinestone coronet held the fingertip veil of silk illusion. She carried an arm bouquet of red carnations.

Only attendant, Miss Else Zembrodt, chose a short length gown in pale blue chiffon. She wore a pale blue pearl coronet and carried pink carnations.

Walter Fisher was best man.

At a reception held in the Lurline Avenue home of Mr. and Mrs. Mueller, toast to his cousin was proposed by Mr. Mueller. Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Douglas A. Murray of Vancouver.

the new sustaining meal that you drink. Lets you lose pounds quickly and safely while satisfying your appetite!

WITH MinVitine, developed by scientists at the famous Ovaltine Laboratories, you can lose unwanted pounds. Read how you achieve the weight you want without counting calories, while helping to maintain your health and satisfying your appetite!

Almost any diet plan can take off weight, but if you have ever tried to diet, you know that staying with the plan is the big problem. The scientists at the Ovaltine Laboratories were aware of this—so as specialists in nutrition, they developed this remarkable new diet food—MinVitine. It gives you satisfying nourishment at your regular meal times, yet cuts down on weight-building calories. In fact, MinVitine furnishes only 900 calories per day!

MinVitine comes in a jar which contains enough for three meals and a bedtime snack. MinVitine is more than just an appetite appeaser, different from a "bulk without nourishment" food. You simply mix it with cold water, making a delicious drink with a texture much like a malted milk. This is your MinVitine "meal", one that contains only 225 calories, yet supplies you with minerals and vitamins and the nourishment you need while on your diet plan.

You'll be delighted to see how quickly and steadily you lose weight when you use MinVitine according to directions. And you'll find it's easy to stay on your MinVitine Diet Plan because it helps satisfy your appetite. When you have achieved the weight-level you want, it's simple to stay there. Continue MinVitine by using the plan one or two days a week.

Naturally, it's wise for anyone who is dieting, or considering it, to keep in touch with his physician. Today, more and more people are turning to diets which help maintain good nutritional health, like the MinVitine Plan, under the guidance of their doctors.

You'll find new MinVitine at food and drug stores. It comes in three delicious flavors—chocolate, butterscotch and wonderful new coffee! Look for it. MinVitine is the diet plan you can stick to. You know it's good because it comes from the makers of Ovaltine!

Exercise and Diet Go Together

A good many women seem to be puzzled by the value of exercises versus diet in carving ou a slender figure. Actually, to attain a trim figure, you need both. The value of a sound diet lies in overall weight reduction.

You need to take off 10 or 15 pounds and you do. Fine. But once you've done it, you somehow still haven't the proportions you had expected. Your hips still seem bulgy, your upper arms are flabby and your legs need trimming down. What's needed, then, is not a further weight reduction but spot exercise.

For the hips, you should sit down on the floor and "walk" across it by rolling your body first to one side and then the other. For the upper arm, do the backstroke in a standing position. For pretty legs, take a walk. But take a good long walk every single day. And wear mid-heels while you're about it.

Exercise can turn even a poor figure into a trim one if it's used regularly and coupled with a sound diet.

TOSS-UP

With the growing popularity of nylon hairbrushes, a controversy has developed over the relative merits of the nylon and natural bristle brushes. Actually, you may safely use either.

For coarse or unruly hair, the nylon brush is far better. Just be sure that in picking a nylon brush, you buy a good one. Run your hand over the bristles. They should be neither squared off nor sharp. But there's no need to worry about this in a good nylon brush made by a dependable maker.

If you hair is soft and fine, you'll probably prefer a natural bristle brush. On checking some of this country's top hairdressers, I found they were divided about 50-50 on the subject. Some clung to the notion of the natural bristles, others wouldn't use anything but the nylon. And some had compromised by having brushes made up especially for their salons with bristles that were a mixture of the natural bristle and the nylon.

THAT SPARKLE

The best way to have clear and sparkling eyes is to get enough sleep, eat the right food, drink lots of water and avoid daily use of cocktails. Don't depend on drops of any kind to make your eyes clear and bright. Your eyes, like your hair and your skin, reflect your total health. If you are careless with your health, your eyes show it fast.

WHY GROW OLD?

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

For Best Appearance and Best Health, Stand Straight

HOW DO YOU STAND?

The way you stand has a definite effect on your health, your energy and your figure.

Lowman

When you slump, your breathing is shallow and your internal organs are crowded. Muscles and ligaments are thrown out of their correct alignment. This places a strain on them and brings you aches and fatigue. When you stand properly, your lungs and heart are not crowded and your abdominal muscles give inner support which is needed.

Actually, the correct posture should be a part of every reducing routine since fat accumulates over lazy or lax muscles. Also good posture makes a great difference in your measurements. A poor carriage not only leads to round shoulders but to a protruding abdomen, a double chin and a Dowager's Hump at the base of the neck.

If women realized what a tremendous difference posture can make in their appearance and their health, they would take it more seriously. You often have read the rules for good posture, but I am going to repeat them today.

First, straighten your spine, all the way. This is your main supporting structure and you must pin your hopes for a lovely figure on it. If the spine is straight, everything else falls into correct position. If not, strains occur.

Do you allow your body weight to fall over your heels? You should feel that you can, with ease, lift your heels from the floor at a moment's notice. This does not mean that you should lean forward.

Now lift your chest or rib cage and pull your abdominal muscles in and up. Relax your knees as you pull your abdominal muscles in and you automatically will tuck your hips under.

There are three crucial points in posture which I think lots of women do not know or forget.

1. Do not pull your shoulders back. The shoulders should be relaxed. If not your head probably will thrust forward.

2. Do not duck your head or thrust your chin forward. Push toward the ceiling with the top of your head. You will experience a feeling of lightness and lack of tension at the back of your neck if you do this.

3. The knees must also be relaxed. By this I do not mean that they should be bent, but if they are hyperextended when standing or with each step, your hips will not be tucked under.

I have prepared a new 10-cent booklet entitled, "Your Bust." It tells about the proper care of the bust and how you can make your bustline more attractive. If you would like to have it, send 10 cents and a stamped self-addressed envelope with your request to Josephine Lowman in care of this newspaper.

'GIVE $1 MORE'

Chest Short $100,000

With less than two days to the end of the Greater Victoria Community Chest campaign, the fund is still more than $100,000 short of its $350,000 goal.

Officials are optimistic the final figure will be close to $300,000 but at a meeting of directors and agency representatives on Wednesday they stressed that $350,000 was the minimum required to keep the agencies operating efficiently.

In a final effort to make up the deficit the public is asked to mail one or two dollars to the Chest office, 1951 Cook Street.

The appeal is made to every Victorian—whether or not they have made a contribution.

Chest president Eric Mallett said it would not be difficult for people to donate an extra dollar if they realized it was, in fact, just one week's coffee money.

Campaign chairman Bernard Van Aggelen, said the Chest was at a crossroads and only the public could decide which way it would go.

Either the Chest raised the money for the agencies or the agencies returned to the "rat-race" that existed before the Chest was formed and went out to canvas on their own.

The latter, he said, would be "grossly uneconomical" for city businessmen. Furthermore, he did not think the agencies could get canvassers for 26 to 28 appeals a year.

VANCOUVER OVER TOP

"We recognize the fact that there is unemployment in Victoria," said Mr. Van Aggelen, "but this is not the only city in Canada with that problem. Vancouver cut its Chest goal slightly this year but has gone over the top by some astronomical figure—and they are dealing with millions not $350,000."

A. W. Toone, secretary-treasurer of Victoria Labor Council, agreed with the chairman that Victoria is no worse off than any other community.

He suggested that each citizen be faced with a challenge that not only were they asking for 22 separate appeals but they didn't care what happened to the people in need.

Earlier, Dr. Hugh Borsman, chairman of the publicity committee, detailed the effects a 15 per cent cut would have on agencies' budgets.

Dr. Borsman's report showed that, without exception, each agency is going to have to tighten its belt and provide a reduced service to people who need more—not less.

PERSONAL SAFETY never seems to be concern of General de Gaulle as he mingles with French crowds. He accepts nosegays, clasps outstretched hands, rumples the hair of children while his bodyguards, trotting along behind, break into a sweat at the thought of dangers involved should an assasin make an attempt on his life.

UNSPOKEN FEAR IN FRANCE

'. . . If Something Should Happen to De Gaulle . . .'

By TOM A. CULLEN

PARIS (NEA) — "I am watching General de Gaulle on television, de Gaulle in the midst of a crowd. It is raining, and he is bare-headed. He smiles, grasps the proffered hands, rumples the hair of the children.

"Suppose someone were to murder him . . ."

The voice is that of Francois Mauriac, the Nobel Prize novelist, and it deals with the fear that fills most Frenchmen with horror, the fear that they hardly dare name. Suppose something were to happen to de Gaulle!

It could so easily happen. Hardly a day passes that some Frenchman is not shot down in the streets of Paris, as the Algerian war spreads to metropolitan France. Only a few days ago a high police official was machine-gunned by Algerian terrorists as he stepped from his office. A pedestrian who got in the way was likewise riddled with bullets.

Guards Sweat

This is France in 1960.

Yet Gen. de Gaulle mingles freely with the cheering crowds on his provincial tours with little regard for his personal safety. His bodyguards, trotting along behind, break into a sweat at the thought of the dangers incurred.

The general accepts the nosegays, clasps the outstretched hands. He seems to draw strength from his admirers. But the bodyguards worry whether the next bouquet will conceal a grenade.

Or else he stands on the town hall steps, a tall, proud, ungainly figure, his arms raised stiffly as if in benediction. A perfect target for the assassin's bullet.

'Here I Am . . .'

Of one of these occasions, the general has written:

"I wanted to say: Here I am, as God made me. As you see, I am your brother, among his own people, but also a leader who cannot compromise with his duty, nor bend beneath his burden."

But do all men in the crowd recognize him as their brother? What of the Algerian extremist, the Moslem with a burning hatred of the French? Some of these men have been sent to metropolitan France with orders to kill Algerian nationalists who are rivals of the FLN — and anyone else who gets in their way.

What of those other extremists, to be found at either end of the political arc, the extreme rightists and leftists who would like to see de Gaulle out of the way?

Charmed Life

And what of those other fanatics, the paratroopers, sworn in a blood brotherhood to uphold "Algerie Francaise," who view any other settlement of the Algerian war as treason? Weaned on violence in the Indo-China war, a few of these young paras are trigger-happy; they already speak of de Gaulle as a "traitor."

De Gaulle does not lack enemies. For the most part, they are small men, fanatic men, filled with envy or hatred.

Small wonder that the faces of de Gaulle's bodyguards turn ashen when he breaks from their surveillance and mingles with the crowd. Small wonder that Mauriac worries for de Gaulle's safety as he watches the general on television. Small wonder, too, that the average Frenchman doesn't sleep well nights.

Bitter Foes

The average Frenchman remembers that other attempt on de Gaulle's life shortly after Paris was liberated in 1944. On that occasion de Gaulle was fired on as he was about to enter Notre Dame Cathedral to attend a thanksgiving Mass. The other members of his entourage flattened themselves on the pavement, but not the general. The bearer of the Cross of Lorraine strode ahead as though nothing had happened, indeed as though his life were charmed.

But few Frenchmen have charmed lives in November, 1960, as the Algerian war enters its seventh year.

A Citroen veers around the corner on screaming tires. There is a rattle of machine-gun fire. A policeman falls, mortally wounded. Or it could be a woman or a child, for the bullets of the Algerian terrorists make no distinctions. All are victims or potential victims in this fratricidal warfare.

Frenchmen live with fear, a fear that hardly dare be named. Suppose something were to happen to de Gaulle.

MONTREAL (CP)—Aluminum Limited has declared a year-end extra dividend of 10 cents a share U.S. on the no par value shares of the company. The extra dividend will be payable Dec. 30 to shareholders of record at the close of business, Nov. 25, 1960.

'PROJECTS CULTURAL IMAGE'

Time-Life Claim Strongly Rebuked

OTTAWA (CP)—Time Magazine's Canadian-based operation was told Wednesday with emphatic underlining that its interpretation of freedom of the press is not an acceptable foundation for basing a defence against charges of inequitable competition.

M. Grattan O'Leary, chairman of a publications royal commission which is considering the impact of foreign competition on native Canadian periodicals, also gave Time International of Canada Limited a tongue-lashing for claims that the Time-Life publications family plays an important role in projecting the cultural image of Canada abroad.

He described the claims as "gross overstatement," the kind of argument that did nothing to help the case being presented by the weekly news magazine.

★ ★ ★

An analysis of the Canadian content of the U.S. edition of Time for 1959 showed, in column inches, a year's total of 40.26 pages devoted to Canadian matters.

This, Mr. O'Leary said, compared with an estimated 2,600 pages of editorial matter carried in the year.

Most of the items listed—Canadian letters to the editor were included in the count—were incidental to Canada, Mr. O'Leary said, and very brief.

★ ★ ★

Mr. O'Leary said he wondered, for instance, why a review of a biography of Alexander Graham Bell which appeared in the Canadian edition did not appear in the U.S.

Mr. Laybourne said he didn't know, but there were "dozens and dozens" of possible reasons.

"In projecting the Canadian image," Mr. O'Leary asked, "wouldn't you think the review was more important than Genevieve breaking her leg in Toronto?"

New Bishop Named After 10th Ballot

TRAIL, B.C. (CP)—Rev. Dr. Robert William Coleman, principal of Huron College at London, Ont., for the last eight years, Wednesday night was elected the fifth bishop of the Anglican Diocese of Kootenay.

The 123 priests, law officials and lay delegates at the electoral synod adjourned for supper after the ninth ballot and the clear-cut majority—necessary to elect a bishop—did not come about until the 10th ballot. Nineteen clergy and 44 lay votes were required.

Dr. Coleman, 44, succeeds Rt. Rev. Phillip Beattie of Kelowna who died last September after a five-month illness.

Names of the other 12 candidates for the bishopric were not released.

Dr. Coleman graduated from the University of Toronto in 1940 with his BA degree. He received his master's degree in 1943 and his Doctor of Divinity degree in 1951.

Made a deacon in 1942, he was named priest of Algoma in 1943; assistant priest at Sudbury from 1943 to 1944, and priest-in-charge there from 1944 to 1945.

He took post graduate work from 1945 to 1947 and then lectured from 1947 to 1949. He was Dean of Divinity at Bishop's College, Lennoxville, Que., 1950-52 and in 1952 was named principal of Huron College.

Dr. Coleman was in Toronto at the time of his election.

New Makeup Favored For Canada's UN Force

By DAVE McINTOSH
Canadian Press Staff Writer

OTTAWA (CP) — The army favors a new makeup for Canada's standby United Nations force, informants said today.

The army would prefer to keep in readiness for UN duty a force of technicians rather than an infantry battalion. The battalion now designated for UN duty is the 2nd Battalion, Royal Canadian Regiment, at London, Ont.

On three occasions—the Suez crisis of 1956, the Congo crisis of 1960 and the Indo-China armistice of 1954—the army has been called upon to provide technicians of various kinds instead of fighting troops.

This has given rise to plans to reconstitute Canada's UN standby force and it is understood the problem is being placed before Defence Minister Harkness.

SHORTEN CONGO TOUR

Meanwhile, it was learned that the tour of duty for Canadian soldiers serving with the UN force in the Congo will be six months instead of the normal year because of harsh climatic and other conditions. The tour of duty in Egypt and Indo-China is one year.

However, Congo rotation will depend to some extent on technicians available so that it is possible some soldiers may remain there eight or 10 months.

Only eight men have been evacuated from the Congo —three after beatings by the Congolese when they were mistaken for Belgians, four because of sickness and one because of a self-inflicted wound.

There now are approximately 250 Canadian soldiers and 25 RCAF personnel in the Congo.

Two army padres, one Roman Catholic and one Protestant, are en route to the Congo.

An RCAF airlift of Christmas parcels and dinners for Canadian armed forces personnel serving in Indo-China, the Middle East and the Congo will begin from Trenton, Ont., Friday.

To Resume Relations

AMMAN (Reuters) — Diplomatic relations will be resumed between Jordon and Iraq early next month, it was announced today. Diplomatic relations were broken off after the Iraqi revolution in 1958.

NORTH SAANICH OPPOSES ISSUE

North Saanich opponents to the $784,000 School District 63 bylaw are organizing to defeat the measure a third time when it goes to a vote Saturday.

Spokesman M. D. A. Darling said five ratepayers' organizations representing 2,700 voters have affiliated into a ratepayers' council to oppose the bylaw.

About 3,700 printed copies of an anti-bylaw statement by Mr. Darling have been distributed, he said.

Mr. Darling said there was "strong resentment" that school board members had declined to meet with the northern ratepayer groups to discuss the bylaw.

"We all realize that in District 63, like other school districts, there is a pressing seating problem," he said.

"But what is the use of perpetuating an outmoded system. If this bylaw is passed and there are no changes in the present set-up, it will be the same thing all over again in three years, only the bylaw will be for more money."

He said ratepayers object to "frills" in school buildings and the present provincial method of financing schools.

★ ★ ★

Organizations joining the campaign against the bylaw this time, Mr. Darling said, are: Deep Cove Property Owners' Association, North Sidney Property Owners' Association, Sidney Village Property Owners' Association, Ardmore and West Mt. Newton Property Owners' Association, and Mt. Newton and Central Saanich Property Owners' Association.

HEAVY VOTE EXPECTED IN SAANICH

Vital School Bylaw up 3rd Time

Close to 7,000 Saanich peninsula ratepayers will cast ballots Saturday in a crucial third vote on a $784,000 school bylaw.

Trustees of School District 63 (Saanich) today urged the voters to give the measure its necessary 60 per cent approval or face chaos in student accommodation.

At stake will be elimination of a swing-shift system in the high schools and possibility of a break-away move by the rural Saanich municipality component of the district.

The 8 a.m. to 8 p.m vote in 13 polling stations will be the third attempt by the school board to obtain approval for a building program to handle the record 2,825 student population which shows signs of continuing expansion. Similar bylaws were defeated last December and February.

WARNING GIVEN

Saanich Reeve George Chatterton warned that a third defeat would prompt him to try to pull rural Saanich out of the district to join School District 61 (Greater Victoria) in effort to obtain a fair deal for students.

Besides rural Saanich, District 63 includes Central Saanich, North Saanich and Sidney Village.

The by-law provides for construction of a $300,000 high school on Wesley Road, an annex to North Saanich High School and improvements to Royal Oak, Beaver Lake, Mount Newton, Saanichton and Sidney Elementary Schools.

The trustees issued statements pointing out that 620 pupils already are on half-day swing shifts and the problem will spread unless more classrooms are built.

Lack of space has resulted in children as young as six years having to catch school buses as early at 7:45 a.m. while others are getting 45 minutes below the minimum time required for classroom teaching.

The overcrowding situation also is costing taxpayers more money because of a greatly enlarged school bus program. Costs have risen from $10,000 to $25,000 annually for operating the buses under the swing system, the trustees' statement said.

The new classrooms proposed in the by-law would reduce the bus costs by providing accommodation for most pupils within walking distance.

Board vice-chairman R. Sinkinson also pointed out that rejecting the bylaw would not force the province into establishing a new system of financing schools.

The Saanich by-law represents only 4 per cent of the $20,000,000-worth of school debentures approved by ratepayers in other districts. Saanich ratepayers help pay for the programs in other districts through general provincial taxation but won't reap similar benefits unless the by-law is approved.

The provincial government will pay 75 per cent of the building program leaving the average ratepayer only an additional charge of $5 a year in taxes.

Inco Earnings Show Decline

NEW YORK (CP)—International Nickel Company of Canada Ltd. had net earnings in the three months ended Sept. 30 of $18,783,000, or 64 cents a share, compared with $19,831,000, or 68 cents, in the corresponding period last year.

Earnings in the nine months ended Sept. 30 were $62,685,000, or $2.14 a share, compared with $58,222,000, or $1.99, in the corresponding period of 1959.

U.K. TORIES SWEEP SIX BYELECTIONS

LONDON (Reuters)—The ruling Conservative party today completed a clean sweep of six byelections for vacant seats in the House of Commons.

All six seats had previously been held by the Conservatives. The returns from Wednesday's voting boosted Conservative representation in the House to 365. The Labor party has 254 members, the Liberals six and there is one Independent.

There still are four vacancies in the Commons, but one was being filled today in another byelection in the safe Labor seat of Ebbw Vale, formerly held by the late Aneurin Bevan.

The main feature of the byelections was the marked resurgence of the small middle-of-the-road Liberal party, which moved into second place in the results in four of the constituencies.

The closest result was in the Lancashire constituency of Bolton East, where Conservative Edwin Taylor won by only 641 votes over Laborite Robert Howrath.

8 CARD OF THANKS

May we express our thanks to the many friends who showed such great kindness to us during my wife's long illness. Especially are we grateful to Dr. Lockyer and his staff at the Cancer Clinic Drs. Mitchell, Trotter and Harvey; Canon Biddle, Canon Scott, to the nurse, Mrs. Dunstoon, who looked after my wife with such patience and loving care, also Mrs. Lausen and Mrs. Gow. May God's blessing be with you all.
—L. B. Robinson and the Wood Family.

Mr. Harold Raybone and family wish to extend our heartfelt thanks and appreciation for the acts of kindness, messages of sympathy and beautiful tributes received from friends in our sad bereavement in the loss of our beloved wife and mother. Special thanks to Rev. Canon Willis, all pallbearers and Sands Mortuary Limited.

9 IN MEMORIAM

HOLDSWORTH—In cherished and loving memory of a dear mother and Nana, Ethel Holdsworth, who passed away Nov. 17, 1959.
Her loving smile, her heart of gold,
The beautiful memories she left us all.
Softly these leaves of memory fall
Gently we gather and treasure them all.
Unseen, unheard, she is always near,
Still loved, still missed and very dear.
—In the garden of memory we meet each day. Sadly missed, Marjorie, Alf and Sandra.

HOLDSWORTH—In loving memory of our dear Mom, Ethel Holdsworth, who passed away Nov. 17, 1959.
"Never shall the one we love
From our memory fade away."
—Always remembered and sadly missed by Herman and Edythe, Leslie and Edna.

LENCH—In cherished and loving memory of my dear Mother, Mrs. Martha Lench, who passed away in Edmonton, Nov. 17, 1959.
A wonderful Mother you were to me,
Loving and kind in all your ways;
Your lovely smile and a heart of gold,
One who was better, God never made.
One in a million, that mother was you.
There's still an ache in my heart today
That countless years will never take away;
My eyes are dim as I whisper low,
Oh, darling Mother, how I miss you so.
For the days I do not think of you
Are very hard to find.
You know how I love you, and, yes, love you yet.
Though God took you from me,
I cannot forget.

LENCH—In loving memory of our Grandma, Mrs. Martha Lench, who passed away in Edmonton Nov. 17, 1959.
In memory we see her just the same,
As long as we live we will cherish her name;
Deep in our hearts she is living yet,
We loved her too much to ever forget.
—Sadly missed by Viola, Bill and family; Ronnie, Beverley and family.

By PHIL LEE, Times TV Editor

I SUPPOSE I ENJOY Bob Hope most when he selects a U.S. military base at which to stage his hour-long television show.

There are two reasons for this. First there is a certain nostalgia emanating from them as the cameras pick up the faces of the boys in uniform, a reminder of other days when we, too, used to hail visiting entertainers gleefully. Even if the brand of entertainment wasn't too good it at least provided a very welcome break in the normal routine of orders.

But as much as anything, I receive a tremendous sense of satisfaction from being allowed to view Uncle Sam's military bases themselves. They supply me with a sense of relief that someone on our side is sternly prepared for any eventuality.

For I am one of a generation who knows what happens when you try to speak with an umbrella to men who are in a position to speak with planes, tanks, cannons and all other accoutrements of war. Even while they are shaking your hand in agreement, speaking of peace and good fellowship through mouths wreathed with smiles, their generals are drawing up plans for attack, and if it can be a surprise attack so much the better.

Such men know only respect for power and that is why I, personally, believe that in strength lies our only hope of averting a war that might, conceivably, spell the end of civilization, at least as we understand it today.

With what modern Mars has to offer in the line of missiles, outer space satellites, around-the-world subs and so on, all armed with atomic and hydrogen warheads, a single surprise attack might be all that is needed. Next time there may not be time to "muddle through."

Somebody on our side has to be fully prepared, fully armed.

THIS TIME Hope's show was from the U.S. Air Force Academy, Colorado Springs, Colo., and surely all Canadians witnessing it were impressed with what looked like acres of these young cadets who are destined to be the leaders of military air progress in the America of tomorrow, their breath-taking planes and missiles and all else they are being trained in.

As for the show itself it was neither better nor worse than Hope's shows of this type. There was the skit about the commandant's daughter with the comic in the role of the high school football hero (possibly the funniest of the skits, the usual opening monologue that is as much Hope's hallmark as his ski nose, the local jokes and cracks at the staff, the food, etc., the singing of Kay Starr and Neile Adams and the voices of the Cadet Chorale. Steve McQueen proved sound as Hope's man-of-all-tricks.

In brief, if you enjoy Hope you undoubtedly enjoyed this.

BIRDS GROUND BIG AIRLINER, 108 ABOARD

BOSTON (UPI) — An Eastern Air Lines DC-8, with 108 persons aboard, was forced to halt its takeoff run at Logan airport today when birds were sucked into one of the engines.

Last Oct 4 an Eastern Air Lines Electra crashed on takeoff at the same airport, killing 62 of 72 persons aboard. Some investigators have blamed birds for that disaster.

Gowan Heads Government Workers Here

A new slate of officers for the Victoria branch of the B.C. Government Employees' Association has been chosen by acclamation.

Jack Gowan, of the attorney-general's department, is again president. He stepped in two months ago when president Lawrence G. Huck resigned.

ONE EACH

Nominations for the executive closed Tuesday, and only one name was put forward for each job, so there will be no election.

New members of the executive are Norman Richards, of the postal branch, vice-president, and Eric Fawcett of the Motor-vehicles branch, treasurer.

Richards was temporary vice-president when Gowan moved up in September and Fawcett took over as treasurer with the resignation in October of Kenneth Kidd.

Three Killed In Grinding Auto Crash

LONDON, Ont. (CP)—Three persons were killed Wednesday night when their car crashed into three oncoming cars on a highway curve 12 miles west of here.

They were identified as Robert Gordon McGilp of London, serving with the army at Camp Ipperwash; Lilian Sylvia Riley, 39, and Marybelle Riley, 28, both of Christina, Ont.

Two of the oncoming cars were driven by Windsor doctors returning from a medical convention.

Dr. Marian Tuszewski hurried over to the McGilp car, pried open the jammed door and found a man and a woman dead. The second woman was dead on arrival at hospital.

Early Surgery

BERLIN (AP) — Human skulls, believed to be about 3,700 years old and showing signs of surgery, have been found near Magdeburg in East Germany. Examination of the skulls showed their owners lived for several years after their operations.

Returning Officer.

ACROSS THE PROVINCE

Light Spots Seen in Drab Picture of Unemployment

From Times News Services

It says pulp and paper production and construction by government and industry remain high, while iron ore output should triple in 18 months as a result of a 22½-cent-a-ton cut in royalties.

Two thousand new jobs may be created by a proposed $30,000,000 investment in new iron mining and shipping facilities.

The NES says a new herring-fishing agreement in the offing may alleviate conditions in the fishing industry, suffering from the poorest salmon catch in years.

In the depressed mining industry, B.C.'s gold, copper and nickel producers are working at near capacity and construction of a new copper mill at Merritt is expected to start soon.

Cutting of 1,000,000 Christmas trees in the Kootenays is in full swing and will continue until mid-December.

However, normal winter cutbacks in harvesting and food processing, cattle raising and other agriculture have added to the unemployment rolls.

The NES says many coast and interior logging operators are planning winter shutdowns earlier than usual because of weakness in the demand for lumber.

FOUR FLEE PRISON

VANCOUVER—Four prisoners escaped from Oakalla prison farm in Burnaby Wednesday night as guards were transferring a group of about 70 prisoners from one section of the prison to another.

Two of the men were apprehended a short time later. Warden Hugh Christie said he believes one of the other two may have been injured when several shots were fired by guards.

SETTLEMENT HELD UP

VANCOUVER — The Canadian Fishing Company has refused to rehire 24 Indian fishermen whose dismissal is holding up final settlement of a dispute in the herring industry, Homer Stevens, secretary of the United Fishermen and Allied Workers' Union (Ind.) said Wednesday night.

The union and fishing companies have settled on herring prices but the UFAWU says it won't resume fishing until the Native Brotherhood of B.C., representing Indian fishermen, is ready to do so.

MURDER STORY BY PHONE

VANCOUVER — A police constable told an Assize Court jury Wednesday that a telephone call that brought police to the room where an elderly woman was beaten to death was made by the man charged with her murder.

Ex-vaudeville dancer Samuel Semple, 51, is charged in connection with the death of Mrs. Mina May Holmes, 73, on Sept. 4.

DISGUISE FAILED

VANCOUVER—A man who jumped through an office window 15 feet above ground level to escape RCMP narcotics squad officers was sentenced in police court Wednesday to nine months for breaking and entering.

Gilbert St. Denis, 32, who made his leap for freedom clad only in a shirt, was found later in a doctor's office dressed in a nurse's clothing.

SUNDAY WORK PROBE

VANCOUVER — The Lord's Day Alliance plans a probe into work on Sundays in business and industry.

Rev. H. T. Allen, head of the alliance in B.C., says main targets of the investigation will include pulp mills and pipeline companies which operate seven days a week.

Aim of the province-wide probe was to wipe out all unnecessary work on Sundays, if necessary through court action.

NEW SHELL CASING BURNS INSIDE GUN

CHICAGO (AP)—Researchers say they have made a major advance in ammunition design by developing a light, inexpensive shell casing which completely burns inside the gun when fired. Ultimately, they say, their development—the result of five years of research—may do away completely with heavy, expensive brass shell cases used in field and naval guns.

But, Armour Research Foundation scientists said Wednesday night, they developed the casing primarily for use in tank guns. Two problems of tank fighting, they said, have been the noxious gases released inside the turret after each firing and the hot spent gases which littered the tank's interior.

The new casing completely disintegrates inside the gun chamber and releases no gases, they said, and is 10 times lighter than the brass version.

Composition of the new casing is secret.

Grain Growers' Stand In Strike Endorsed

WINNIPEG (CP) — The stand of United Grain Growers against the pay demands of West Coast grain handlers was endorsed without a dissenting vote today by 300 delegates at the UGG annual meeting.

A press release concerning the closed meeting said the resolution "endorsed and confirmed" the action of the UGG board of directors in resisting the wage demands of the labor Unions.

J. E. Brownlee, president of United Grain Growers, told delegates from the three prairie provinces that the unions tried to time the strike to coincide with the time when the farmers would be shipping a maximum of grain.

VANCOUVER (CP)—Negotiations continued in Vancouver's eight-day-old grain handlers' strike today with no signs of an immediate settlement.

F. Craig Munroe, federal mediator, met separately Wednesday with representatives of the 325 striking grain workers and five elevator companies.

He said he would attend a joint meeting of the two parties today.

The grain handlers, members of the International Union of Brewery, Flour, Cereal, Soft Drink and Distillery Workers' union CLC are demanding a 14 per cent wage increase in a two-year contract. They now get $2.01½ an hour plus a cost-of-living bonus of 11 cents an hour.

The companies first accepted, then rejected a conciliation board recommendation for either a 5 per cent wage increase or a 7½ per cent increase incorporating the cost-of-living bonus.

Services Back As Lakehead Strike Ends

FORT WILLIAM (CP) — Public utilities services returned to normal today in the lakehead cities of Fort William and Port Arthur following settlement Wednesday night of the second and final stage of a week-long strike by civic telephone service men in the two cities.

Mayor John O. Booth announced that Fort William had reached an agreement in its wage dispute with Local 339 of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers (CLC).

The announcement came 24 hours after a similar accord had been reached between Port Arthur and 29 telephone service men and 65 hydro employees—members of the same local.

The strike started Wednesday when the telephone workers left their jobs after negotiations between the two cities and the union broke down. The wage discussions had been going on for 19 months.

HYDRO MEN JOINED

The Port Arthur hydro workers joined the strike Saturday on grounds that a wage agreement they already had made with the city was not applied to 10 per cent of eligible employees.

During the strike, picketing by the IBEW in Fort William kept 41 non-striking hydro workers from working, tied up street cleaning and garbage removal services for four days and halted bus service all day Wednesday.

In Port Arthur, IBEW picketing stopped bus service all day Tuesday.

The telephone workers in both cities received the same wage terms. They will receive a 2½-per-cent increase in wages in each of 1959, 1960 and 1961.

Grumpy TV Commentator Harding Dead

LONDON (CP) — Gilbert Harding, a radio and television personality whose crusty nature gave him a national reputation both in Britain and Canada, died Wednesday night at 53.

He collapsed on the street outside a studio in which he had just made a recording for the British Broadcasting Corporation.

Portly and mustached, Harding became Britain's best-known bad-tempered man with his gruff and grumpy approach to television panel games.

His bad temper was also known in Canada, where he was a temporary resident twice. He insulted Canadian cities, Canadian food and in his autobiography published six years ago headed one section with the words "culturally Canada stinks."

Harding, a graduate of Cambridge University, made his radio debut at the age of 32 after pounding the beat as a policeman, working as a schoolmaster and as a newspaper correspondent.

Vital Leukemia Discovery Made By Penn Biologist

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — A University of Pennsylvania biologist says he has found evidence in seven cases of chronic granulocytic leukemia that one of the smaller chromosomes in diseased cells was structurally abnormal.

"This change may be the cause of the malignant nature within these cells," Dr. Peter Nowell told the National Academy of Sciences Wednesday at its autumn meeting here.

Chromosomes are tiny packets within cells which contain genes, bearers of hereditary traits. There is no known way at present of correcting structural deficiencies within the chromosomes.

Chronic granulocytic leukemia afflicts about 30 per cent of all leukemia victims.

Impaired Fine $200

DUNCAN—Fine of $200 and licence suspension of six months was imposed in magistrate's court Wednesday on Frank Wilkin, 39, of Lake Cowichan, on a charge of impaired driving.

Contract Renewed

NANAIMO — Six-month renewal of the contract to operate the Nanaimo-Gabriola ferry service has been approved by the provincial cabinet. The contract is with Herbert C. R. Davis.

100 REPRESENTATIVES EXPECTED

'Stop the Rot' Popular

About 100 representatives of various community organizations are expected to attend Friday's citizen conference on urban renewal.

Sponsored by the Victoria branch of the Community Planning Association of Canada, the public meeting will be held in the Empress Hotel.

Theme of the meeting will be "Stop the Rot."

The conference, first of its kind here, already has raised some controversy with numerous persons expressing disbelief that a number of photo illustrations in a conference brochure were taken in Victoria. The photos show typical slum scenes.

But Brahm Wiesman, managing director of the Capital Region Planning Board, insisted that he took all eight photos in the city.

Mr. Wiesman, currently heading a survey of slum conditions here under a federal-civic $25,000 study program, said that he would gladly conduct a "seeing-is-believing" tour of blighted areas here for persons who doubted the pictures.

LEADER of the South African opposition party, Sir de Villiers, flew to New York from London today for start of five-day visit to United States and Canada "to listen, learn and look at things."

U.S. Aiding Rebels?

VIENTIANE, Laos (AP) — Premier Prince Souvanna Phouma accused the United States today of illegally supporting the rebel right-wing regime in the Laos' three-way civil war.

Three Whites Ravish Negro Mother, Child

YAZOO CITY, Miss. (AP)—Three white men broke into a Negro home near Yazoo City early Wednesday and raped a 42-year-old mother and her five-year-old daughter, Yazoo County officers reported.

District Attorney Bill Waller said officers arrested three men and charged them with rape. Their names were not released because of the racial aspects.

Waller said the three broke into the house about 2 a.m. After three teen-aged children fled, one man forced the mother outside to a car and the child was attacked in the house.

Waller said one man was arrested about daybreak in the car with the woman and another was picked up on a highway near the house about an hour later. The third was caught later in the day.

In Mississippi, rape carries only two penalties, life imprisonment or death.

TWINS BORN STATES APART

CORRY, Pa. (AP) — Mrs. Robert Donell, 31-year-old farmer's wife, gave birth to twin boys—one in New York State and the other in Pennsylvania.

It happened this way:

Mrs. Donell, mother of seven children, was alone Tuesday when the first baby arrived. Just after the birth her husband returned to their Clymer, N.Y., farm.

He called for a doctor and an ambulance. Mrs. Donell was taken to Corry General Hospital, eight miles south of Clymer, where an hour later she had her second baby.

MISS CANADA WOULD RATHER ACT

Beauty Queen 'Fed Up'

LONDON (CP)—At the age of 21, Canada's Danica d'Hondt is fed up with being a beauty queen.

Mind you, no sour grapes. She has won her fair share of contests. It's just that you get tired of being a clothes-horse.

"Being a beauty queen is rather like being a model," she told a reporter. "Apart from being reasonably nice to look at, all you need is a strong pair of ankles."

The tall, blonde, grey-eyed beauty, who has lived in Montreal, Vancouver and Toronto, was interviewed after surviving to the last 15 among some 40 competitors in the Miss World contest, held recently in London.

The English-born Miss d'Hondt has won two contests in Canada — Miss Canada of 1960 and Miss Maple Leaf of 1961.

DANICA D'HONDT
. . . strong ankles help

But she would rather act. She has appeared in films, on television and on the stage.

"Often I have to go to the United States to work. There just aren't enough acting jobs in Canada."

She supplements her income with modelling and writing.

She has done some journalistic work in Toronto, and would like eventually to write and direct plays. She is engaged to American painter Paul de Kalb, who now lives in Toronto. The wedding date has not been set.

On her return from Britain she will spend some time with her family in Vancouver, and shortly afterwards will begin rehearsals in Montreal for a new production of The Marriage-Go-Round.

FIRST CLARINET with the Victoria Symphony Orchestra and solo clarinettist in the Naval Band of HMCS Naden, Barry Moncur will be one of the featured artists at the November concert of Victoria Musical Art Society. He will play clarinet and piano numbers with Faith Webster on the program scheduled for Wednesday at 8.30 p.m. at Holyrood House. Invited to study at the Royal Conservatory of Music by Dr. Boyd Neel, Mr. Moncur received wide recognition when he was given a scholarship to play in the Stratford Festival Orchestra.

Teachers, Trustees Near Salary Showdown in B.C.

A record 61 school districts will see the question decided by arbitration, a survey indicated today.

TRUSTEES TO BLAME?

Out of these, five made conditional agreements to accept the awards handed down by arbitrators in neighboring districts.

Some observers feel the B.C. School Trustees Association convention's call for a general "hold-the-line" policy has led to the impasse in some 75 per cent of the province's school districts.

Many trustees have contended the only solution to recurring salary skirmishes is legislation that would allow school boards to combine in establishing a provincial salary scale.

Seven school districts signed agreements during normal negotiations and 14 more during the 15-day automatic conciliation period that expired Wednesday.

Qualicum (.5 per cent), Alert Bay (2.9), Mission (2.2), Burnaby (1.5), Howe Sound (1.3) and Maple Ridge 2.2 per cent).

Bad Meat Charged

LONDON (AP)— The Daily Express calls on the government today to slash imports of Argentine meat into Britain. "It is believed that diseased imports from the Argentine have caused the foot-and-mouth outbreak which is sweeping Britain," the newspaper says editorially. "Already 18,000 British cattle have had to be destroyed."

AILING MOTHER WEEPS IN COURT

Teller Stole to Pay Bills

HAMILTON, Ont. (UPI) — A tearful, 21-year-old former bank teller testified Wednesday that she embezzled $7,750 from her bank to pay her mother's hospital bills.

The ex-teller, Darlene Burns, was remanded to jail for sentence for stealing the money from the Toronto-Dominion Bank over a three-year period.

Her mother, Mrs. Gordon Burns, who walks with the aid of two canes, also wept and had to be assisted from the courtroom.

Harry Crawford, manager of the bank branch, said Miss Burns confessed before auditors turned up the shortages.

A psychiatrist, Dr. Harvey Blair, testified that the young woman had been handling the family's finances since the age of 12 when she first started working, selling fruit.

Before the hearing Miss Burns had been free on $5,000 bail.

Dr. Blair said she had a "terrible fear" of being imprisoned.

B.C. Pipeline To Carry Oil In December

B.C.'s first major oil pipeline from the Peace River country will be ready to deliver crude oil to Dawson Creek refineries next month.

Transport Minister Lyle Wicks said Wednesday he expects completion before Christmas of the first phase of an overall $6,000,000 project by Trans-Prairie Pipelines Ltd.

This will be the line from Boundary Lake to Taylor, with a feeder to Dawson Creek.

Major portion of the entire 130-mile project, a 75-mile line from Milligan Creek to Taylor, has not yet been started.

Mr. Wicks said the crude oil will be moved on the PGE railway to Vancouver.

New Dimension Added to College Studies By Pupil

A new dimension to college studies has been added through the efforts of a student, by way of films which illustrate plays and novels studied in first and second year English courses.

Pacific Film Society, a group organized by student Garry Nixon but not affiliated with the university, plans to present films of "Othello", "The School for Scandal" and "Death of a Salesman" for first-year students and "Hamlet" and "Pride and Prejudice" for sophomores. Showings will be at the Fox Theatre in the next few weeks.

Bennett Buss Honors 'Servant'

A kiss in public from Premier W. A. C. Bennett honored 25 years service Wednesday by the woman who they say "took over the government" in her "reign" as a secretary in the attorney-general's department.

Mrs. C. F. Farquharson was kissed on the cheek by the premier at a luncheon for 27 civil servants who have completed a quarter-century of service.

Premier Bennett presented each of the 27 with a framed certificate. Introducing each recipient was Dr. H. M. Morrison, chairman of the civil service commission.

Those who received certificates included: J. W. Akins, finance department; R. G. Carley, Queen's printer; Miss M. E. K. Crummy, education department; R. B. Ditchburn, purchasing commission; Evelyn M. Eley, secretary to Works Minister W. N. Chant; W. N. Galbraith, highways department; Miss E. M. George, labor department; G. H. Hallett, finance department; W. R. Jeffs, highways; Miss E. A. Kay, attorney-general's department; R. J. E. Ray, finance; C. H. Kreetzer, highways; G. G. Langley, Queen's printer; George Lindsay, superintendent of the motor vehicles branch; L. F. McRae, lands service; R. H. McCrimmon, mines department; Miss M. G. Mossey, highways; G. C. Page, health branch; G. A. Playfair, forest service; Dr. W. A. Plenderleith, education; P. F. Ramsay, finance; L. F. Swannell, lands, forest service; Miss M. R. Taylor, secretary to Provincial Secretary Wesley Black; Miss G. A. Watkins, secretary to deputy finance minister; E. C. Webster, highways, and H. W. Harding, finance.

Unaware Gun Fired Fatal Shot, Woman Tells Quebec Jury

ST. JEROME, Que. (UPI)—Socialite Mrs. Beverley Ann Van Horne Weary, facing a manslaughter charge in connection with the fatal shooting of Clifford Bruce Bridger at her St. Adele home during a long-drawn-out drinking party last May 15, said in the statement Wednesday that she was not even aware at the time that the rifle she was carrying had discharged.

She said she was unaware that Bridger was on the wet porch when she slipped while going to investigate a noise which she thought was that of an approaching car.

Gov't Leases Stores For Jobless Training

Four stores will be leased by the provincial government for classes to improve education and skills of the unemployed.

The stores, on Menzies St., with 4,000 square feet of floor space, will be altered to suit requirements of the education department for classes in commerce, nursing and general education starting in January.

The program of education to beat unemployment was announced in October. Education Minister Peterson said then he hoped it would be under way in November.

MOBUTU SHOWS OFF

LEOPOLDVILLE, The Congo (UPI)—Col. Joseph Mobutu proudly paraded 5,000 Congolese troops with fixed bayonets through Leopoldville today in a demonstration of his control over the army and the Congo itself.

Leopoldville provincial police, who have defied Mobutu in the past, kept order among the 100,000 cheering spectators.

SHY AWAY FROM LABOR

Civil Servants Heed 'Dabbling' Warning

Victoria civil servants Wednesday made it clear they will vote against affiliating with labor next month by dropping out of the Victoria Labor Council.

The local branch of the B.C. Government Employees' Association cut its local affiliation because the VLC "has decided to take direct action in the forthcoming federal by-election" (in Esquimalt-Saanich), said Jack Gowan, president of the 1,800-member civil service branch.

Motor Vehicles Superintendent George Lindsay said Wednesday civil servants would be placing themselves in jeopardy by political connections.

A letter to the labor council Wednesday night gave formal notice of the Victoria civil servants' decision. Mr. Gowan said the move was approved by members at a meeting Monday.

BCGEA general secretay E. P. O'Connor said in Vancouver today it is a local matter. "The branches themselves decided to affiliate with labor councils."

However, the Victoria decision certainly shows, say officials, how the branch will vote Dec. 15 when all 11,000 BCGEA members decide whether or not to affiliate with the B.C. Federation of Labor.

This affiliation was cut when the provincial government stopped payroll deductions of BCGEA dues Oct. 11.

Civil service members expect the government to reinstate the checkoff if the vote next month is for disaffiliation.

Mr. Lindsay's statement came at a luncheon Wednesday for 25-year civil servants.

Allegiance Can Lead to Discharge

"I have been fearful recently that we of the civil service are placing ourselves in jeopardy probably to the extent of losing the recognition and advantages we have received over the years," Lindsay said.

Mr. Lindsay replied to a chairman's speech by Provincial Secretary Wesley Black who praised "truly good and faithful servants."

Mr. Lindsay said civil servants in other provinces and the U.S. had political connections. He referred to this year's election in Quebec where the Union Nationale party was ousted by the Liberals and the over-

LONE GUNMAN TAKES PAYROLL IN VANCOUVER

VANCOUVER (CP)—A lone armed bandit kidnapped two soft drink company employees today and robbed them of an $8,600 payroll they had just picked up from a bank.

Wayne Fisk, 22, and Dave Burn, clerk and cashier of the Coca Cola plant in the suburb of Kitsilano, said the armed man slipped in beside them just as they were prepared to pull away in a truck from the bank.

7 Charged With Fraud, Bribery

NORANDA, Que. (CP)—Charges of fraud and bribery have been lodged against seven men, including the defeated Progressive Conservative candidate for Villeneuve in the last two federal general elections, following an RCMP investigation into government public works projects.

Debre in Big Gamble On Nuclear Proposal

PARIS (Reuters) — Prime Minister Michel Debre tonight staked the life of his government—for a second time—on National Assembly approval of the plan to build France's independent nuclear striking force.

The government move came after rejection of the 12,000,000,000 new francs (about $24,000,000) five-year program by the Senate and failure of a compromise bid by a joint committee of both Houses.

Under the constitution the Assembly has the last word on a disputed bill. The controversial strike force project was the subject of an opposition censure motion against the government which was defeated in the National Assembly Oct. 25.

CHESTER WEGER

BUNGLED PURSE-SNATCHING

Dishwasher Confesses To Killing Three Women

OTTAWA, Ill. (AP)—A sobbing dishwasher told authorities today that he killed the wives of three Chicago business executives in a canyon at Starved Rock State Park after a bungled purse-snatching attempt.

Sheriff Ray Eutsey said the confession was given by Chester Otis Weger, 21-year-old father of two youngsters, who was employed in the park lodge kitchen.

The victims, slain March 14, were Mrs. Lillian Oetting, 50; Mrs. Mildred Lindquist, 50, and Mrs. Frances Murphy, 47, who lived in Riverside, a Chicago suburb.

Hundreds of men were questioned in a widespread eight-month investigation to solve the mystery surrounding the brutal clubbing of the white women.

Eutsey said Weger had been a special object of interest from the outset because he had been quizzed in two robberies at nearby Deer Park in 1959.

What he snatched was a camera Mrs. Murphy was carrying. The strap broke. Realizing that he had failed to get money, Weger hesitated.

PLEAS WITH VICTIMS

He said he pleaded with the three women to return up the canyon and give him an opportunity to flee. At length, they consented and walked back toward the canyon's dead end.

During the re-enactment, Weger said he followed the women, still intent upon getting money, herded them into the cave. Then:

"I tied them so they wouldn't follow me. The little one (Mrs. Murphy) raised her hand to hit me. When I started back, she came after me on the path. I thought she was tied.

"She hit me on the back of the head with binoculars. I reached for the club as she hit me, and I turned and struck her on the back of the head."

The club was a length of tree limb.

TRIED TO SCRATCH HIM

He said Mrs. Murphy fell. "Her eyes were closed. I carried her back to the cave. The two women in the cave managed to get up. One tried to scratch me; I don't know which one.

"I'd laid the club down, but I picked it up and hit them so they couldn't identify me. They lay back. I kept striking them. Then I looked up and Mrs. Murphy came to. I thought I had killed her. I thought she was dead."

He clubbed Mrs. Murphy again, he said.

We won't know th' value o' th' throne speech till we see how much gits thrown back.

Amendments to the Civil Service Act, the Immigration Act, the Canada Shipping Act, and the Penitentiaries Act.

Enlargement of the tariff board, along with a revision in the definition in the customs tariffs of goods of a class or kind made in Canada.

Proposals Heard By Parliament

OTTAWA (CP) — A wide-ranging attack on Canada's unemployment and other economic problems, including presentation of a pre-Christmas baby budget, was signalled by the government at today's opening of the new session of Parliament.

Measures to encourage greater Canadian ownership of the country's industry and resources, and a new program of government guaranteed loans to small business will be part of the government's new legislative program for the session set out in the speech from the throne.

Improvements in National Housing Act mortgage terms, a broadening of the housing program and added federal help for vocational training of displaced workers and others also were forecast in the government written throne speech, read at the formal opening ceremony in the Senate by Governor-General Vanier.

On another front, the gov*ernment disclosed plans to* alter the law dealing with the death penalty for murder. Informed speculation was that this may abolish the death penalty for some types of murder while retaining the supreme penalty for other types, such as premeditated slayings.

Government encouragement of amateur athletics also was forecast — a move which has been urged by many persons critical of Canada's low standing in international competitions.

A new attack will be made on water pollution using federal loans and grants, and a "comprehensive" program of rural rehabilitation and development will be made available to provinces and local organizations wanting to co-operate.

New Railway Developments Planned

"Several" new railway development projects are in the works, including a CNR line to a new mining area near Mattagami Lake in northwest Quebec and a rail line to tap a large base metal deposit at Pine Point on Great Slave Lake in the Northwest Territories. It will start from the railhead of Grimshaw in Alberta's Peace River country.

The throne speech made no reference to unemployment—expected to be a major debating topic of the session.

It indicated there will be a transfusion of federal money into the dwindling unemployment insurance fund—$319,476,000 at Sept. 30 compared with its peak at more than $900,000,000 in 1956 plus legislation to "correct abuses which have developed" in the operation of the insurance plan.

In a brief review of the economic situation, the throne speech said foreign trade is at a record level, more Canadians have been employed this year than ever before and labor income is at "an all-time high."

But it said the government recognizes the need of continuing economic expansion fast enough to provide jobs for the record numbers now entering

Ike Sends Forces To Latin America

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP)—President Eisenhower has ordered U.S. Navy warships and air units to help Guatemala and Nicaragua "seek out and prevent" any *Communist-directed attack on these countries if it be*comes necessary.

The White House reported the warships, including an aircraft carrier, are "now on the high seas" to carry out this mission.

Eisenhower acted, the White House said, in answer to written requests from the Guatemalan and Nicaraguan governments for such American help.

NO MARINES ABOARD

White House Press Secretary James Hagerty, who announced Eisenhower's decision, said that as far as he knew there were no U.S. marines aboard the ships sent into the Caribbean area.

Hagerty strongly hinted—but declined to say specifically—that the warships would, if necessary, go into action to repel any attack from Cuba.

CRACKDOWN ON RADIO 'CONTESTS'

OTTAWA (CP)—The Board of Broadcast Governors said today it proposes to amend its radio station regulations to limit promotional contests, alter the timing of advertisements, "induce greater program choice for listeners" and increase Canadian content.

The governors' intentions will be open to debate at a public hearing opening in Ottawa Nov. 29. Specific amendments will be proposed later and be made subject to a second hearing.

The statement did not indicate any concrete BBG plan to cope with Canadian content on radio stations. But it said many stations are "making little effort to build up programs of Canadian content and character."

Two Plotters Freed

PARIS (Reuters) — A military court today announced the release on provisional liberty of R. Jean-Claude Perez and Jean-Marie Demarquet, *two leading figures in the "Al*giers plot" trial.

JOINS CCF CAUCUSES . . . BUT NOT STRATEGY

OTTAWA (CP) — Walter Pitman, 31, New Party member of Parliament for Peterborough, Ont., said today he probably will attend CCF party caucuses but does not intend to join the CCF members in their closed strategy sessions.

Mr. Pitman, the first New Party member of the Commons, was sworn in as an MP by commons clerk Leon J. Raymond. Hazen Argue, CCF national leader, and Stanley Knowles, vice-president of the Canadian Labor Congress, attended the ceremony.

the labor force and for those displaced from jobs by automation.

It said new government legislation will be "designed to increase immediate employment opportunities" and will constitute "a large further instalment in the long-range program of national development."

The announcement that Finance Minister Fleming will present "a supplementary budget" before Christmas gave no further details.

Baby Budget Details Withheld

The last time such a baby budget was presented was in September of 1957 after the Progressive Conservatives took office in June that year, when social security payments were boosted and taxes cut by a total $176,000,000 a year in a program aimed at offsetting an economic slump.

Conceivably, however, the announced incentives to Canadian investment in the country's industry and resources could take the form of tax changes.

As well, a forecast of legislation to enlarge the investment powers of insurance companies might take them into the field of investments in common stocks. This would be one way of putting Canadian savings into such investments.

Other indicated legislation will require disclosure of "information"—presumably financial reports—by foreign-controlled business and labor organizations.

The forecast program of government-guaranteed bank loans to small businesses is aimed at financing additions and improvements to plant and equipment.

The speech said these additional medium-term credit facilities will enable many business projects to start this winter "providing substantial additional employment."

Slum Improvement Loans Broadened

The vocational training legislation, besides providing increased federal aid to provincial programs, would provide federal capital grants of 75 per cent of construction costs on new vocational schools spent up to March 31, 1963.

However, it said that Central Mortgage and Housing Corporation, the government's housing agency, will be moving into two new fields.

One will involve direct CMHC loans for construction of university student residences. The other will permit the purchase, improvement and rental of existing homes as part of the present slum-improvement program. That program now is limited to purchasing and clearing of blighted slum areas and the building of new rental housing.

The five-member tariff board will be enlarged and empowered to sit in two panels in a move to speed up review and modernization of Canada's customs tariff structure.

Larger Tariff Board, New Powers

Also forecast is a revision of the tariff definition of goods "of a class or kind made in Canada." This definition is part of the policy of granting lower tariffs on imports not competitive with Canadian-made products.

The speech confirmed Prime Minister Diefenbaker's announced intention to set up a productivity council. Purpose of the council, an advisory body, would be to strengthen Canada's competitive position in export and domestic markets by improving industrial productivity. Council membership would include representatives of industry, labor, agriculture and other primary producers and government scientists.

Looking well ahead, the government said it will seek renewal of the present federal grants for hospital construction for a further five years after the expiry of the present program in March, 1963.

The speech gave no indication of any policy decision to obtain nuclear warheads for Canada's Bomarc anti-aircraft missiles and other weapons. It said merely that Parliament will be asked to maintain forces "adequate to meet Canada's defence obligations."

Meanwhile the government would continue "unremitting efforts" to achieve progress in controlled world disarmament.

Approval of Columbia Project Asked

The speech announced approval will be sought for "a number of major projects" including Columbia River power development in British Columbia, a floodway at Winnipeg to divert waters of the Red and Assiniboine Rivers, and conservation projects on the upper Thames River in southwest Ontario.

It referred to this year's two Dominion-provincial tax conferences on a new tax deal to succeed the present tax-rental arrangements that expire on March 31, 1962.

"Further exchanges of views will take place," it said, and Parliament would be asked "in due course" to approve a new tax arrangement.

The proposed new legislation dealing with capital punishment would also deal with treatment of criminal sexual psychopaths. The Criminal Code now provides indefinite detention for such offenders.

Revision of three major statutes were forecast: the Civil Service Act, the Immigration Act and the Penitentiaries Act. Changes in the Penitentiaries Act would incorporate the government's new penal reform policies. The Canada Shipping Act also will be amended.

"It meant just this: of the so-called civil servants of these governments who had entered positions of the body politic in the defeat of their party over 50 per cent were discharged."

He called on all civil service seniors:

"Warn your juniors and others you come into contact with that our adantages are great compared to what others are receiving elsewhere.

"Let us not give consideration to anything but loyalty to our government which has been to us just at all times."

He quoted Provincial Secretary Black as saying in the legislature B.C. had "one of the better civil services within the Dominion of Canada."

Rebels Flee

GUATEMALA CITY (AP) —The last of the rebels against the government of President Miguel Ydigoras were reported to be in flight today in eastern Guatemala.

The army announced Wednesday night that the insurgents deserted their last stronghold, the port of Puerto Barrios, and took to their heels with parachute troopers in pursuit. The government offered $50 for the capture of every rebel.

DALY QUITS TOP TV POST

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

NEW YORK (AP) — John Daly's resignation as vice-president of the ABC's news and public affairs department spotlights the growing importance of "information"—as opposed to entertainment—in today's network programming.

Daly has served the network for seven years as its chief news and public affairs executive, top commentator and newscaster. Until the political conventions last summer, he drew nothing but bouquets for the way he ran his department.

It was Daly who rigidly enforced the policy that all programs in the areas of news and public affairs must be supervised and controlled by the news and public affairs department. NBC and CBS also follow such a policy.

FUMED AT SHIFTING

The What's My Line? host has been increasingly unhappy over ABC's attitude toward news coverage. He fumed when the network moved news broadcasts around to accommodate paid political broadcasts. He made no secret of his unhappiness when the network first refused to push its election night coverage forward to match the other two networks.

JOHN DALY
. . . won't compromise

FILM NOT SEEN

The break came when he learned that ABC planned to show on its Closeup program Dec. 7 a film about Cuba called Yanqui, No, which was made by Robert Drew, a producer for the broadcast division of Time Incorporated, which owns four stations under an arrangement by Drew's employer. Daly said that as of late Wednesday, no one in the ABC news department had "seen a foot of the Cuban film."

News and public information shows are the programs on which much of a network's prestige and repuation are built—and they are the programs TV's spokesmen brag about when selling the whole medium.

Integration Halt Asked, Racial Violence Fades

NEW ORLEANS (UPI)—Racial violence faded in the New Orleans school integration dispute today, but white pupils almost completely boycotted two integrated schools and the school board asked U.S. Dist. Judge Skelly Wright to suspend his integration order.

The segregationist Louisiana legislature, meeting in special session at Baton Rouge, adopted a resolution to ask president-elect Kennedy for his opinion of "judicial tyranny" imposed upon Louisiana by Wright's court.

Racial violence lasted more than 250 hours in New Orleans and police arrested 250 persons, both white and Negro. Violence faded shortly before dawn.

The uproar was precipitated by four six-year-old Negro girls entering two white schools: McDonogh No. 19 and William Frantz Elementary.

This was their fourth day in formerly all-white schools and for a time it looked as if McDonogh, which three of the Negro girls are attending, would be completely boycotted by its 475 white pupils.

But one white pupil finally went into a side entrance at McDonogh. She was the only one. Four white pupils went to William Frantz with one Negro girl. William Frantz normally has 576 white pupils.

Eisenhower Keeping 'In Close Touch'

The school board asked Wright to vacate his integration order because of the boycotts. Wright set a hearing for 11 a.m. (EST), Friday.

Presidential press secretary James C. Hagerty said in Augusta, Ga., that he knows of no plan of the president to send U.S. troops into New Orleans. But Hagerty said President Eisenhower is keeping in close touch with the situation.

INTEGRATION

State police showed up at William Frantz for the first time since the state legislature tried to use them to stop integration Monday.

New Orleans police superintendent Joseph Giarrusso said the 250 arrests were made between 8 p.m. (EST) Wednesday, and 4 a.m. today. Loitering cases totaled 194, charges of carrying concealed weapons were lodged against 29 persons, and 27 were booked on charges of malicious mischief.

Carloads of Negroes roamed the city streets shooting wildly at white pedestrians, and an explosive airplane rocket was hurled on the lawn of a white family from a speeding car.

About 15 persons were injured in the violence Wednesday night.

Police deactivated the airplane rocket before it could explode. Crosses were burned in at least two sections of the city, one by whites and one by Negroes.

GUN SHOTS REVERBERATE IN MONTREAL

MONTREAL (CP)—A gunman early today pumped at least four shots into a car carrying three night club waiters in the east-end. One was slightly hurt.

Their vehicle was stopped for a traffic light when another vehicle pulled up alongside and the gunman opened up.

The motive for the shooting was not yet known.

Ile aux Coudres in the St. Lawrence River 65 miles below Quebec, was the scene of the first Roman Catholic Mass celebrated on Canadian soil, in 1535.

Trade Unions Urge Probe of Strikers

QUEBEC (CP) — The Confederation of National Trade Unions suggested today that a royal commission set up to look into the administration of the Union Nationale party should investigate two violence-ridden strikes.

In a brief to the present Liberal government, which ousted the Union Nationale in an election last June, the confederation said it is "particularly interested in actions of the Quebec Provincial Police during the strikes.

The walkouts were by mine workers at Asbestos, Que., in 1949 and 1950 and by textile workers at Louiseville, Que., in 1949 and 1950. The workers' unions in both strikes were affiliated with the confederation, then known as the Canadian and Catholic Confederation of Labor.

No starting date for the commission has been announced.

TRAFFIC FINES

Harold Carpenter, 130 Beechwood, $20 for changing lanes when unsafe.

CALIFORNIA GOES TO NIXON

WASHINGTON (AP) — More than a week after the election, Vice-President Richard Nixon has captured California's 32 electoral votes. Absentee ballots did it, and helped to shave President-elect John Kennedy's nation-wide popular vote lead to less than 200,000.

But even without Nixon's home state, Kennedy still is assured of 300 electoral votes, 31 more than the minimum needed for election. Nixon now has a total of 223 electoral votes.

The count of absentee ballots — still 20,000 short of complete—threw California into Nixon's column Wednesday. In the regular vote count, Kennedy had led by 34,368 in California. The absentee votes turned that into a lead of 13,160 votes for Nixon.

The remaining uncounted California ballots are mostly in the Republican strongholds of San Diego and Orange counties.

CPR TO RUN VICTORIA-SEATTLE SERVICE ONLY

100-Year Steamer Service Comes to End

The long-rumored cessation of direct transportation from Victoria to Vancouver became fact Wednesday with an official announcement that the CPR will drop this service, even in summer months.

The key word in passenger travel to Vancouver is now "via"—via Patricia Bay airport, or ferry terminals at Swartz Bay, Departure Bay, or Nanaimo.

End of direct steamer connection between Victoria and the lower B.C. mainland, which began 100 years ago, came as no surprise to those who have watched passenger revenues dwindle in the race of increasing competition and changing modes of travel.

The CPR will continue to operate a summer run to Seattle, as its sole service out of Victoria harbor.

In announcing termination of the Vancouver-Victoria portion of the once-famous triangle run, J. N. Fraine, vice-president and general manager of the Pacific region, CPR, said: "The Vancouver-Victoria service was insufficiently patronized last summer, and in order to ensure that the operation of the Seattle run will continue to be economically worth while in bringing United States tourists to Victoria, it was necessary to discontinue the losing portion of the triangle route."

Mr. Fraine scotched rumors that Princess Patricia and/or Princess Marquerite, the triangle run steamers, would be adapted for Alaska cruise service. "One surplus triangle vessel, either the Princess Marquerite or Princess Patricia, will be used on the Nanaimo route, replacing the Princess Elaine. The Princess Elaine will be retained as a stand-by unit, pending study of her future."

Princess Elaine, 32-year veteran of the B.C. Coast Service is tied up alongside the Belleville Street dock, with Princess Elizabeth and Princess Joan, which were sold recently.

GREY DAY

Lonely cry of gulls keeping vigil over Straits set Victoria's mood today as Pacific storm struck with rain and winds up to 55 miles per hour in gusts. Near gales will continue to drive white horses across bleak and barren seas tonight, and will break clouds apart for some sunshine Friday. Temperatures will range between 40 and 48 degrees. Said weatherman William Mackie: "This month is getting more like November all the time." (Times photo by Bill Halkett.)

TOPICS OF THE DAY

City finance committee today decided to offer a 35-year-old fire department pump truck for sale on a scrap basis to any interested volunteer fire brigade.

The 835-gallon pumper, out of service for three years, needs about $5,000 worth of repairs to put it back in running order.

It wasn't worth rehabilitating for fire fighting duties in a large city but might be useful for training and fire fighting in a small community where high water pressures are not needed, Mayor Percy Scurrah said.

Richard Lyle Matthews, 18, of 1515 Derby, was fined $20 when he pleaded guilty in city police court today to being a minor in possession of a dozen bottles of beer and a bottle of rum.

Victoria and Island chapter of the Multiple Sclerosis Society will hold its annual Christmas dinner in the Pendray Hall, corner of Quadra and Johnson, on Saturday, Dec. 10, at 6.30 p.m.

Trans-Canada Air Lines recent increase of Victoria-Vancouver fares to $7 will be protested by Victoria Labor Council. The labor organization Wednesday passed a resolution calling for a federal government subsidy to wipe out the increase if necessary.

Former petty officer Donold Percival Raven, 535 Whiteside, has been promoted to the rank of acting commissioned officer in the RCN, and began a six-week officers' divisional course at HMCS Cornwallis, near Digby, N.S., late last month.

The newly formed Capital City Branch of the Color Photographic Association of Canada will meet at 8 p.m. next Tuesday at 1507 Athlone Drive.

A burglar who stole a heavy steel bar from a construction shed used it to pry open a heavy-duty filing cabinet at a next-door storage firm, and netted $17 cash for the effort overnight Wednesday.

City police said there was no sign of entry to the building of Victoria Van and Storage, 517 Esquimalt, which reported the burglary at 7.40 a.m. The steel bar was taken from a Wheaton Construction Co. shed.

Motorist Roland Goodchild, 1930 Dean Park, was fined $250 when he pleaded guilty in city police court today to impaired driving on Yates.

He was remanded for a probation report on the matter of licence suspension.

Police said Goodchild tried to back into a parking space on the south side of the street, caused about $10 damage when he bumped into a car, then reversed for 25 feet—on the sidewalk.

Anne McGee of Victoria will speak on "The Bahai House of Worship" at a public meeting in the YWCA next Sunday at 8 p.m.

ASK The TIMES

Q. Could you please tell me the original meaning of the Scotch name Craigdarroch? E.E.L.

A. It is Gaelic to describe a hilly spot on the landscape. There are many "Craig-an-darrochs" in Scotland. The name of the famed Victoria castle has been shortened from the original Gaelic by useage.

Q. Has there ever been or is there a rank known as king's or queen's corporal in the English or Canadian armies? R.T.E.

A. No. This is a persistent army myth. It may have been that somebody tried to establish such a rank-standing years ago, but it was never officially recognized. Director of the army historical section in Ottawa, Col. C. P. Stacey, is on record as stating "there is no evidence that this rank ever existed either in the British or Canadian armies". Belief, still in existence, is that a soldier is confirmed in the rank of corporal for heroism or actions beyond duty's call and though he may gain promotions, he cannot be broken below this rank.

Anyone wishing a question answered is invited to send the problem along to The Times, addressed to "Ask the Times" Editor. Questions and answers will be published daily.

All questions should deal with matters of fact and be of general interest. The Times does not undertake to solve conundrums or legal problems. Nor will it attempt to put a value on old coins, stamps or antiques. These should be submitted to dealers.

'THEY JUST GIVE US RUN AROUND'

Elwood Modeste said in an interview in Nanaimo: "For the white man, doctors prescribe the hospital. For the Indian it's always aspirin and keep warm. That is supposed to cure everything."

He said if an Indian is the first one in line at a clinic he has to wait until all whites are dealt with.

"It doesn't matter if he's dying, he waits."

He said doctors paid by the department will not make house calls. He said a child may be dying but the doctor will refuse to visit the home.

'Desecration' On Coast Road To Be Checked

Complaints that scenic qualities of parts of the West Coast road along the Kennedy River are being despoiled by loggers were answered today by a spokesman of McMillan, Bloedel and Powell River Co., who said areas involved would be checked into.

"We are not in the habit of desecrating the countryside," he said. He pointed out the company gave 300-acre Cathedral Grove, on the Alberni Highway, to the province instead of logging it.

A B.C. government parks official said the company has been asked to save a beauty strip of trees along the road from Tofino, but recent travellers over the road protest that much of the timber along the road and river banks has been felled.

The government request was made some time ago, the parks official said.

EXPECTED ACTION

"I understand the company was going to consider it."

Lands and Forests Minister Ray Williston said part of the area is owned privately—by MacMillan, Bloedel, Powell River—and part of it is Crown land.

He added that some roadside clearing was being done along a 100 foot road allowance to prevent windfalls across the route.

It is a matter of policy now to preserve trees on roads in all Crown land, and along the edge of timber licences, said Mr. Williston.

Neither the company nor the government spokesman could say how much timber has already been cut from the Tofino roadside, or on whose property it lies.

3-Year Term For Duncan Burglaries

Three years in B.C. Penitentiary was the sentence passed on Brian John Connerly, 19, in Duncan police court today when he pleaded guilty to 18 indictable offences of breaking, entering, theft, and public mischief.

Magistrate A. C. Sutton said Connerly's offences were "a cold, planned series of crimes." Connerly of Duncan, heard the magistrate say: "I don't like sending a boy to penitentiary but there's nothing else for it."

Connerly had previously admitted 14 of the charges and today tendered pleas of guilty to four more. He also received concurrent sentences of 30 days imprisonment on two summary convictions.

Terry Brian Stokes, 19, Duncan, who admitted four charges of breaking and entering, received a sentence of two years less one day definite and 12 months indeterminate in the Young Offenders Unit. He admitted to four appearances in juvenile court.

Children's Bodies Drift Ashore

Bodies of two male children, believed to be sons of Major William L. Fisher, Lasqueti Island, were found washed ashore in the Campbell River vicinity today.

Major Fisher and his three children left Lasqueti Island Nov. 11 in a 24-foot outboard, and had not been seen since.

It is presumed the two bodies are those of Mark Fisher, seven, and Francis Fisher, five.

The bodies were fully clothed and wearing lifejackets.

Major Fisher, owner of a general store on Lasqueti Island, was heading for French Creek, near Qualicum Beach, on a 30-minute crossing. An air-sea search turned up a brief case washed ashore on Hornby Island. It was later identified as Major Fisher's.

Work Finally Starts On New Jubilee Wing

'BIBLE AS OBSCENE AS NOVEL'

"Lady Chatterley's Lover" is no more obscene than the Bible, says Toronto publisher Jack McClelland.

"It is a work of art—a really great piece of writing. If you call it obscene you might as well call the Bible obscene—and by those standards the Bible could be proved obscene."

Visiting Victoria, Mr. McClelland noted with satisfaction that the uncensored version of D. H. Lawrence's novel has been cleared by a British jury of nine men and three women.

ANGRY OVER BAN

But he was angry that a Montreal court should have banned the book.

"This is an absolute crime," said the 38-year-old president of publishers McClelland and Stewart. "I would say it is a healthy book and I would even recommend it as a substitute for the marriage counsellor.

"Only the mean and craggy-minded could describe it as vulgar or obscene. I would not object to my own children reading it."

Mr. McClelland, who has four children, said the banning of "Lady Chatterley" in Montreal has caused considerable concern among Canadian publishers.

"As I understand it, anyone in Canada can now walk into a magistrate's court and have the book banned locally. This is a serious threat to Canadian literature and the freedom of our writers."

Mr. McClelland is on a western tour to help launch half a dozen new Canadian books, including a first novel by B.C. author Margaret Laurence, set in Ghana and titled "This Side Jordan."

CURB CRUNCH . . . when "big boy's" air brakes failed.

Massive Trailer 'Bullies' Two Cars

Two women were treated for slight injuries suffered at 10 a.m. today when a large lowbed trailer slipped its brakes at Herald and Douglas, then picked on the smallest car on the block.

A second car also was trapped in the melee.

Motorist Eleanor Roberts, 2876 Wyndeatt, and her passenger, Margaret Horner, 2844 Adelaide, were taken to St. Joseph's Hospital with leg and arm bruises, and discharged.

Police said the woman had just parked her small car behind an unoccupied 1959 model sedan, properly parked on Herald just east of Douglas.

Mrs. Horner had the passenger side door open and was getting out when the lowboy, owned by Heaney's and being unloaded at a basement opening of Hudson's Bay Co. store, broke away when its air brake supply failed.

The heavy trailer, loaded with two electrical transformers, rolled backwards, then jackknifed and the rear tandem wheels of its tractor crunched into the front of the sedan, owned by Joseph G. Mann, of Vancouver.

The sedan was pushed onto the sidewalk, snapping off a parking meter, then backwards into the small car, causing extensive total damage, and throwing Mrs. Horner to the sidewalk.

TRAFFIC FINES

Ronald William Long, Youbou, $40, and Ethel Poyntz, 2700 Burdick, $35, for careless driving.

Durward G. Thomas, 2945 Dysart, $10 for failing to register an out-of-province car for touring purposes within 14-day limit.

FOLDED ALMOST IN HALF around a tree trunk when it skidded off rain-slick Esquimalt Road on a curve at Fraser, this 1958 model car was wrecked ar[illegible] driver received head and neck injuries at 12.30 a.m. today. AB Gerard M. Arsenault, 27, HMCS St. Therese, is in satisfactory condition at HMCS Naden Hospital. Esquimalt police said the car jumped a curb and struck the tree almost broadside some 12 feet from the street. Driver's door was forced open to release unconscious Arsenault, who also suffered multiple abrasions.

Main Contract Award Likely Early In '61

Long-delayed program of constructing a five-storey wing at Royal Jubilee Hospital will get rolling next week.

Hospital administrator George Masters said today that bids for demolition of the existing administration building will be called in the next few days.

It is the first move in an accelerated program for calling bids that hospital officials hope will result in award of the $2,750,000 project's main contract by late winter.

"This is very good news," responded Victoria Labor Council secretary-treasurer A. W. Toone. "It appears the hospital board is pushing its schedule ahead because originally the demolition was planned for January.

JOBS NEEDED

"We certainly need the jobs this project will create and I think the board should be commended for making every effort to speed it up."

The red brick administration building was erected in 1890 and is the oldest standing part of the hospital. It has to be pulled down to make room for the new wing.

"The building is half vacant now and will be completely empty by Nov. 25," said Mr. Masters. "Demolition is expected to take about one month."

During the demolition work, the hospital board plans to call for tenders on the new wing itself.

Mr. Masters said normally demolition and site clearing work would be included as part of the main contract.

WILL SAVE TIME

But, by breaking the work up into two parts and calling for tenders on the wing while demolition is in progress "we will save considerable weeks of waiting," he said.

Contractors will need about two months to study plans for the new wing before they can make their bids. While they are making estimates on the main project, the site will be cleared so that a fast start can be made when the award is announced.

Actual award of the main contract probably will be made in February or March. The project is expected to provide employment for up to 200 men and will take two years to complete.

Some 30 staff members will be shifted to various quarters of the hospital when the administration building is pulled down.

CORRIDOR UNDER WAY

Currently, work crews are constructing a covered wooden corridor to connect the hospital with its maternity wing to house oxygen and steam lines and provide all-weather access for staff members between the two sections, replacing the existing link through the administration building and tunnel during the construction period.

The corridor will be ready about mid-December.

Special measures will be taken during the construction period to keep the hospital functioning smoothly.

When finished the new wing will provide: 201 new beds for a net gain of 129; a completely new surgery department with 10 operating theatres which will eliminate the present bottleneck in surgery schedules due to lack of space; a special cancer clinic unit with the Island's first cobalt bomb apparatus.

LONE GUNMAN TAKES PAYROLL IN VANCOUVER

VANCOUVER (CP)—A lone armed bandit kidnapped two soft drink company employees today and robbed them of an $8,600 payroll they had just picked up from a bank.

Wayne Fisk, 22, and Dave Burn, clerk and cashier of the Coca Cola plant in the suburb of Kitsilano, said the armed man slipped in beside them just as they were prepared to pull away in a truck from the bank.

The men were made to drive to bushland in the university area when the gunman left them and drove away in the truck with the money.

SEATO Revises Defence Against Reds

BANGKOK, Thailand (AP)—The Southeast Asia Treaty Organization's military planners agreed today on revision of defence plans to meet Communist internal threats in the treaty area, informed sources said.

The problem of Laos, politically divided and menaced by a strong internal Communist movement, was the chief topic today.

Toronto May Get AL Ball Franchise

NEW YORK (AP)—The American League got down to the business of the problems of its proposed expansion today amid strong rumors that Los Angeles may be left out of immediate plans in favor of Toronto.

An American League official, who declined to be identified, said club owners spent most of the morning "kicking around the idea of giving up Los Angeles for the time being with the possibility of Toronto joining the 10-team lineup" for the 1961 baseball season.

Quebec Proposes Labor Courts

QUEBEC (CP)—Premier Jean Lesage today announced his government will soon propose legislation establishing labor courts.

The premier, speaking to delegates of the Confederation of National Trade Unions presenting their annual brief to the provincial cabinet, said he was in agreement with the 100,000-member labor body's long-standing request for the establishment of labor courts.

'Handful of Diamonds' Grabbed

VANCOUVER (CP)—Police are seeking a snatch-and-grab thief who escaped today with "a handful" of diamonds from a Millers Jewelry store.

No estimate of the value of the diamonds was available immediately.

However, the gems are said to have included one five-karat, one three-karat, two one-karat and two ½-karat diamonds.

Special Budget Set at Ottawa

OTTAWA (CP) — A wide-ranging attack on Canada's unemployment and other economic problems, including presentation of a pre-Christmas baby budget, was signalled by the government at today's opening of the new session of Parliament.

Measures to encourage greater Canadian ownership of the country's industry and resources, and a new program of government guaranteed loans to small business will be part of the government's new legislative program for the session set out in the speech from the throne.

Improvements in National Housing Act mortgage terms, a broadening of the housing program and added federal help for vocational training of displaced workers and others also were forecast in the government - written throne speech, read at the formal opening ceremony in the Senate by Governor-General Vanier.

On another front, the government disclosed plans to alter the law dealing with the death penalty for murder. Informed speculation was that this may abolish the death penalty for some types of murder while retaining the supreme penalty for other types, such as premeditated slayings.

Government encouragement of amateur athletics also was forecast — a move which has been urged by many persons critical of Canada's low standing in international competitions.

A new attack will be made on water pollution using federal loans and grants, and a "comprehensive" program of rural rehabilitation and development will be made available to provinces and local organizations wanting to co-operate.

New Railway Developments Planned

"Several" new railway development projects are in the works, including a CNR line to a new mining area near Mattagami Lake in northwest Quebec and a rail line to tap a large base metal deposit at Pine Point on Great Slave Lake in the Northwest Territories. It will start from the railhead of Grimshaw in Alberta's Peace River country.

The throne speech made no reference to unemployment—expected to be a major debating topic of the session.

It indicated there will be a transfusion of federal money into the dwindling unemployment insurance fund—$319,476,000 at Sept. 30 compared with its peak at more than $900,000,000 in 1956 plus legislation to "correct abuses which have developed" in the operation of the insurance plan.

In a brief review of the economic situation, the throne speech said foreign trade is at a record level, more Canadians have been employed this year than ever before and labor income is at "an all-time high."

But it said the government recognizes the need of continuing economic expansion fast enough to provide jobs for the record numbers now entering

SHY AWAY FROM LABOR

Civil Servants Heed Warning On 'Dabbling'

Victoria civil servants Wednesday made it clear they will vote against affiliating with labor next month by dropping out of the Victoria Labor Council.

The local branch of the B.C. Government Employees' Association cut its local affiliation because the VLC "has decided to take direct action in the forthcoming federal by-election" (in Esquimalt-Saanich), said Jack Gowan, president of the 1,800-member civil service branch.

Motor Vehicles Superintendent George Lindsay said Wednesday civil servants would be placing themselves in jeopardy by political connections.

A letter to the labor council Wednesday night gave formal notice of the Victoria civil servants' decision. Mr. Gowan said the move was approved by members at a meeting Monday.

BCGEA general secretary E. P. O'Connor said in Vancouver today it is a local matter. "The branches themselves decided to affiliate with labor councils."

However, the Victoria decision certainly shows, say officials, how the branch will vote Dec. 15 when all 11,000 BCGEA members decide whether or not to affiliate with the B.C. Federation of Labor.

This affiliation was cut when the provincial government stopped payroll deductions of BCGEA dues Oct. 11.

Civil service members expect the government to reinstate the checkoff if the vote next month is for disaffiliation.

Mr. Lindsay's statement came at a luncheon Wednesday for 25-year civil servants.

Allegiance Can Lead to Discharge

"I have been fearful recently that we of the civil service are placing ourselves in jeopardy probably to the extent of losing the recognition and advantages we have received over the years," Lindsay said.

Mr. Lindsay replied to a chairman's speech by Provincial Secretary Wesley Black who praised "truly good and faithful servants."

Mr. Lindsay said civil servants in other provinces and the U.S. had political connections. He referred to this year's election in Quebec where the Union Nationale party was ousted by the Liberals and the over-

NEW PARTY MEMBER JOINS CCF CAUCUSES

OTTAWA (CP) — Walter Pitman, 31, New Party member of Parliament for Peterborough, Ont., said today he probably will attend CCF party caucuses but does not intend to join the CCF members in their closed strategy sessions.

Mr. Pitman, the first New Party member of the Commons, was sworn in as an MP by commons clerk Leon J. Raymond. Hazen Argue, CCF national leader, and Stanley Knowles, vice-president of the Canadian Labor Congress, attended the ceremony.

Debre Takes Big Gamble On Atom Plan

PARIS (Reuters) — Prime Minister Michel Debre tonight staked the life of his government—for a second time—on National Assembly approval of the plan to build France's independent nuclear striking force.

The government move came after rejection of the 12,000,000,000 new francs (about $24,000,000) five-year program by the Senate and failure of a compromise bid by a joint committee of both Houses.

Under the constitution the Assembly has the last word on a disputed bill. The controversial strike force project was the subject of an opposition censure motion against the government which was defeated in the National Assembly Oct. 25.

It gained 207 votes—70 short of the absolute majority needed to overthrow the 21-month-old Debre government.

BUNGLED PURSE-SNATCHING

Dishwasher Confesses To Killing Three Women

OTTAWA, Ill. (AP)—A sobbing dishwasher told authorities today that he killed the wives of three Chicago business executives in a canyon at Starved Rock State Park after a bungled purse-snatching attempt.

Sheriff Ray Eutsey said the confession was given by Chester Otis Weger, 21-year-old father of two youngsters, who was employed in the park lodge kitchen.

The victims, slain March 14, were Mrs. Lillian Oetting, 50; Mrs. Mildred Lindquist, 50, and Mrs. Frances Murphy, 47, who lived in Riverside, a Chicago suburb.

Hundreds of men were questioned in a widespread eight-month investigation to solve the mystery surrounding the brutal clubbing of the white women.

Eutsey said Weger had been a special object of interest from the outset because he had been quizzed in two robberies at nearby Deer Park in 1959.

Today, handcuffed and held by a chain leash, the stocky Weger led authorities from place to place in the canyon, re-enacting the killings.

The sheriff said Weger told this story between outbursts of sobbing and periods of sulky silence:

He encountered the three women near the mouth of St. Louis Canyon and attempted to snatch what he thought was a purse one o them was carrying.

CHESTER WEGER
. . . 'I Hit Them'

What he snatched was a camera Mrs. Murphy was carrying. The strap broke. Realizing that he had failed to get money, Weger hesitated.

He said he pleaded with the three women to return up the canyon and give him an opportunity to flee. At length, they consented and walked back toward the canyon's dead end.

During the re-enactment, Weger said he followed the women, still intent upon getting money, herded them into the cave. Then:

"I tied them so they wouldn't follow me. The little one (Mrs. Murphy) raised her hand to hit me. When I started back, she came after me on the path. I thought she was tied.

"She hit me on the back of the head with binoculars. I reached for the club as she hit me, and I turned and struck her on the back of the head."

The club was a length of tree limb.

TRIED TO SCRATCH HIM

He said Mrs. Murphy fell. "Her eyes were closed. I carried her back to the cave. The two women in the cave managed to get up. One tried to scratch me; I don't know which one.

"I'd laid the club down, but I picked it up and hit them so they couldn't identify me. They lay back. I kept striking them. Then I looked up and Mrs. Murphy came to. I thought I had killed her. I thought she was dead."

He clubbed Mrs. Murphy again, he said.

Ike Sends Forces To Latin America

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP)—President Eisenhower has ordered U.S. Navy warships and air units to help Guatemala and Nicaragua "seek out and prevent" any Communist-directed attack on these countries if it becomes necessary.

The White House reported the warships, including an aircraft carrier, are "now on the high seas" to carry out this mission.

Eisenhower acted, the White House said, in answer to written requests from the Guatemalan and Nicaraguan governments for such American help.

NO MARINES ABOARD

White House Press Secretary James Hagerty, who announced Eisenhower's decision, said that as far as he knew there were no U.S. marines aboard the ships sent into the Caribbean area.

Hagerty strongly hinted—but declined to say specifically—that the warships would, if necessary, go into action to repel any attack from Cuba.

CRACKDOWN ON RADIO 'CONTESTS'

OTTAWA (CP)—The Board of Broadcast Governors said today it proposes to amend its radio station regulations to limit promotional contests, alter the timing of advertisements, "induce greater program choice for listeners" and increase Canadian content.

The governors' intentions will be open to debate at a public hearing opening in Ottawa Nov. 29. Specific amendments will be proposed later and be made subject to a second hearing.

The statement did not indicate any concrete BBG plan to cope with Canadian content on radio stations. But it said many stations are "making little effort to build up programs of Canadian content and character."

Each will serve three years. George Muir of Nanaimo is the city nominee for the third position.

$1,000 Offered For Sheep Killer

GANGES—A reward of $1,000 has been offered here for capture and conviction of the person responsible for the slaughter of four sheep on Salt Spring Island.

Remains of three ewes were found Sunday near Fulford and a fresh hide was found Monday in Fulford Harbor.

Remains of the ewes, all mature animals, revealed that they had been butchered and the meat taken.

"It must have been an outside job," an RCMP officer said. "A Salt Spring Islander would have had a better eye for tender meat."

The animals found on shore were from the flocks of either Robert Akerman or Gavin Reynolds. Reward money was offered by the British Columbia Sheep Breeders' Association.

7 Charged With Fraud, Bribery

NORANDA, Que. (CP)—Charges of fraud and bribery have been lodged against seven men, including the defeated Progressive Conservative candidate for Villeneuve in the last two federal general elections, following an RCMP investigation into government public works projects.

The charges involve alleged mishandling of government funds in connection with works department dredging and other activities on rivers in this Quebec area.

$1 Taken From Till

LADYSMITH — Dalby's service Station, Bayview Road, was broken into Tuesday night and $1 in change, all that had been left on the premises, was taken from an open cash register.

Owners checked stock but found nothing missing.
